

Food Adulteration Paragraph

For SSC/HSC Exam 2022

Man cannot live without food. It is essential for health and life. But this food should be pure, clean and fresh. Nowadays food is often adulterated. In hotels and restaurants, stale and rotten food is mixed with fresh food and served to customers. Fish and vegetables are treated with toxic chemicals and preservatives to make them look fresh. Bakery and confectionery products are also made using toxic substances and thus they are adulterated. Junk food contains harmful chemicals. Even fruits, milk, drinks are adulterated. In fact, unscrupulous and greedy traders and shopkeepers adulterate all kinds of food items for quick and unreasonable profits. Junk food is very harmful to health. They cause many serious diseases and even death. Food adulteration has become a major problem in our country. Dealing in adulterated food is a serious offence. Criminals should be identified and punished. Public awareness should be created so that they are careful about buying food and food items.

Dishonest and greedy food traders should be looked down upon in society. The concerned departments of the government should always be vigilant against adulteration and strengthen their activities. It is satisfactory that our government has taken appropriate measures to eradicate this problem, punish the culprits and save the people from this terrible calamity.
