Madness, Art, and Society Anna Harpin, 2018-01-19 How is madness experienced, treated and represented? How might art think around and beyond psychiatric definitions of illness and wellbeing? Madness, Art, and Society engages with artistic practices from theatre and live art to graphic fiction, charting a multiplicity of ways of thinking critically with rather than about non-normative psychological experience. It is organised into two parts. Structures psychiatrists, institutions, treatments illuminates the environments, figures and primary models of psychiatric care, reconsidering their history and contemporary manifestations through case studies including David Edgar's Mary Barnes and Milos Forman's One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest. Experiences realities, bodies, moods, problematises diagnostic categories and proposes more radically open models of thinking in relation to experiences of madness, touching upon works such as Richard Kelly's Donnie Darko and Duncan Macmillan's People Places and Things. Reading its case studies as a counter-discourse to orthodox psychiatry, Madness, Art, and Society seeks a more nuanced understanding of the plurality of madness in society and in so doing offers an outstanding resource for students and scholars alike.
