Sprout, 2013-06-24 For the three forces competing for political authority in France during World War II music became the site of a cultural battle that reflected the war itself German occupying authorities promoted German music at the expense of French while the Vichy administration pursued projects of national renewal through culture Meanwhile Resistance networks gradually formed to combat German propaganda while eyeing Vichy's efforts with suspicion. In The Musical Legacy of Wartime France Leslie A Sprout explores how each of these forces influenced the composition, performance and reception of five well known works: the secret Resistance songs of Francis Poulenc and those of Arthur Honegger; Olivier Messiaen's Quartet for the End of Time composed in a German prisoner of war camp; Maurice Durufl's Requiem one of sixty five pieces commissioned by Vichy between 1940 and 1944; and Igor Stravinsky's Danses concertantes which was met at its 1945 Paris premiere with protests that prefigured the aesthetic debates of the early Cold War. Sprout examines not only how these pieces were created and disseminated during and just after the war but also how and why we still associate these pieces with the stories we tell in textbooks, program notes, liner notes, historical monographs and biographies about music, France and World War II.
