Cognitive Radio, Mobile Communications and Wireless Networks Mubashir Husain Rehmani, Riadh Dhaou, 2018-07-30

This book provides an overview of the latest research and development of new technologies for cognitive radio mobile communications and wireless networks. The contributors discuss the research and requirement analysis and initial standardization work towards 5G cellular systems and the capacity problems it presents. They show how cognitive radio with the capability to flexibly adapt its parameters has been proposed as the enabling technology for unlicensed secondary users to dynamically access the licensed spectrum owned by legacy primary users on a negotiated or an opportunistic basis. They go on to show how cognitive radio is now perceived in a much broader paradigm that will contribute to solve the resource allocation problem that 5G requirements raise. The chapters represent hand selected expanded papers from EAI sponsored and hosted conferences such as the 12th EAI International Conference on Mobile and Ubiquitous Systems, the 11th EAI International Conference on Heterogeneous Networking for Quality, Reliability, Security and Robustness, the 10th International Conference on Cognitive Radio Oriented Wireless Networks, the 8th International Conference on Mobile Multimedia Communications and the EAI International Conference on Software Defined Wireless Networks and Cognitive Technologies for IoT.

Conversations After Sex and Trade Mark O'Halloran, 2023-02-06 Multiple award winning Mark O'Halloran is one of Ireland's most celebrated writers. Two plays spanning 12 years of work come together in one published edition to coincide with the New York premiere in January 2023. CONVERSATIONS AFTER SEX You remind me of someone though I mean you're not like him. Not physically like him. Nowhere near. But there's something there. Your voice or how you hold yourself. Your hands. In a series of unexpected and unguarded conversations after anonymous sexual encounters, a woman discovered men with the same deep need to communicate and connect in the lonely atomised city. A portrayal of grief that is unforgettable in its rawness. The Guardian. TRADE This is just this. It isn't real. It's money. In a guesthouse in Dublin's north inner city, a vulnerable and confused young rent boy sits with a middle-aged client. It's not the first time they've met, but today the older man has blood on his shirt. A lot has happened since they last met. It closes around your heart like a fist. The Irish Times.
