Mallick, Clive Harmer, 2018-09-17 Written by a multidisciplinary team of experts involved in the development of standards and guidelines for its management in the USA UK Europe and Asia the book contains succinct and knowledgeable summaries of the management of thyroid cancer Every chapter describes a different aspect of care and provides clear and detailed information about caring for patients with this group of tumors This is an invaluable reference to health care professionals from primary to tertiary care involved in the management of thyroid cancer such as clinical nurse specialists clinical psychologists family medicine practitioners specialists in palliative care especially for anaplastic thyroid cancers geneticists and surgeons endocrinologists oncologists pathologists and radiologists An Outline of Organisational Principles for Management Bruce Ford Yuill, 1966 Clinical Directorates in the Irish Health Service Yvonne O'Shea, 2009-11-16 The introduction in Ireland in 2008 of the clinical directorate model as the accepted method for the organisation of health services and the involvement of clinicians in the management of these services is one of the most significant developments to happen in the Irish health services in recent years It poses major challenges for all clinical and medical professions In Clinical Directorates in the Irish Health Services Yvonne O Shea explores the history and evolution of clinical directorates over the last thirty years in order to arrive at a deep understanding of the thinking behind them and the impact they are likely to have on Irish health services Clinical Directorates in the Irish Health Services is about making the right choices in the management of health services It suggests that the involvement of clinicians in management and in making decisions about how resources are used in acute and primary settings is the most efficient way to guarantee the effective use of resources and the safety of patients Clinical Directorates in the Irish Health Services provides Irish clinical professionals with a resource to assist them in understanding the clinical directorate model and their own role within it Medical Group Management ,1960 Retraining for the Elderly Disabled Margaret Mort,2024-06-03 Many elderly patients have long term physical disability and in order for them to maintain a certain level of independence either in hospital or in the community great attention must be paid to devising programmes to overcome problems and enhance residual abilities Originally published in 1985 the programme described in this book had developed over the previous 25 years at the Royal Newcastle Hospital in Australia It grew in response to the practical needs of patients who having been treated by conventional means were left with residual disabilities to a degree that their successful return to the community was jeopardised The retraining programme described is a problem solving process coordinated under one director combined with close teamwork between staff the patient and relatives Throughout attention is paid to social and psychological factors as well as physical problems when discussing physical retraining methods involving the repetition of routine movements

Practical Management of Affective Disorders in Older People Stephen Curran,John Wattis,2008 Building on the success of Practical Psychiatry of Old Age now in its Fourth Edition this book looks in more detail at affective disorders from a variety of perspectives It includes expert contributions on areas such as aetiology diagnosis and psychological and pharmacological treatment It also focuses on a contextual approach to the management of affective disorders in areas like primary care and geriatric medicine as well as the specific contributions of disciplines such as nursing social work and occupational therapy User and carer viewpoints are also included along with the often neglected spiritual aspects of managing these conditions This balanced inclusive and practical approach makes it ideal for all members of the multi disciplinary team involved in the management of affective disorders in older people Buildings and Society Anthony D. King,2003-10-04 Buildings are essentially social and cultural products They result from social needs and accommodate a variety of functions economic social political religious Their size appearance location and form result not simply from physical factors such as materials climate or technology nor from architects designs but from a society's ideas its forms of economic and social organisation and the beliefs and values which prevail at any one time Society produces its buildings and the buildings help to maintain many of its social forms

Abortion Care is Health Care Barbara Baird,2023-10-03 In Abortion Care is Health Care Barbara Baird tells the history of the provision of abortion care in Australia since 1990 Against the backdrop of a reticent public sector Baird describes a system of predominantly private provision which has excluded women already marginalised by poverty rural and remote residency lack of Medicare entitlement racism and other factors Tracing changes in the private sector the long struggle to make medical abortion available and the nationwide decriminalisation of abortion since 2002 Baird introduces readers to the large cast of champions and everyday healthcare workers and activists who have persisted in their commitment to make abortion care available when governments and the medical profession have so often failed Drawing on oral history interviews conducted nationwide with abortion providing doctors nurses counsellors and managers women s health workers academics and community activists Baird brings a critical feminist analysis to create a sophisticated historical narrative of abortion provision over the last thirty years Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain.

 Problem Based Learning PBL and Project Based Learning are teaching methods based on principles of student centred learning which target an interdisciplinary engineering curriculum The transition from strictly traditional approaches in engineering education represents significant opportunities for change Currently many engineering institutions in different countries all over the world exploit these opportunities for change as they move from the traditional paradigm towards the techno science paradigm by implementing project organised and PBL models This book addresses the need for more structured information on the implementation process in particular in existing engineering schools and it aims to put together an overview of examples of the introduction of PBL formats in Engineering Concrete case histories serve as a basis for inspiration for further development but also deeper insight in the understanding of implementing change Queen
