studies to illustrate how a significant elusive construct can be addressed empirically It explores different qualitative research methodologies which although well established in other fields are yet to be extensively used in TS but which may nevertheless prove to be of significance for future studies as they allow elusive concepts typically found in TS to be worked with more coherently Chapters are structured around two core ideas first the qualitative systematic analysis of source text content with emphasis on the detection of translation problems as a means of creating efficient frameworks for coherent decision making from a functional perspective and secondly the practical process of stereotyping and profiling specific problems within different contexts content types or services to help identify manage and resolve them in a number of settings from research to professional translator training and assessment environments This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies particularly those with an interest in qualitative approaches Discourse Analysis in Translation Studies Jeremy Munday, Meifang Zhang, 2017-07-18 Discourse analytic approaches are central to translator training and translation analysis but have been somewhat overlooked in recent translation studies This volume sets out to rectify this marginalization It considers the evolution of the use of discourse analysis in translation studies presents current research from ten leading figures in the field and provides pointers for the future Topics range from close textual analysis of cohesion thematic structure and the interpersonal function to the effects of global English and the discourses of cyberspace The inherent link between discourse and the construction of power is evident in many contributions that analyse institutional power and the linguistic resources which mark translator interpreter positioning An array of scenarios and languages are covered including Arabic Chinese English German Korean and Spanish Originally published as a special issue of Target 27 3 2015

werden auch die unterschiedlichen sozialhistorischen und politischen Faktoren in der BRD und DDR sowie nach der Wiedervereinigung betrachtet. Diese kontextualisierte Untersuchung der Literaturrezeption erfolgt anhand der Werke vieler afrikanischer Autoren insbesondere des Kameruners Ferdinand Oyono, des Kenianers Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, des Nigerianers Chinua Achebe und des Ivorers Ahmadou Kourouma. Die Analyse zeigt, dass das Idealbild vom ideologiefreien Kulturtransfer der Realität nicht standhält, da die Übersetzung sei es bei der Auswahl der zu übersetzenden Texte oder auch bei den Übersetzungsstrategien der ausnahmslos europäischen Übersetzer sich als ein gesellschaftsbezogenes und ideologisch geprägtes Konstrukt herausstellt. Die für das Übersetzen oft postulierte interkulturelle Kommunikation und internationale Partnerschaft weist demnach ein bedeutendes asymmetrisches Machtverhältnis zwischen Zivilisationen auf, dessen Ursache nicht sprachlicher, literarischer oder künstlerischer, sondern eher geopolitischer Natur ist.
