Carnegie,Noor Hasharina Hassan,2023-04-06 This thoughtful and wide ranging open access volume explores the forces and issues shaping and defining contemporary identities and everyday life in Brunei Darussalam It is a subject that until now has received comparatively limited attention from mainstream social scientists working on Southeast Asian societies The volume helps remedy that deficit by detailing the ways in which religion gender place ethnicity nation state formation migration and economic activity work their way into and reflect in the lives of ordinary Bruneians In a first of its kind all the lead authors of the chapter contributions are local Bruneian scholars and the editors skilfully bring the study of Brunei into the fold of the sociology of everyday life from multiple disciplinary directions By engaging local scholars to document everyday concerns that matter to them the volume presents a collage of distinct but interrelated case studies that have been previously undocumented or relatively underappreciated These interior portrayals render new angles of vision scale and nuance to our understandings of Brunei often overlooked by mainstream inquiry Each in its own way speaks to how structures and institutions express themselves through complex processes to influence the lives of inhabitants Academic scholars university students and others interested in the study of contemporary Brunei Darussalam will find this volume an invaluable resource for unravelling its diversity and textures At the same time it hopefully stimulates critical reflection on positionality hierarchies of knowledge production cultural diversity and the ways in which we approach the social science study of Brunei I wish to commend the editors for bringing this volume to fruition It is an important book in the context of Southeast Asian sociology and even more important for the development of our social geographical cultural and historical knowledge of Brunei Victor T King University of Leeds Buat Yang Tersayang Maya Rasyidah,2011 Sekiranya mahu melanjutkan pelajaran dalam bidang kedoktoran Syira wajib berkahwin dengan calon suami yang dipilih ayahnya Dia terpaksa akur dengan syarat itu demi cita citanya yang satu Belumpun diijabkabulkan dia bagaikan sudah ditalak Airy yang tidak mahu bertemu dengannya sehingga sah menjadi suami isteri terang terangan memberitahu sudah ada kekasih yang mengisi jiwanya Dalam pada diri redha hati Syira terluka Dia turutkan jua permintaan Airy untuk berlakon sebagai pasangan yang bahagia Brunei Darussalam Brunei,2005 Essays on Brunei Darussalam ,1992 Volume commemorating the silver jubilee of the ascension to the throne of Hassanah Bolkiah Sultan of Brunei Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King,Zawawi Ibrahim,Noor Hasharina Hassan,2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012. The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post-war research on Borneo to wider scholarship. It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself. The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region. In particular, there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular, notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak. In doing so, the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve, specifically subjects, themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation, elaboration and research, and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies. The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region.

Historical Dictionary of Brunei Darussalam Jatswan S. Sidhu, 2016-12-20. After being a British protectorate for about 96 years since the 1888 Treaty of Protection, the modern state of Negara Brunei Darussalam Abode of Peace eventually obtained its independence from Great Britain on 1 January 1984. Run by a royal family that established a kingdom in Brunei some 650 years ago, the first sultan Muhammad Shah Alak Betatar was installed in c. 1363. Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah, the current ruler, is the 29th sultan of the lineage and is one of the richest men in the world. In spite of being called a mini-state, Brunei is well known around the world because its population enjoys one of the highest gross national income per capita in the world at an average of US$39,943 in 2015. This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Brunei Darussalam contains a chronology, an introduction, appendixes and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion and culture. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Brunei Darussalam.

Media and Nation Building John Postill, 2006. With the end of the Cold War and the proliferation of civil wars and regime changes, the question of nation building has acquired great practical and theoretical urgency. From Eastern Europe to East Timor, Afghanistan and recently Iraq, the United States and its allies have often been accused of shirking their nation building responsibilities as their attention and that of the media turned to yet another regional crisis. While much has been written about the growing influence of television and the Internet on modern warfare, little is known about the relationship between media and nation building. This book explores for the first time this relationship by means of a paradigmatic case of successful nation building: Malaysia. Based on extended fieldwork and historical research, the author follows the diffusion adoption and social uses of media among the Iban of Sarawak in Malaysian Borneo and demonstrates the wide ranging process of nation building that has accompanied the Iban adoption of radio clocks print media and television In less than four decades Iban longhouses villages under one roof have become media organizations shaped by the official ideology of Malaysia a country hastily formed in 1963 by conjoining four disparate territories Gema Departemen Agama ,1987 The Brunei Museum Journal Muzium Brunei,1980 Anthropogenic Tropical Forests Noboru Ishikawa,Ryoji Soda,2019-11-06 The studies in this volume provide an ethnography of a plantation frontier in central Sarawak Malaysian Borneo Drawing on the expertise of both natural scientists and social scientists the key focus is the process of commodification of nature that has turned the local landscape into anthropogenic tropical forests Analysing the transformation of the space of mixed landscapes and multiethnic communities driven by trade in forest products logging and the cultivation of oil palm the contributors explore the changing nature of the environment multispecies interactions and the metabolism between capitalism and nature The project involved the collaboration of researchers specialising in anthropology geography Southeast Asian history global history area studies political ecology environmental economics plant ecology animal ecology forest ecology hydrology ichthyology geomorphology and life cycle assessment Collectively the transdisciplinary research addresses a number of vital questions How are material cycles and food webs altered as a result of large scale land use change How have new commodity chains emerged while older ones have disappeared What changes are associated with such shifts What are the relationships among these three elements commodity chains material cycles and food webs Attempts to answer these questions led the team to go beyond the dichotomy of society and nature as well as human and non human Rather the research highlights complex relational entanglements of the two worlds abruptly and forcibly connected by human induced changes in an emergent and compelling resource frontier in maritime Southeast Asia Chapters Commodification of Nature on the Plantation Frontier and Into a New Epoch The Plantationocene are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivatives 4.0 International License via link springer.com Continuity and Change in Brunei Darussalam Victor T.
