Tuten, Lucía Caycedo Garner, Carmelo Esterrich, 1999-11 For full description see entry for Rusch et al Fuentes 2 e      The Writings of Carlos Fuentes Raymond L. Williams, 1996-01-01 In this book Raymond Leslie Williams traces the themes of history culture and identity in Fuentes work particularly in his complex major novel Terra Nostra He opens with a biography of Fuentes that links his works to his intellectual life a life that has been centrally concerned with finding and defining the source and character of Latin American culture The heart of the study is Williams extensive reading of the novel Terra Nostra in which Fuentes explores the presence of Spanish culture and history in Latin America Williams concludes with a look at how Fuentes other fiction relates to Terra Nostra including Fuentes own division of his work into fourteen cycles that he calls La Edad del Tiempo and with an interview in which Fuentes discusses his concept of this cyclical division      Digital Learning in High-Needs Schools Heejung An, David A. Fuentes, 2023-06-21 Digital Learning in High Needs Schools examines the challenges and affordances that arise when high needs school communities integrate educational technologies into their unique settings Although remote blended and networked learning are ubiquitous today a number of cultural economic and political realities from the digital divide and digital literacy to poverty and language barriers affect our most vulnerable and underresourced teachers and students This book uses critical theory to compassionately scrutinize and unpack the systemic issues that impact high needs schools implementation of digital learning tools Incisive sociocultural analyses across fifteen original chapters explore the intersection of society technology people politics and education in high needs school contexts Informed by real world cases pertaining to technology infrastructure formative feedback Universal Design for Learning and more these chapters illuminate how best practices emerge from culturally responsive and context specific foundations      Resources in Education , 1996-08      Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12      Everyday Surveillance William G. Staples, 2013-10-18 When we think of surveillance in our society we usually imagine Big Brother scenarios with the government tracking our every move The actual surveillance of our everyday lives is much more subtle however and may be more insidious William G Staples shows how our lives are tracked by both public and private organizations sometimes with our consent and sometimes without through our internet use cell phones public video cameras credit cards license plates shopping habits and more Everyday Surveillance is a provocative exploration of the myriad ways we are watched each day and how this surveillance shapes our lives Thoroughly revised the second edition considers new topics such as the rise of social media and updates research throughout Everyday Surveillance introduces students to concepts of social control and incites classroom discussion about how surveillance impacts the ways we understand people and our lives at home work school or in the community

Corpora in the Foreign Language Classroom Encarnación Hidalgo Tenorio, Luis Quereda Rodríguez-Navarro, Juan Santana, 2007 The papers published in this volume reflect the latest developments that have taken place in the field of the teaching applications of text corpora with a special emphasis on their use in the foreign language classroom The book is divided into three main sections The first section sets the scene for what this collection of essays aims to be It deals with the issue of what corpus linguistics can do not only for the understanding of the nature of language itself but also for so fundamental and miraculous a matter such as language learning and language acquisition The second section tackles the issues of corpus design and corpus exploitation and provides the reader with a great variety of evidence in favour of corpora exploitation for the building of a successful teaching environment The final section deals with practical applications of corpora in the foreign language classroom

How Real Is Race? Carol C. Mukhopadhyay, Rosemary Henze, Yolanda T. Moses, 2025-03-14 Biologically speaking there is no such thing as race Yet this seems to contradict the experiences of people in the United States and other countries where racial classification is used daily by individuals and institutions Race still matters whether in wealth accumulation educational achievement health the legal system or in personal safety How can race not be real when we experience its effects every day Mukhopadhyay Henze and Moses systematically deconstruct the myth of race as biology and address the reality of race as a cultural invention drawing on biocultural historical and cross cultural anthropological perspectives In doing so they shed light on the intricate interplay among race biology culture power and stratification Part I The Fallacy of Race as Biology unravels the myth that races are biologically valid divisions of humanity Part II Culture Creates Race explores race as a social construction the emergence of the racial worldview as ideological justification for inequality and how social processes especially restrictions on interracial sex and marriage maintained visible markers of racial hierarchy Part III Contemporary Issues examines current manifestations of racial stratification including the educational achievement gap health disparities and how the language of race embodies and reinforces a racial worldview

New to this Edition New Chapter 11 Unpacking the Health Consequences of Racial Stratification explores the continuing impacts of the racial worldview on race related health disparities using the COVID 19 pandemic maternal health and weathering and exposure to environmental toxins as case studies New Chapter 12 Dismantling the Racial World View explores racial ideology including language and offers alternative approaches to racial language dilemmas Updated and expanded discussion of human evolution includes contemporary critiques and alternative scenarios of long standing models of human evolution and emphasizes our collective African roots Updated and expanded coverage of genomics DNA epigenetic processes and the enormous human variability at the molecular level all challenging nature versus nurture models of how we become who we are New data on immigrants languages religions socio economic and regional racial ethnic patterns interracial marriage and other trends explores contemporary diversity in the United States and suggests traditional racial ideology and categories are becoming obsolete Críticas ,2003 Mother Jones Magazine ,1989-02 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues The Student Book 84/85 Klaus Boehm,Nick Wellings,1984
