Corporate Finance Pierre Vernimmen, Pascal Quiry, Maurizio Dallocchio, Yann Le Fur, Antonio Salvi, 2017-09-22 The essential corporate finance text updated with new data Corporate Finance has long been a favourite among both students and professionals in the field for its unique blend of theory and practice with a truly global perspective The fact that the authors are well known academics and professionals in the world of mergers and acquisitions M A and investment explains this popularity This new Fifth Edition continues the tradition offering a comprehensive tour of the field through scenario based instruction that places concept and application in parallel A new chapter has been added devoted to the financial management of operating buildings that aims to answer questions such as to own or to rent variable or fixed rents etc The book's companion website features regularly updated statistics graphs and charts along with study aids including quizzes case studies articles lecture notes and computer models reflecting the author team's deep commitment to facilitating well rounded knowledge of corporate finance topics In addition a monthly free newsletter keeps the readers updated on the latest developments in corporate finance as well as the book's Facebook page which publishes a post daily Financial concepts can be quite complex but a familiar setting eases understanding while immediate application promotes retention over simple memorisation As comprehensive relevant skills are the goal this book blends academic and industry perspective with the latest regulatory and practical developments to provide a complete corporate finance education with real world applicability Blend theory and practice to gain a more relevant understanding of corporate finance concepts Explore the field from a truly European perspective for a more global knowledge base Learn essential concepts tools and techniques by delving into real world applications Access up to date data plus quizzes case studies lecture notes and more A good financial manager must be able to analyse a company's economic financial and strategic situation and then value it all while mastering the conceptual underpinnings of all decisions involved By emphasising the ways in which concepts impact and relate to real world situations Corporate Finance provides exceptional preparation for working productively and effectively in the field

Foundations of Airline Finance Bijan Vasigh, 2014-11-13 In recent years the airline industry has experienced severe volatility in earnings with airlines recording periods of substantial profits that are closely followed by periods of financial distress This trend has continued into the new millennium with numerous examples of airlines across the globe entering bankruptcy protection or liquidating The text provides an introduction to both the basics of finance and the particular intricacies of airline finance where there can be significant fluctuations in both revenues and costs This new edition also includes capital budgeting management of current assets financial risk analysis fuel hedging aircraft leasing This textbook contains chapters that cover unique aspects of the aviation financial decision making process These include a rigorous and structured presentation of the buy versus lease decision that is prevalent in the industry a valuation process for aviation assets the recent trend toward privatization and the difficulty inherent in the valuation of a publicly owned or semi publicly owned asset The Foundations of

Airline Finance now in its second edition is an introductory text that can be used either as a general financial text or in a specialized class that deals with aviation finance in particular

New Financing for Distressed Businesses in the Context of Business Restructuring Law Sanford U. Mba, 2019-06-29 This book focuses on the restructuring of distressed businesses emphasizing the need for new financing during the restructuring process as well as during relaunch and examines the role of law in encouraging creditor confidence and incentivizing lending It describes two broad approaches to encouraging new finance during restructuring a prescriptive one that seeks to attract credit using expressly defined statutory incentives and a market based one that relies on the business judgment of lenders against the backdrop of transaction avoidance rules Securing new financing for a distressed business is a critical part of successful restructuring Without such financing the business may be unable to meet interim liquidity constraints or to implement its restructuring plans This book addresses related questions concerning the place of new financing as an essential component of restructuring In general terms the book explores how statutory interventions and the courts can provide support with contentious issues that arise from the provision of new financing whether through new financing agreements or through distressed debt investors who are increasingly gaining prominence as sources of new financing for distressed businesses It argues that courts play a key part in preventing or correcting the imbalances that can arise from the participation of distressed debt investors In this context it critically examines the distressed debt market in emerging markets like Nigeria and the opportunity presented by non performing loans arguing that the regulatory pattern of market entry may disincentivize distress debt investing in a market that is in dire need of financing The book offers a fresh and comparative perspective on restructuring new financing for distressed businesses by comparing various approaches primarily from the US UK and Germany and drawing lessons for frontier markets with particular reference to Nigeria It fills an important gap in international comparative scholarship and discusses a living problem with both empirical and policy aspects
