Private Security and Identity Politics Jutta Joachim, Andrea

Schneiker,2018-07-18 This book examines the self representation and identity politics of Private Military and Security Companies PMSCs PMSCs have become increasingly important over the past few decades While their boom is frequently explained in functional terms such as their cost efficiency and effectiveness this book offers an alternative explanation based on an analysis of the online self presentations of forty two US and UK based companies PMSCs are shaping how they are perceived and establishing themselves as acceptable and legitimate security actors by eclectically appropriating identities more commonly associated with the military businesses and humanitarian actors Depending on their audience and clients needs they can be professional hero warriors or promise turn key security solutions based on their exceptional expertise or in a similar way to humanitarians reassure those in need of relief and try to make the world a better place Rather than being merely public relations the self referential assertions of PMSCs are political Not only do they contribute to a normalization of private security and reinforce an already ongoing blurring of lines between the public and private sectors they also change what we deem to be security and a security actor This book will be of much interest to students of private military companies critical security studies military studies security studies and IR Freedom of Religion, Minority Rights and the Law

Aleksandra Gliszczynska-Grabias,Aviad Hacoen,2025-08-08 This book provides an in depth scholarly reflection on the challenges that arise in guaranteeing religious freedom and protection of the rights of religious minorities in law and practice Currently the protection of religious minorities constitutes one of the foundations of the international human rights protection systems and is provided for in the constitutions of all democratic states The volume identifies analyses and assesses the legal status of religious freedom and protection of religious minorities with special focus on Jewish and Muslim minorities in the European and Israeli legal environments It compares the discourses on the scope and boundaries of religious freedom with the actual treatment of religious freedom in legal regulations the case law and in practice by the general society The book employs the resources of comparative law and national and international law as well as legal theory Extensive use is also made of decisions of the international courts including the European Court of Human Rights and the Court of Justice of the European Union The book will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of law and religion international human rights law comparative constitutional law and religious studies

In and Out: Rights of Migrants in the European Space Francesco Lo Piccolo,Annalisa Mangiaracina,Giuseppe Paternostro,Vincenzo Todaro,2024-05-21 This book examines contemporary migratory movements starting from the European zone but with an extension to other territorial contexts as well with research orientation that focuses on the account of the migratory experiences collected in the research activity of the different authors according to a multidisciplinary dimension Starting from these key topics the authors articulated and further developed its reflections through its own experiences at the national and international level taking root within the current scientific debate on migration The interdisciplinary approach and the different and innovative ways of analysing in depth the thematic contents of the migration phenomenon have made it possible to identify some key research questions The relative answers find space in the articulated and complex system of contributions that is developed within this book and in particular in the three thematic parts into which it is divided The first one deals with the theme of migration confronted with issues related to the right to the city and the right to housing the second one deals with issues related to human rights finally the third one focuses on the different narratives of migrants life experiences and aspects related to the linguistic representation of the urban space

Nuclear Regulatory Commission Oversight United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Environment and Public Works. Subcommittee on Clean Air and Nuclear Safety,2014 The European Court of Human Rights and the Freedom of Religion or Belief Jeroen Temperman,T. Jeremy Gunn,Malcolm D. Evans,2019-01-04 As the tensions involving religion and society increase the European Court of Human Rights and the Freedom of Religion or Belief is the first systematic analysis of the first twenty five years of the European Court s religion jurisprudence The Court is one of the most significant institutions confronting the interactions among states religious groups minorities and dissenters In the 25 years since its first religion case Kokkinakis v Greece the Court has inserted itself squarely into the international human rights debate regarding the freedom of religion or belief The authors demonstrate the positive contributions and the significant flaws of the Court s jurisprudence involving religion society and secularism
