
Stryker Interview Questions and Answers 100% Pass

Do you like being compared to others? ✓✓Yes, I think that it helps grow you as a person because if you are doing something well - you know to continue it, or if are not measuring up to someone else, you are able to learn strategies from them to adopt to become a better sales professional

Are you driven by recognition? ✓✓I would say I am driven by recognition but not in the fact that I need to be acknowledged in front of my peers, but I do appreciate when my advisors acknowledge when I am doing something well so it signals to me that I am making positive strides and should continue that behavior

Do you work with a plan or go with the flow? ✓✓make an adaptable plan

How do you deal with when you are not the most popular voice in the group? ✓✓To clarify, do you mean when you don't have a popular opinion? - I have learned through my experiences so far that if you believe that an employee is taking the wrong course of action or that there could be a better way of doing something that it is better to voice that opinion because it can at least widen people's perspectives. The worst that happens is that they do not take your suggestion. But as an employee, I feel my responsibility is to add value to a company and part of that duty means that
