Intended as a reference and collection development tool, this bibliography provides a guide for women's studies information for each title along with a detailed, often evaluative review. The annotations summarize each work's content, its importance or contribution to women's studies, and its relationship to other titles on the subject. Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted, and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts. This definitive guide to the literature of women's studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women's studies programs, and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field. A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women's studies in the last decades of the 20th century. The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999. Intended as a reference and collection development tool, this bibliography provides a guide for women's studies information for each title along with a detailed, often evaluative review. The annotations summarize each work's content, its importance or contribution to women's studies, and its relationship to other titles on the subject. Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles, substantially extending the coverage. Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted, and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts. Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off, this is the definitive guide to the literature of women's studies. It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women's studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field.      Encounters in the Virtual Feminist Museum Griselda

Pollock, 2023-04-14 Continuing her feminist reconceptualisation of the ways we can experience and study the visual arts world renowned art historian and cultural analyst Griselda Pollock proposes a series of new encounters through virtual exhibitions with art made by women over the twentieth century. Challenging the dominant museum models of art and history that have been so exclusive of women's artistic contributions to the twentieth century, the virtual feminist museum stages some of the complex relations between femininity, modernity, and representation. Griselda Pollock draws on the models of both Aby Warburg's Mnemosyne Atlas and Freud's private museum of antiquities, as well as Ettinger's concept of subjectivity, as encounter to propose a differencing journey through time, space, and archive. Featuring studies of Canova's Three Graces and women artists' modernist reclamations of the female body, the book traverses the rupture of fascism and the Holocaust and ponders the significance of painting and drawing in their aftermath. Artists featured include Georgia O'Keeffe, Josephine Baker, Gluck, Charlotte Salomon, Bracha Ettinger, and Christine Taylor Patten.      What Would Frida Do? Arianna Davis, 2020-10-20 Having doubts about your next step? Ask yourself what artist Frida Kahlo would do in this beautiful volume sure to inspire. Boston Globe NAMED A BEST GIFT BOOK OF THE YEAR BY Instyle Oprah Daily Business Insider Esquire

Boston Globe and Redbook Revered as much for her fierce spirit as she is for her art Frida Kahlo stands today as a feminist symbol of daring creativity Her paintings have earned her admirers around the world but perhaps her greatest work of art was her own life What Would Frida Do celebrates this icon s signature style outspoken politics and boldness in love and art even in the face of hardship and heartbreak We see her tumultuous marriage with the famous muralist Diego Rivera and rumored flings with Leon Trotsky and Josephine Baker In this irresistible read writer Arianna Davis conjures Frida s brave spirit encouraging women to create fearlessly and stand by their own truths
