Space Architecture Neil Leach, 2014-11-20 Forty years on from the first moon landing architecture in Space is entering a new era Over the last decade there has been a fundamental shift in the Space industry from short term pioneering expeditions to long term planning for colonisation and new ventures such as Space tourism Architects are now involved in designing the interiors of long term habitable structures in Space such as the International Space Station researching advanced robotic fabrication technologies for building structures on the Moon and Mars envisioning new space yachts for the super rich and building new facilities such as the Virgin Galactic Spaceport America in New Mexico designed by Foster Partners Meanwhile the mystique of Space remains as alluring as ever as high profile designers and educators such as Greg Lynn are running design studios drawing upon ever more inventive computational design techniques This issue of AD features the most significant current projects underway and highlights key areas of research in Space such as energy materials manufacture and robotics It also looks at how this research and investment in new technologies might transfer to terrestrial design and construction Space architects Constance Adams Marc Cohen Ondrej Doule Sandra Huplik Meusburger Scott Howe Brent Sherwood Madhu Thangavelu Andreas Vogler Robert Zubrin Architects Bevk Perovic Arhitekti Dekleva Gregoric Arhitekti Foster Partners Neil Leach Greg Lynn OFIS architects SADAR VUGA

Empathic Space, 2014-11-19 In recent years questions of space have gained renewed momentum in architecture and urban design as adaptation densification and sustainable regeneration have become an increasing priority While most computing based design tends to emphasise the formal aspects of architecture overlooking space and its users the original computational design approaches first spearheaded in the UK in the 1960s and 1970s tended to be focused on behavioural and occupational patterns Over the last decade a new generation of design research has emerged that has started to implement and validate previous investigations into spatial computation aiming to understand how to design spatial configurations based on user experiences This revives an interest in the experiential that was first explored in the early 20th century by German and Nordic organic architects who invented design methods that correlated cognitive responses of buildings occupants to spatial structure The current revival of human centric design however represents the first design approach that synthesises spatial design and algorithmic techniques with organic design thinking which could also be regarded as a return to the first principles of architectural design. Contributors include Paul Coates, Christian Derix, Olafur Eliasson, Lucy Helme, Bill Hillier, smund Izaki, Prarthana Jagannath, Dan Montello, Juhani Pallasmaa, Philip Steadman, and Guy Theraulaz. Featured Architects: Designers Jussi Ngeslev, Art Com, Stan Allen, Aedas, R D Markus, Braach, Kaisersrot, Hermann Hertzberger, Kazuhiro Kojima, Cat Pablo Miranda, and Rafi Segal.

The Report: Bahrain 2013, 2013 The Report: Dubai 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-01-28

In many respects 2014 marked the transition from strong recovery to promising growth for Dubai. With many exciting projects in the pipeline, not least the hosting of Expo 2020, the emirate is continuing to build on its reputation as a dynamic and international centre for business. Already a regional and global centre for business and finance, Dubai's reputation has been bolstered by the MSCI's decision to upgrade the UAE from frontier to emerging market status in 2014, while the emirate's successful Expo 2020 bid is expected to generate myriad opportunities for private investors across a range of sectors. Construction is thriving once again, driven in large part by strong retail sector growth with various projects including plans for the world's largest mall, indicating that the sector will maintain its position as the emirate's biggest GDP contributor moving forward. The transport and logistics framework is set for major expansion in the coming years, as well as further cementing the emirate's status as a leading transport and logistics hub, not just regionally but globally too. The continued development of Dubai's retail and hospitality offerings alongside the upgrades to its airports should help to ensure robust growth in visitor numbers from both the region and further afield.

The Report: Qatar 2019 Oliver Cornock, Its relatively small population and status as the world's biggest gas exporter have helped Qatar become the richest country globally in terms of GDP per capita, which stood at 72,700 at current prices in 2019 according to IMF estimates. In recent years, however, the nation has faced strong economic headwinds from a drop in global energy prices to a diplomatic blockade.
