Aleksandar Marković, Slađana Barjaktarović Rakočević, 2014-06-05 pHealth 2019 B. Blobel, M. Giacomini, 2019-05-29 Smart mobile systems like micro systems smart textiles and implants and sensor controlled medical devices together with related networks and cloud services are important enablers for telemedicine and pervasive health to become the next generation of health services Social media and gamification have added further to pHealth as an ecosystem This book presents the proceedings of pHealth 2019 the 16th in a series of international conferences on personalized health held in Genoa Italy from 10-12 June 2019. The book includes 1 keynote, 2 of 4 invited talks, 36 oral presentations and 7 poster presentations from a total of 141 international authors. All submissions were critically reviewed by at least two independent experts and a member of the Scientific Program Committee. This process resulted in a full paper rejection rate of more than 30%. Besides wearable or implantable micro and nano technologies for personalized medicine, this volume addresses topics such as legal, ethical, social and organizational requirements and impacts as well as necessary basic research for enabling future proof care paradigms. Such participatory, predictive, personalized, preventive and effective care settings combine medical services and public health prevention, social and elderly care but also wellness and personal fitness. The multilateral benefits of pHealth technologies for all stakeholder communities offer enormous potential for the improvement of both care quality and industrial competitiveness and also for the management of health care costs. Hence, the book will be of interest to all those involved in the provision of healthcare. Forthcoming Books, Rose Arny, 2004.

Strategic Planning for Public Relations Ronald D. Smith, 2013-01-04. This innovative and popular text provides a clear pathway to developing public relations campaigns and other types of strategic communication. Implementing the pragmatic in-depth approach of the previous editions, author Ronald D. Smith presents a step-by-step unfolding of the strategic campaign process used in public relations practice. Drawing from his experience in professional practice and in the classroom, Smith walks readers through the critical steps for the formative research, strategic and tactical planning and plan evaluation phases of the process. Offering clear explanations, relevant examples and practical exercises, this text identifies and discusses the decision points and options in the development of a communication program. The cases and examples included here explore classic real-world public relations situations as well as current, timely events. This fourth edition highlights the results of new research studies on opinions and practices within the discipline and adds overviews of several award-winning public relations campaigns. As a classroom text or a resource for professional practice, this volume provides a model that can be adapted to fit specific circumstances and used to improve effectiveness and creativity in communication planning. It serves as an accessible and understandable guide to field-tested procedures, offering practical insights that apply to public relations campaigns and case studies. coursework.
