Ednan Aslan, Marcia Hermansen, 2021-04-11 This volume features chapters by international experts in education sociology and theology who consider a range of challenges faced by educators in primary and secondary schools that are becoming increasingly diverse in terms of the ethnic and religious backgrounds of pupils From the non religious to the refugee to student fundamentalism and even radicalization these multiple fresh approaches analyze the dynamics of the changing pedagogical landscape in an age of ever increasing globalization and cultural plurality Today's classrooms are often the most crucial spaces where children and adolescents encounter new cultural religious and other worldviews Increasingly teachers are called on to empower their pupils with the tools and competencies necessary to reflect on and process this plurality in ways that are productive for their intellectual growth and moral maturation Regional case studies provide extensive data while offering insights into developments in school settings across Europe in Turkey and in the United States In addition a number of the contributions address the delivery content and policies of Islamic Religious Education in European contexts the educational strategies employed in multi religious societies and interreligious dialogue in schools whether intentional or spontaneous Teaching Adolescents Religious Literacy in a Post-9/11 World Robert Nash, Penny A.

Bishop, 2009-11-01 For thousands of years religion has been a key element of human societies Whenever we as educators exclude or minimize religion's vast role in society we leave out a large part of our world's shared history This is a serious act of educational omission even neglect on the part of our nation's public middle and secondary schools particularly when adolescents are so ready to engage in meaningful conversation about the world that surrounds them Our book's central purpose is to provide middle level and high school teachers with the necessary background knowledge and pedagogical skills necessary to help adolescents become religiously literate learners and citizens Currently there is no text like ours on the market that both covers a number of world religions and presents concrete recommendations for teaching and learning this material Our book is meant to educate the following audiences teacher educators middle level and high school teachers in all content areas administrators school boards and parents For us educating for religious literacy is all about bringing adolescents into the 21st century of teeming religious and spiritual diversity a long neglected component of the multicultural curriculum in public schools In a post 9 11 world religious literacy requires that students understand the whats and whys of differing religious beliefs both in their own country and elsewhere It means looking for commonalities as well as differences between and among the great wisdom traditions both nationally and internationally It is about understanding how all of us might live peacefully in a religiously diverse world Our book accomplishes these goals by being informative practical experiential case based and above all accessible to beginners      Religious Traditions in Modern South Asia Jacqueline Suthren Hirst, John Zavos, 2013-03 This book offers a fresh approach to the study of religion in modern South Asia It uses a series of case studies to explore the development of religious ideas and practices giving students an understanding of the social political and historical context      Global Perspectives on Catholic Religious Education in Schools Michael T. Buchanan, Adrian-Mario Gellel, 2019-03-01 This book shares global perspectives on Catholic religious education in schools chiefly focusing on educational and curriculum issues that take into account the theology and the pedagogy which support learning in connection with Catholic religious education Further it offers insights into the distinctive contribution that Catholic religious education makes to religious education and education in general across diverse schooling contexts Bringing together insights from leading scholars and experts on Catholic religious education around the globe the book offers an essential reference guide for all those involved in researching planning and designing curricula for Catholic religious education as well as developing related theories in the field      El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005 ,2005      Exploring Religion and Ethics Peta Goldburg, Patricia Blundell, Trevor Jordan, 2011-04 EXPLORING RELIGION AND ETHICS is written by leading educators and experienced practising teachers to meet the requirements of the Religion and Ethics SAS in Queensland It offers a vast array of learning opportunities that draw on a three tiered model of personal relational and spiritual dimensions and encourages students to explore how these dimensions relate to their own religious beliefs It features Clear concise and student friendly language that caters for different learning abilities and styles Learning and assessment activities that engage and extend students A wide range of valuable time saving teacher support resources for additional classwork homework and assessment are available on Cambridge GO      Taking Position Hans-Günter Heimbrock, 2017 Religious Education is on trial in Germany and other European countries The focal questions are whether teachers should communicate essential issues about religion and religions to their pupils in a neutral way or whether they should convey personal and individual convictions as well How should public schools in civil societies deal with positions of truth in the context of cultural and lifeworld conditions Are there pedagogical concerns about professional teachers expressing an individual commitment in class What is the significance of denomination in RE The articles of this volume offer new perspectives by means of empirical studies and theoretical consideration      Music, Education, and Religion Alexis Anja Kallio, Philip Alperson, Heidi Westerlund, 2019-09-20 Music Education and Religion Intersections and Entanglements explores the critical role that religion can play in formal and informal music education As in broader educational studies research in music education has tended to sidestep the religious dimensions of teaching and learning often reflecting common assumptions of secularity in contemporary schooling in many parts of the world This book considers the ways in which the forces of religion and belief construct and complicate the values and practices of music education including teacher education curriculum texts and teaching repertoires The contributors to this volume embrace a range of perspectives from a variety of disciplines examining religious agnostic skeptical and atheistic points of view Music Education and Religion is a valuable resource for all music teachers and scholars in related fields interrogating the sociocultural and epistemological underpinnings of music repertoires and global educational practices      Junior Assembly Book Doreen Vause,Liz Beaumont,1989 A source of assembly ideas for the busy teacher this book presents stories and poems many from around the world The material for the 8 to 13 age group is designed to encourage children to think about themselves their world and their feelings fostering understanding and tolerance of the cultures and beliefs of others
