Modern Manhood and the Boy Scouts of America Benjamin René Jordan, 2016-03-07 In this illuminating look at gender and Scouting in the United States Benjamin Ren Jordan examines how in its founding and early rise the Boy Scouts of America BSA integrated traditional Victorian manhood with modern corporate industrial values and skills While showing how the BSA Americanized the original British Scouting program Jordan finds that the organization's community based activities signaled a shift in men's social norms away from rugged agricultural individualism or martial primitivism and toward productive employment in offices and factories stressing scientific cooperation and a pragmatic approach to the responsibilities of citizenship By examining the BSA's national reach and influence Jordan demonstrates surprising ethnic diversity and religious inclusiveness in the organization's founding decades For example Scouting officials preferred urban Catholic and Jewish working class immigrants and modernizable African Americans and Native Americans over rural whites and other traditional farmers who were seen as too backward to lead an increasingly urban industrial society In looking at the revered organization's past Jordan finds that Scouting helped to broaden mainstream American manhood by modernizing traditional Victorian values to better suit a changing nation

Morally Straight Mike De Socio,2024-06-04 This deeply reported narrative illuminates the battle for LGBTQ inclusion in the Boy Scouts of America a decades long struggle led by teenagers parents activists and everyday Americans Weaving in his own experience as a scout and journalist Mike De Socio s Morally Straight tells a story that plays out over the course of nearly forty years beginning in an era when gay rights were little more than a cultural sideshow when same sex marriage was not even on the radar and when much of the country was recommitting to conservative social mores It was during this treacherous time that accidental activists emerged challenging one of America's most iconic institutions in a struggle that would forever change the country's view of gay people and the rights they held in society In Morally Straight we meet James Dale the poster child of Scouting who took his fight for inclusion to the Supreme Court Steven Cozza the 12 year old scout in California who started a movement for inclusion called Scouting for All Jennifer Tyrrell the lesbian den mother whose expulsion from the Scouts reignited the gay membership controversy Zach Wahls the son of lesbian moms who led the final push for policy change and an array of other previously unknown Scouters who played smaller but no less crucial roles in the fight for full inclusion Richly reported and filled with unforgettable people Morally Straight braids together these characters and brings to life their collective struggle This is an essential narrative in the American LGBTQ rights movement and a truly American story about the fight for a better future for our nation's bedrock youth organization
