Ethics The Essential Writings:

Ethics Gordon Marino, 2010-08-10 In Ethics The Essential Writings philosopher Gordon Marino skillfully presents an accessible provocative anthology of both ancient and modern classics on matters moral. The philosophers represent 2 500 years of thought from Plato Kant and Nietzsche to Alasdair MacIntyre Susan Wolf and Peter Singer and cover a broad range of topics from the timeless questions of justice morality and faith to the hot button concerns of today such as animal rights our duties to the environment and gender issues. Featuring an illuminating preamble concise introductory essays on the giants of ethical theory and incisive chapter headnotes to the modern offerings this Modern Library edition is a perfect single volume reference for students teachers and anyone eager to engage in reflection on ethical questions including What is the basis for our ethical views and judgments. Gordon Marino is professor of philosophy and director of the Hong Kierkegaard Library at St Olaf College in Northfield Minnesota. A recipient of the Richard J Davis Ethics Award for excellence in writing on ethics and the law he is the author of Kierkegaard in the Present Age co editor of The Cambridge Companion to Kierkegaard and editor of the Modern Library's Basic Writings of Existentialism. His essays have appeared in The New York Times. Essential Writings: A Journey through Time Helmut Schwab, 2012-08-07

Essential Writings: A Journey Through Time The journey begins with viewing the origin of our universe and following natural evolution leading to an analysis of the human mind our greatest asset. After a discussion of the meaning and direction in our life thoughts are presented to guide and support us in our path as pronounced in the biblical Beatitudes and in a meditation for nonbelievers. In the end aging is described as one experiences it. A view to the future indicates the fundamental problems and opportunities for mankind which should concern us all. Helmut Schwab's writings result from the study of the sciences life in business his philosophical thought and always deep concerns for human search suffering and need for light and warmth combined with joy 100 Conversations You Need to Have (Trilogy) Perry Giuseppe Rizopoulos, 2019-10-01 The notebooks included in the three volume set 100 Conversations You Need to Have contain A Philosophy Guide A Stoic Philosophy Guide and A Chinese Philosophy Guide. Each notebook offers an accessible and thought provoking collection of life's big questions and corresponding answers from some of history's greatest philosophers. Readers are provided with the opportunity to answer each question turn the page and receive a short piece of advice from thinkers on topics that include Happiness Friendship Discipline Patience The meaning of life and death And other essential topics. The list of philosophers that are featured in each notebook is very multicultural. It includes both men and women and spans across time including among others Aristotle Seneca Simone de Beauvoir Lao Tzu Dr Martin Luther King Jr Alfarabi Jean Paul Sartre and Pema Chodron. These notebooks duplicate the Socratic dialogue method and embody the idea of philosophy being a pathway to a more fulfilling life by creating 100 meaningful dialogues between the reader and a diverse array of interlocutors who will guide them on their journey to crafting a good life. Michel Foucault Mark Olssen, 2016-01-08 Olssen brings Foucault to life and sheds new light on understanding his work Educationalists and scholars across the disciplines will welcome this interpretation of Foucault Michael A Peters University of Glasgow Olssen distills in brilliant and succinct language the core of Foucault's most important insights This is a book that every student should read in order to understand how to link theory to practice and educational thought to legacy and work of one of Europe's great thinkers Henry Giroux McMaster University Michel Foucault is arguably one of the most important thinkers of the twentieth century and his works are some of the most difficult to grasp Mark Olssen offers an accessible overview of Foucault's thought putting into context the relevance of Foucault's ideas Olssen adds important new insights to Foucault scholarship by bringing to light the influences of other thinkers such as Marx Nietzsche Gramsci Habermas and others on Foucault's development as a thinker and their influence on the deep historical materialist strand that grounds and uniquely characterizes so much of Foucault's thought Foucault's Legacy C.G. Prado,2009-03-01 Foucault's Legacy brings together the work of eight Foucault specialists in an important collection of essays marking the 25th anniversary of Foucault's death Focusing on the importance of Foucault's most central ideas for present day philosophy the book shows how his influence goes beyond his own canonical tradition and linguistic milieu The essays in this book explore key areas of Foucault's thought by comparing aspects of his work with the thought of a number of major philosophers including Nietzsche Heidegger Rorty Hegel Searle Vattimo and Williams Crucially the book also considers the applicability of his central ideas to broader issues such as totalitarianism religion and self sacrifice Presenting a fresh and exciting vision of Foucault as a philosopher of enduring influence the book shows how important Foucault remains to philosophy today Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto,2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de-centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self transformation The author's original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology Poststructuralist Agency Gavin Rae,2020-02-14 Gavin Rae shows that the problematic status of agency caused by the poststructuralist decentring of the subject is a central concern for poststructuralist thinkers He shows how this plays out in the thinking of Deleuze Derrida and Foucault and find the best explanation of agency for the founded subject in the work of Castoriadis Political Mapping of Cyberspace Jeremy Crampton,2019-06-01 This book is about the politics of cyberspace It shows that cyberspace is no mere virtual reality but a rich geography of practices and power relations Using concepts and methods derived from the work of Michel Foucault Jeremy Crampton explores the construction of digital subjectivity web identity and authenticity as well as the nature and consequences of the digital divide between the connected and those abandoned in limbo He demonstrates that it is by processes of mapping that we understand cyberspace and in doing so delineates the critical role maps play in constructing cyberspace as an object of knowledge Maps he argues shape political thinking about cyberspace and he deploys in depth case studies of crime mapping security and geo surveillance to show how we map ourselves onto cyberspace inexorably and indelibly Clearly argued and vigorously written this book offers a powerful reinterpretation of cyberspace politics and contemporary life

Racial Imperatives Nadine Ehlers, 2012-05-18 An examination of the constructs of race in contemporary American society Nadine Ehlers examines the constructions of blackness and whiteness cultivated in the US imaginary and asks how do individuals become racial subjects She analyzes anti miscegenation law statutory definitions of race and the rhetoric surrounding the phenomenon of racial passing to provide critical accounts of racial categorization and norms the policing of racial behavior and the regulation of racial bodies as they are underpinned by demarcations of sexuality gender and class Ehlers places the work of Michel Foucault Judith Butler s account of performativity and theories of race into conversation to show how race is a form of discipline that race is performative and that all racial identity can be seen as performative racial passing She tests these claims through an excavation of the 1925 racial fraud case of Rhinelander v Rhinelander and concludes by considering the possibilities for racial agency extending Foucault s later work on ethics and technologies of the self to explore the potential for racial transformation In Racial Imperatives Nadine Ehlers explores the idea that racial identity is a construct both performed by individuals and maintained by the law Raises interesting ideas particularly that all identity is a form of passing and that all subjects must continually enact their racial identities Journal of American History June 2015 This project fills a major gap in both Critical Race and Foucault studies It will undoubtedly be cited and engaged for years to come Critical Philosophy of Race Racial Imperatives is a strong tome with a great deal of value across disciplines Building on her previous scholarly investigations and relying on a robust scholarship to push intellectual boundaries Ehlers s work is insightful and thought provoking Scholars that study race in any academic discipline would benefit from the ideas and analysis in this book Spectrum

The Cambridge Companion to Foucault Gary Gutting, 2005-07-18 For Michel Foucault philosophy was a way of questioning the allegedly necessary truths that underpin the practices and institutions of modern society He carried this out in a series of deeply original and strikingly controversial studies on the origins of modern medical and social scientific disciplines These studies have raised fundamental questions about the nature of human knowledge and its relation to power structures and have become major topics of discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences The essays in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of Foucault s major themes and texts from his early work on madness through his history of sexuality Special attention is also paid to thinkers and movements from Kant through current feminist theory that are particularly important for understanding his work and its impact This revised edition contains five new essays and revisions of many others and the extensive bibliography has been updated Philosophy Across Borders Emma Ingala,Gavin Rae,2024-11-14 This book brings into conversation geographically diverse theorists to question the meaning purpose and place of conceptual borders in philosophy It shows how contemporary theory is constituted by a dynamic practice in which the boundaries created to define it are simultaneously overcome in their establishment Philosophy has often taken itself to be distinguished from and superior to alternative ways of thinking To do so philosophical thinking has found itself rigidly affirming the need to think within borders to obtain conceptual clarity and certainty and or secure its own independent existence The chapters in this volume call into question the need to retreat behind demarcated boundaries that mark the domain of philosophy proper to instead offer a performative account of how philosophy can creatively work across geographical cultural linguistic borders without foreclosing that analysis conceptually In so doing the contributors tackle issues including the historical establishment of philosophical borders the metaphysics of philosophical borders the relationship between Western and non Western thinking the ethics of transgressing borders and the political implications of Western rationality on and for non Western societies Philosophy Across Borders will therefore be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in philosophy aesthetics critical theory comparative philosophy cultural studies feminist theory history of ideas political theory and postcolonial studies

Governing (Through) Rights Bal Sokhi-Bulley,2016-09-22 Taking a critical attitude of dissatisfaction towards rights the central premise of this book is that rights are technologies of governmentality They are a regulating discourse that is itself managed through governing tactics and techniques hence governing through rights Part I examines the problem of government through rights The opening chapter describes governmentality as a methodology that is then used to interrogate the relationship between rights and governance in three contexts the international regional and local How rights regulate certain identities and conceptions of what is good governance is examined through the case study of non state actors specifically the NGO in the international setting through a case study of rights agencies and the role of experts indicators and the rights based approach in the European Union or regional setting and in terms of the local the challenge that the blossoming language of responsibility and community poses to rights in the name of less government Big Society is problematised In Part II on resisting government through rights the book also asks what counter conducts are possible using rights language questioning rioting as resistance and whether counter conduct can be read as an ethos of the political rights bearing subject and as a new ethical right Thus the book bridges a divide between critical theory ie Foucauldian understandings of power as governmentality and human rights law Constructing the Self Valérie Nicolet-Anderson,2012 Using some of the works of Michel Foucault 1926 1984 as a conversation partner Valerie Nicolet Anderson focuses on the manner in which Paul constructs the identity of his audience in his letter to the Romans In particular she analyzes how the notions of autonomy and self agency function for both authors In this dialogue Valerie Nicolet Anderson examines whether Paul can still play a relevant part in contemporary discussions around the notion of identity The approach to Paul presents a narrative reading of Romans and displays an interdisciplinary hermeneutics which brings together New Testament exegesis and post modern philosophy The author constructs a dynamic picture of Paul as engaged in the shaping of the ethos of his communities through various strategies She highlights Paul s actuality reflecting the current use of Paul by continental philosophers and invites more interdisciplinary reflection between exegesis and philosophy

Security, Emancipation and the Politics of Health Joao Nunes,2013-10-01 This book develops a new theoretical framework for the study of security issues and applies this to the case of health Building on the work of the Welsh School of Security Studies and drawing on contributions from the wider critical security literature the book provides an emancipatory perspective on the health security nexus one which simultaneously teases out its underlying political assumptions assesses its political effects and identifies potential for transformation Security Emancipation and the Politics of Health challenges conventional wisdom in the field of health and international politics by conceiving of health as a fundamentally political issue and not merely as a medical problem demanding technical solutions and arrangements The book shows how political processes of representation underpin notions of health and disease through an examination of three key areas the linkages between immigration and the fear of disease colonial medicine and the health as a bridge for peace literature In order to successfully carry out this political investigation of health the book develops an innovative theoretical framework inspired by the idea of security as emancipation which goes beyond the existing emancipatory literature in security studies This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies health politics sociology and IR in general

A Genealogy of Appetite in the Sexual Sciences Jacinthe Flore,2020-03-11 This book offers a genealogy of the medicalisation of sexual appetite in Europe and the United States from the nineteenth to twenty first century Histories of sexuality have predominantly focused on the emergence of sexual identities and categories of desire They have marginalised questions of excess and lack the appearance of a libido that dwindles or intensifies which became a pathological object in Europe by the nineteenth century Through a genealogical approach that draws on the writings of Michel Foucault A Genealogy of Appetite in the Sexual Sciences examines key moments in the pathologisation of sexuality and demonstrates how medical techniques assumed critical roles in shaping modern understandings of the problem of appetite It examines how techniques of the patient case history elixirs and devices measurement diagnostic manuals and pharmaceuticals were central to the medicalisation of sexual appetite Jacinthe Flore argues that these techniques are significant for understanding how a concern with how much has transformed medical knowledge of sexuality since the nineteenth century The questions of how much how often and how intense thus require a genealogical investigation that pays attention to the emergence of medical techniques the transformation of forms of knowledge and their effects on the problematisations of sexual appetite Consumption Norms and Everyday Ethics L. Pellandini-Simányi, Léna Pellandini-Simányi, 2014-03-11 How much is acceptable to consume What is appropriate to consume and which goods fall into the disapproved category Answers to these questions vary widely across time and space This book examines the sources of this variation by providing an account of how everyday consumption norms develop why they differ and why they change Dyslexia T. Campbell, 2013-10-18 The diagnosis of Dyslexia and the medical problematisation of reading difficulties were almost unknown one hundred years ago yet today the British Dyslexia Association estimates that up to ten per cent of the UK population may have some form of dyslexia with numbers in the United States estimated to be as high as twenty per cent The Government of Reading investigates how this problematisation developed and how a diagnostic category was shaped in response to this Experiments in Film and Philosophy Christopher Falzon, 2023-11-03 Christopher Falzon argues in this book for a new way of understanding film as philosophy Inspired and informed by the work of Michel Foucault Falzon shows how a motion picture can operate not simply as a thought experiment but as a form of experience centred experimental reflection It is film s ability to show viewers things that challenge their way of thinking giving them experiences that can make them think differently that gives the film its status as philosophy Through these cinematic experiences not only cultural norms and presuppositions but also cinematic conventions and even established philosophical positions can be interrogated and questioned Experiments in Film and Philosophy explores three films in the light of this new way of thinking about philosophy and film Jean Luc Godard s Breathless Rubin tlund s Force Majeure and Jonathon Glazer s Under the Skin It will be of interest to advanced students and scholars interested in the current debates about the relationship between film and philosophy Other Lives - Other Learning Helen McCann, 2007-05-01 An examination of the ways in which new university students such as women indigenous and non metropolitan forge a place for themselves within university culture and pedagogy This study has wide implications for ways of teaching structuring and valuing tertiary knowledges
