Revolutionary Struggles and Girls' Education Thera Mjaaland, 2021-07-27 Revolutionary Struggles and Girls Education At the Frontiers of Gender Norms in North Ethiopia argues that at the base of girls poorer performance than boys at secondary school level when puberty has set in is the symbolic violence entailed in sanctioned femaleness Informed by the modesty of Virgin Mary in Orthodox Christian veneration it instructs girls to internalize a holding back which impinges on her self efficacy and ability to be an active learner Neoliberally informed educational policies and plans which have co opted liberal feminism also in Ethiopia do not address hard lived gender norms and the power and domination dynamics entailed when parity between boys and girls in school continues to be the dominant measure for equity Despite women s courageous contribution at a literal frontier during the Tigrayan liberation struggle 1975 91 where they fought on equal terms with men and despite the tendency that girls outnumber boys at secondary level in the present context sanctioned femaleness constitutes a frontier for girls educational success and transition to higher education In fact when teaching learning continues to be based on memorization rather than critical thinking the very transformative potential of education is undermined also in a gendered sense

Secondary Education in Ethiopia Rajendra Joshi, Adriaan Verspoor, 2012-11-01 This book discusses reforms that should be undertaken in secondary education to support Ethiopia s transition from a low to middle income economy The most critical reform identified is the introduction of a flexible curriculum that serves the needs of all students including those who may not pursue higher education

Hosting States and Unsettled Guests Jennifer Riggan, Amanda Poole, 2024-02-06 As wealthy countries build walls to keep migrants out countries in the Global South are celebrated for their hospitality towards refugees Hosting States and Unsettled Guests asks the question did these policies enable refugees to consider their new country home Beginning in 2016 Ethiopia promoted local integration economic opportunities and access to education for refugees in order to encourage them to stay long term rather than migrate towards Europe But by 2020 a political overhaul and the outbreak of war in Northern Ethiopia foreclosed these opportunities particularly for Eritrean refugees in Ethiopia How did Eritrean refugees envision their future in light of the discrepancy between promising policies and ongoing instability Using ethnographic interviews and participant observation with government officials NGOs and refugees in three camps in northern Ethiopia and Addis Ababa Jennifer Riggan and Amanda Poole explore refugee notions of progress care hope and futurity Caught at the intersection of teleological violence and temporal agency refugees endure the present and tenaciously produce a sense of the future even when their efforts to progress are repeatedly challenged An important read Hosting States and Unsettled Guests makes key empirical and theoretical contributions in forced migration studies East African studies anthropology and international education Riggan and Poole deftly shift the focus of refugee studies away from Europe to regions in the Global South to understand the violence of emerging forms of migration deterrence
