David Randall Brandt, William A. Donohue, 2024-07-10 This book argues that listening to constituents who reside outside organizational boundaries but who are essential members of an organization's ecosystem is a vital constitutive element of organizational communication. It also attempts to demonstrate that by and large the field of organizational communication has neglected such listening. The book goes on to introduce a conceptual and methodological framework organizations can use to assess listening practices and effectiveness. Through a combination of theory research and case illustrations the book will be valuable to both scholars and practitioners in the fields of organizational communication, marketing and public relations. It will provide insight and direction for theory building, knowledge development and implementation of best practices.
