Being Alive Essays On Movement Knowledge And Description Tim Ingold:

Being Alive Tim Ingold, 2011-04-19 Anthropology is a disciplined inquiry into the conditions and potentials of human life. Generations of theorists however have expunged life from their accounts treating it as the mere output of patterns, codes, structures or systems variously defined as genetic or cultural, natural or social. Building on his classic work The Perception of the Environment, Tim Ingold sets out to restore life to where it should belong at the heart of anthropological concern. Being Alive ranges over such themes as the vitality of materials, what it means to make things, the perception and formation of the ground, the mingling of earth and sky in the weather world, the experiences of light, sound and feeling, the role of storytelling in the integration of knowledge and the potential of drawing to unite observation and description. Our humanity, Ingold argues, does not come ready-made but is continually fashioned in our movements along ways of life. Starting from the idea of life as a process of wayfaring, Ingold presents a radically new understanding of movement, knowledge and description as dimensions not just of being in the world but of being alive to what is going on there.

Urbane Psyche Patrick Bieler, 2024-04-10 Wie beeinflusst urbanes Leben unsere psychische Gesundheit? Und wie wirkt sich andersherum der Umgang mit psychischer Gesundheit auf das Zusammenleben in Städten aus? In seiner ethnografischen Feldforschung in Berlin untersucht Patrick Bieler, wie Menschen, die mit schweren psychischen Problemen leben, ihren Alltag bewältigen und er betrachtet, wie das dortige sozialpsychiatrische Versorgungssystem mit den Herausforderungen des angespannten Wohnungsmarktes umgeht. Der ethnografische Blick auf die Entstehungsbedingungen und gesundheitlichen Auswirkungen urbaner Umwelten schafft eine sozialwissenschaftlich fundierte Perspektive auf bekannte Alltagsphänomene. Aus dem dichten Verständnis urbaner Lebensbedingungen und ihrer politischen Dimensionen ergeben sich Konsequenzen für zukünftige Stadtgestaltung und interdisziplinäre Forschung. <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/legalcode>

Breaking the Surface Doug Bailey, 2018-05-15 In Breaking the Surface, Doug Bailey offers a radical alternative for understanding Neolithic houses, providing much needed insight not just into prehistoric practice but into another way of doing archaeology. Using his years of fieldwork experience excavating the early Neolithic pit houses of southeastern Europe, Bailey exposes and elucidates a previously under-theorized aspect of prehistoric pit construction: the actions and consequences of digging, defined as breaking the surface of the ground. Breaking the Surface works through the consequences of this redefinition in order to redirect scholarship on the excavation and interpretation of pit houses in Neolithic Europe, offering detailed critiques of current interpretations of these earliest European architectural constructions. The work of the book is performed by juxtaposing richly detailed discussions of archaeological sites: Etton and The Wilsford Shaft in the UK and Magura in Romania, with the work of three artists who cut: Ron Athey, Gordon Matta-Clark, Lucio Fontana, with deep and detailed examinations of the philosophy of holes, the perceptual psychology of shapes, and the linguistic anthropology of cutting and breaking words, as well as with cultural diversity in framing spatial reference and through an examination of pre-modern ungrounded ways of living Breaking the Surface is as much a creative act on its own in its mixture of work from disparate periods and regions its use of radical text interruption and its juxtaposition of text and imagery as it is an interpretive statement about prehistoric architecture Unflinching and exhilarating it is a major development in the growing subdiscipline of art archaeology

Alter(n) als soziale und kulturelle Praxis Cordula Endter, Sabine Kienitz, 2017-02-15 Wie wird man eigentlich alt Können Dinge auch altern Und wie verändern sich die eigenen biographischen Erfahrungen und der Umgang mit Erinnerung en

Dieser Band rückt die Frage nach den Beziehungen des Alterns ins Zentrum und stellt dabei verschiedene interdisziplinäre Perspektiven auf das Altern als soziale Praxis und kulturelle Ordnung vor. Entlang der drei leitenden Begriffe Ordnungen, Praktiken, Materialitäten loten die ethnographischen, historischen und diskursorientierten Beiträge kulturelle Vorstellungen alltagsweltliche Aushandlungen und materielle Erscheinungsformen des Alterns aus. Das Handeln der Tiere Sven Wirth, Anett Laue, Markus Kurth, Katharina Dornenzweig, Leonie Bossert, Karsten Balgar, 2015-12-15. Dieser transdisziplinäre Sammelband ein Projekt des Chimaira Arbeitskreises für Human Animal Studies widmet sich als erste deutschsprachige Publikation den vielfältigen Fragen nach tierlicher Handlung und Wirkungsmacht. Die Human Animal Studies nehmen sich damit einer Leerstelle in der bisherigen Forschung um das zentrale Konzept der Agency an, welches in den verschiedensten Disziplinen auf der Tagesordnung steht. Dabei kontrovers diskutierte Ansätze jenseits des Anthropozentrismus wie z.B. die Akteur-Netzwerk-Theorie und der New Materialism werden erstmalig explizit auf tierliche Akteur_innen fokussiert.

Musicking TikTok Juan Bermúdez, 2024-12-12. This ethnographic work about TikTok's musicking in a glocal Austrian context complements and builds upon ethnomusicological assumptions, theories, and methods for the study of musical practices in digital spaces. An overview of elements that make up TikTok's interface as well as the technical performative possibilities that it allows, this book introduces a general categorization of existing performance types and how TikTokers appropriate the platform to make their music. It illustrates how some TikTokers became aware of and began using TikTok and it reviews some of the different strategies TikTokers apply to learn how to use the application and successfully develop their performances. Bermúdez explores how performers move from being ordinary users to becoming TikTokers, developing and performing an identity he calls TikTok Persona. Moreover, he discusses how some TikTok practices can and have occurred across multiple interconnected platforms and he examines how localities are articulated and negotiated in these contexts. Bermúdez argues for an understanding of musicking as a multimedia practice that different actors create and experience individually in everyday synchronous and asynchronous physical and digital situations. The so-called TikTokers create a sense of identity and community through their performances. This study suggests that a digital performance can be, aside from a representation of reality, an integral part of it, serving as a fundamental space for constructing and performing identity.

Religious Diversity Today Jean-Guy A. Goulet, Liam D. Murphy, Anastasia Panagakos, 2015-12-01. This insightful three-volume set examines faith through the social and cultural perspective of anthropology, sociology, and religious studies, shedding light on the role of religion in the human experience. Why is human suffering and the existence of evil part of the human experience? How does religious doctrine establish one's identity? In what ways does religion interact with and shape the social order? This thought-provoking work ponders these questions and explores the concept of religion from various perspectives as a tool for self and community-based spiritual awareness, as a set of practices that translates faith into interaction with others, and as a cornerstone of society for those who seek to harness or hinder its influence. Written in accessible and inviting language each volume focuses on a particular dimension of religion The first book examines religious experience in the modern world and explores suffering in religious faiths the second volume centers around ritual and pilgrimage and the last book analyzes the controversial relationship between religion and societies The content features such thought provoking topics as death and green burials sexuality and sex trade and how and why evil manifests in the human experience Dem Körper eingeschrieben Matthias Jung, Michaela Bauks, Andreas Ackermann, 2015-11-10 Alle kulturellen Praktiken sind verkörpert Ihnen ist die Spannungseinheit von leiblichem Erleben physischem Tun und kulturellem Sinn eingeschrieben Von den Kognitionen bis zu den Kulturwissenschaften ist Verkörperung daher mittlerweile ein zentrales Forschungsthema Der vorgelegte Band widmet sich in interdisziplinärer Perspektive exemplarischen Praktiken und Ritualen des Körpers und will einem drohenden neuen Dualismus zwischen leiblicher und kultureller Verkörperung entgegenwirken Biologischer Organismus bewusstes Erleben und kulturelle Traditionen sollen in ihrer Wechselbeziehung hervortreten und damit sichtbar machen dass Sinn ein Phänomen ist das die cartesianische Trennung von Geist und Körper unterläuft
