Repetition and Race Amy Cynthia Tang, 2016 Repetition and Race explores the literary forms and critical frameworks occasioned by the widespread institutionalization of liberal multiculturalism by turning to the exemplary case of Asian American literature Whether beheld as model minorities or objects of racist love Asian Americans have long inhabited the uneasy terrain of institutional embrace that characterizes the official antiracism of our contemporary moment Repetition and Race argues that Asian American literature registers and responds to this historical context through formal structures of repetition Forwarding a new dialectical conception of repetition that draws together progress and return motion and stasis agency and subjection creativity and compulsion this book reinterprets the political grammar of four forms of repetition central to minority discourse trauma pastiche intertextuality and self reflexivity Working against narratives of multicultural triumph the book shows how texts by Theresa Cha Susan Choi Karen Tei Yamashita Chang rae Lee and Maxine Hong Kingston use structures of repetition to foreground moments of social and aesthetic impasse suspension or hesitation rather than instances of reversal or resolution Reading Asian American texts for the way they allegorize and negotiate rather than resolve key tensions animating Asian American culture Repetition and Race maps both the penetrating reach of liberal multiculturalism's disciplinary formations and an expanded field of cultural politics for minority literature Places in the Making Jim Cocola, 2016-05 7 From Aztlan Gloria Anzaldúa and Jimmy Santiago Baca 8 Remilitarized Poems Theresa Hak Kyung Cha and Myung Mi Kim 9 Forget Your Pastoral Haunani Kay Trask and Craig Santos Perez Coda Look Through to Somewhere Notes Works Cited Index Tonal Intelligence Sunny Xiang, 2020-12-15 Why were U S intelligence organizations so preoccupied with demystifying East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century Sunny Xiang offers a new way of understanding the American cold war in Asia by tracing aesthetic manifestations of Oriental inscrutability across a wide range of texts She examines how cold war regimes of suspicious thinking produced an ambiguity between Oriental enemies and Asian allies contributing to the conflict's status as both a real war and a long peace Xiang puts interrogation reports policy memos and field notes into conversation with novels poems documentaries and mixed media work by artists such as Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Kazuo Ishiguro Ha Jin and Trinh T Minh ha She engages her archive through a reading practice centered on tone juxtaposing Asian diasporans who appear similar in profile yet who differ in tone Tonal Intelligence considers how the meaning of race war and empire came under pressure during two interlinked periods of geopolitical transition American nation building in East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century and Asian economic modernization during the late twentieth century By reading both state records and aesthetic texts from these periods for their tone rather than their content Xiang shows how bygone threats of Asian communism and emergent regimes of Asian capitalism have elicited distinct yet related anxieties about racial intelligibility Featuring bold methods unlikely archives and acute close readings Tonal Intelligence rethinks the marking and making of race during the long cold war you're told about your own racial identity Minor feelings are not small they're dissonant and in their tension Hong finds the key to the questions that haunt her With sly humor and a poet's searching mind Hong uses her own story as a portal into a deeper examination of racial consciousness in America today This intimate and devastating book traces her relationship to the English language to shame and depression to poetry and female friendship A radically honest work of art Minor Feelings forms a portrait of one Asian American psyche and of a writer's search to both uncover and speak the truth Praise for Minor Feelings Hong begins her new book of essays with a bang The essays wander a variegated terrain of memoir criticism and polemic oscillating between smooth proclamations of certainty and twitches of self-doubt Minor Feelings is studded with moments of candor and dark humor shot through with glittering self-awareness The New York Times Hong uses her own experiences as a jumping off point to examine race and emotion in the United States Newsweek Powerful Hong brings together memoiristic personal essay and reflection historical accounts and modern reporting and other works of art and writing in order to amplify a multitude of voices and capture Asian America as a collection of contradictions She does so with sharp wit and radical transparency Salon

Race and Resistance Viet Thanh Nguyen, 2002-03-28 In Race and Resistance Literature and Politics in Asian America Viet Nguyen argues that Asian American intellectuals have idealized Asian America ignoring its saturation with capitalist practices This idealization of Asian America means that Asian American intellectuals can neither grapple with their culture's ideological diversity nor recognize their own involvement with capitalist practices such as the selling of racial identity Making his case through the example of literature which remains a critical arena of cultural production for Asian Americans Nguyen demonstrates that literature embodies the complexities conflicts and potential future options of Asian American culture

Postmodernity and Cross-culturalism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2002 Whereas the text of modernity thrived on its rhythms symbols and representations of beauty and above all on its impersonality postmodernity in the late decades of the twentieth century sought relationships outside the text those between literature and history philosophy psychology society and culture The exploration of such relationships is literary to postmodernity as it is ancillary to modernity BOOK JACKET

Democratic Anarchy Matthew Scully, 2024-07-02 A dramatic and necessary rethinking of the meaning of Democracy Democratic Anarchy grapples with an uncomfortable but obvious truth inimical to democracy both aesthetics and politics depend on the structuring antagonism of inclusion and exclusion Yet in Democratic Anarchy Matthew Scully asks how can the people be represented in a way that acknowledges what remains unrepresentable What would it mean to face up to the constitutive exclusions that haunt U S democracy and its anxious fantasies of equality Synthesizing a broad range of theoretical traditions and interlocutors including Lacan Ranci re Edelman and Hartman Democratic Anarchy polemically declares that there has never been nor can there ever be a realized democracy in the U S because democracy always depends on the hierarchical institution of a formal order by one part of the population over another Engaging with an expansive corpus of American literature and art Harriet Jacobs Nathaniel Hawthorne Louis Zukofsky Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Nari Ward Ocean Vuong and Safiya Sinclair Democratic Anarchy argues that many liberal concepts and institutions are in fact structurally opposed to democratic equality because they depend on regulating what can appear and in what form By focusing on works that disrupt this regulatory impulse Scully shows how rhetorical strategies of interruption excess and disorder figure the anarchic equality that inegalitarian fantasies of democracy disavow Democratic Anarchy develops a rigorous theory of equality that refuses to repeat the inequalities against which it positions itself and it does so by turning to moments of resistance both aesthetic and political inaugurated by the equality that inheres in and antagonizes the order of things

Dictées françaises Alexandre Eyssette, 1875 Dictées du premier âge initiant , 1882 Anglo-American Perceptions of Hellenism Tatiani Rapatzikou, 2008-12-18 In this volume an attempt is made to tackle Hellenism as a global and transcultural entity Through an array of essays this book constitutes a comparative study of various literary cultural and artistic trends as these develop throughout the course of the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries on both sides of the Atlantic Having been designed with the general as well as the specialized reader in mind this book will prove to be a valuable guide to scholars undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as to a broad spectrum of readers with an interest in comparative literature cultural history history of the classical heritage transatlantic studies English and American romantic modernist and postmodernist narratives Its diverse material falls under the umbrella terms of English Hellenisms and American Hellenisms with the intention of enhancing intercultural dialogue and understanding By embracing multivocality as proven by the number of articles it contains this book proves the tenacity diachronic and intercontinental appeal of Hellenism at the era of multiculturalism and globalization The Melancholy of Race Anne Anlin Cheng, 2000-11-30 In this groundbreaking interdisciplinary study Anne Anlin Cheng argues that we have to understand racial grief not only as the result of racism but also as a foundation for racial identity The Melancholy of Race proposes that racial identification is itself already a melancholic act a social category that is imaginatively supported through a dynamic of loss and compensation by which the racial other is at once rejected and retained Using psychoanalytic theories on mourning and melancholia as inroads into her subject Cheng offers a closely observed and carefully reasoned account of the minority experience as expressed in works of art by and about Asian Americans and African Americans She argues that the racial minority and dominant American culture both suffer from racial melancholia and that this insight is crucial to a productive reimagining of progressive politics Her discussion ranges from Flower Drum Song to M Butterfly Brown v Board of Education to Anna Deavere Smith's Twilight and Invisible Man to The Woman Warrior in the process demonstrating that racial melancholia permeates our fantasies of citizenship assimilation and social health Her investigations reveal the common interests that social legal and literary histories of race have always shared with psychoanalysis and situates Asian American and African American identities in relation to one another within the larger process of American racialization A provocative look at a timely subject this study is essential reading for anyone interested in race studies critical theory or psychoanalysis
