Teaching of Psychology is a highly respected publication devoted to improving teaching and learning at all educational levels. Volume II consists of 99 articles about teaching physiology, perception, learning, memory, and developmental psychology. Divided into eight sections, four devoted to developmental psychology and one for each of the other specialties, the book suggests ways to stimulate interest, promote participation, collect data, structure field experience, and observe and interact with patients.

Many Ways to 100 Betsy Franco, 2002. Simple text and photographs show the different ways of counting to 100. Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1979.

Counseling Assessment and Evaluation Joshua C. Watson, Brandé Flamez, 2014-08-06. Designed to help students learn how to assess clients, conduct treatment planning, and evaluate client outcomes, Counseling Assessment and Evaluation addresses specific CACREP competencies. Incorporating case studies and examples, authors Joshua C. Watson and Brand Flamez provide foundational knowledge for sound formal and informal assessments, cover ethical and legal considerations in assessment, describe basic statistical concepts, highlight the domains in which assessments are commonly used (intelligence, aptitude, achievement, personality, career, etc.) and provide strategies for integrating assessment data when working with clients. Watson and Flamez have captured the essence of the assessment process in their new book. Through rich case illustrations and the authors' deep knowledge of the subject, readers are provided the most current trends and reflections on the assessment process.

Bill McHenry, Texas A M University, Texarkana. The text is very straightforward and easy to read. It encourages students to apply what they are learning through case illustrations and guided practice exercises.

Wendy Killam, Stephen F. Austin State University. Watson and Flamez provide the reader with an engaging discussion of the fundamentals of counseling assessment and evaluation.

Mark W. Dewalt, Winthrop University. The case illustrations and the practice exercises are exceptional and go a long way toward making the material accessible. Case examples in the body of the text are also well done.

Patricia Andersen, Midwestern State University.

Exploring Psychology in Language Learning and Teaching Marion Williams, Sarah Mercer, 2016-06-28. This book explores key areas of educational and social psychology and considers their relevance to language learning and teaching using activities and questions for reflection. The topics discussed in the book include learners and teachers' beliefs about how a language should be learned and taught, learning and working in groups, relationships with others, the role of the self in teaching and learning, motivation to start and persist with tasks, the role of emotions in learning. The authors provide useful insights for the understanding of language learning and discuss the important implications for language teaching pedagogy.
