The Bangladesh Reader Meghna Guhathakurta, Willem van Schendel, 2013-04-30 Bangladesh is the world's eighth most populous country. It has more inhabitants than either Russia or Japan and its national language Bengali ranks sixth in the world in terms of native speakers. Founded in 1971, Bangladesh is a relatively young nation, but the Bengal Delta region has been a major part of international life for more than 2,000 years, whether as an important location for trade or through its influence on Buddhist, Hindu, and Muslim life. Yet the country rarely figures in global affairs or media except in stories about floods, poverty, or political turmoil. The Bangladesh Reader does what those portrayals do not: it illuminates the rich historical, cultural, and political permutations that have created contemporary Bangladesh and it conveys a sense of the aspirations and daily lives of Bangladeshis. Intended for travelers, students, and scholars, the Reader encompasses first-person accounts, short stories, historical documents, speeches, treaties, essays, poems, songs, photographs, cartoons, paintings, posters, advertisements, maps, and a recipe. Classic selections familiar to many Bangladeshis and essential reading for those who want to know the country are juxtaposed with less-known pieces. The selections are translated from a dozen languages; many have not been available in English until now. Featuring eighty-three images, including seventeen in color, The Bangladesh Reader is an unprecedented comprehensive introduction to the South Asian country's turbulent past and dynamic present.

In Love with Bangladesh Jill Hanson Flatt, 2013-12-24 I tall people I have one aunty. Name Jill. She raised me when I little boy. She loves me so much I am not forget her. Everytime I remember her love and care. David Das from Home of Joy. Jill's story has reconfirmed a long-held personal belief: that missionaries aren't normal. They are ordinary people who have allowed God to set their heart on fire with a passion for the lost and needy. They are willing to endure personal pain and hardship for the sake of their mission, and even if they return from the mission field, a part of their heart will never return with them. Jill's openness in sharing all the ups and downs of her missionary journey will make this book a valuable resource for anyone who feels called to cross-cultural ministry, and it will also be a source of inspiration to all of us who long to reach our world with the love of Jesus Christ. Pastor Monte LeLaCheur, Turning Point Open Bible Church. This journey with Christ is certainly an adventure. God gave me a love for His people in Bangladesh, not unlike the love He has for us. Relentless. The Lord led me in and out of Bangladesh each time under dramatic circumstances. Over a period of years, I was blessed to be a part of starting three medical clinics while living at two different orphanages, taking care of hundreds of children who called me Auntie or Amma. God gave His love to them through my willing heart. I had prayed that God would break my heart with the things that break the heart of God. That prayer was answered in ways that were never expected.
