Creative Transformations Krista Brune, 2020-11-01 In Creative Transformations Krista Brune brings together Brazilian fiction film journalism essays and correspondence from the late nineteenth to the early twenty first centuries Drawing attention to the travels of Brazilian artists and intellectuals to the United States and other parts of the Americas Brune argues that experiences of displacement have had a significant influence on their work Across Brazilian literary and cultural history translation becomes a way of navigating and representing the resulting encounters between languages interactions with Spanish Americans and negotiations of complex identities While Creative Transformations engages extensively with theories of translation from different national and disciplinary contexts it also constructs a vision of translation uniquely attuned to the place of Brazil in the Americas Brune reveals the hemispheric underpinnings of works by renowned Brazilian writers such as Machado de Assis Sous ndrade M rio de Andrade Silviano Santiago and Adriana Lisboa In the process she rethinks the dynamics between cosmopolitan and national desires and between center and periphery in global literary markets

The Brazilian Road Movie Sara Brandellero, 2013-06-15 The Brazilian Road Movie Journeys of Self Discovery explores some of the key trends and films in the development of the road movie in Brazil Through a collection of essays by distinguished scholars and covering a broad range of case studies this text spans Brazilian film production from the silent era to the present day This text examines issues such as the reworking of the genre in a Brazilian context the relationship between documentary and fiction between history politics and cinema gender and race the wilderness and the urban space the national and the transnational The essays consider among other things how the experience of the journey helped develop and was instrumental in defining identities on screen Adopting a variety of approaches the volume considers the significance of the iconography of the road the experience of movement and of life on the move for the representation of Brazil on screen

Mediascapes of Ruined Geographies in the Global South Diego Granja do Amaral, A. Chukwudumebi Obute, 2023-08-15 This book undertakes an interdisciplinary and cross cultural interrogation of the Global South through the prisms of media and cultural studies It closely explores the quotidian re territorialization and brazen ruination of the material geographies of this vast expanse of the world by forces and proxies of neo colonialism and global capitalism of resource extraction We cite the ongoing expulsion of Palestinians from their homelands by occupational forces the emerging detritus dump across Mexico City and Lagos the infrastructural precariousness of the favelas of Brazil the unending resource war in the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC and the flagrant operation of the oil industry in the Niger Delta region of Nigeria as examples of this geographic cataclysm The centripetal forces of neo colonialism and resource extraction at full flight in the Global South aided by toxic hegemonic forces have overtly tossed some of the population to the peripheries of existence and the society at large As such this book additionally explores the resistance of the subalterns from the margins to this socio political malaise and further unmasks the knowledge production from these margins of the Global South This project is divided into five 5 parts of three essays each The first part examines the territorial contestation in the Middle East framed and expressed through films and literary lenses The second part examines the environmental burden of modern consumerism and urbanization on metropolis across Mexico Brazil and Nigeria while the third part explores the attritional violence of resource extraction in the DRC Brazil and Nigeria via filmic and journalistic lenses The fourth part offers a swift response from the margins through ethnographic and journalistic interrogation of the subjectivity of the subalterns of Brazilian favelas and street artists The fifth part offers an engaging critique of the political climates of South Africa and Brazil that reinforce the environmental catastrophe of the regions of the world
