India's Newspaper Revolution Robin Jeffrey, 2000 From the late 1970s a revolution in Indian language newspapers driven by a marriage of capitalism and technology has carried the experience of print to millions of new readers in small town and rural India The News Event Francis Cody, 2023-04-05 In the hypermediated world of Tamil Nadu Francis Cody studies how news events are made Not merely the act of representing events with words or images a news event is the reciprocal relationship between the events being reported in the news and the event of the news coverage itself In The News Event Francis Cody focuses on how imaginaries of popular sovereignty have been remade through the production and experience of such events Political sovereignty is thoroughly mediated by the production of news and subjects invested in the idea of democracy are remarkably reflexive about the role of publicly circulating images and texts in the very constitution of their subjectivity The law comes to stand as both a limit and positive condition in this process of event making where acts of legal and extralegal repression of publication can also become the stuff of news about news makers When the subjects of news inhabit multiple participant roles in the unfolding of public events when the very technologies of recording and circulating events themselves become news the act of representing a political event becomes difficult to disentangle from that of participating in it This Cody argues is the crisis of contemporary news making the news can no longer claim exteriority to the world on which it reports Communication and Organizational Structures in Mass Media Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-03-12 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels Data India, 2007
