Music, the Market, and the Marvellous Tommaso Sabbatini, 2024-08-01 Music the Market and the Marvellous examines the French fairy play in the last third of the nineteenth century It is among the first book length studies on the genre the first in a language other than French and the first from a musicological perspective Sabbatini demonstrates that contrary to conventional wisdom the French fairy play was still thriving during the fin de siècle giving rise to innovations such as the composerly fairy and scientific fairy The plays the theatre industry and urban geography are discussed together as befits a commercial genre where the marvellous was shaped by the market Recovering this forgotten but once hugely influential repertoire provides an occasion to rethink generic taxonomies of Parisian theatre and the ontology of nineteenth century popular theatre Walker Remodelled John Walker, Benjamin Humphrey Smart, 1836
