Film Curatorship Paolo Cherchi Usai, David Francis, Alexander Horwath, Michael Loebenstein, 2008      Film Curatorship - Archives, Museums, and the Digital Marketplace David Francis, Paolo Cherchi Usai, Alexander Horwath, Michael Loebenstein, 2020-06-16 Film Curatorship is an experiment a collective text a montage of dialogues conversations and exchanges among four professionals representing three generations of film archivists and curators It calls for an open philosophical and ethical debate on fundamental questions the profession must come to terms with in the twenty first century

Minding Movies David Bordwell, Kristin Thompson, 2011-03-15 David Bordwell and Kristin Thompson are two of America's preeminent film scholars You would be hard pressed to find a serious student of the cinema who hasn't spent at least a few hours huddled with their seminal introduction to the field Film Art now in its ninth edition or a cable television junkie unaware that the Independent Film Channel sagely christened them the Critics of the Naughts Since launching their blog Observations on Film Art in 2006 the two have added web virtuosos to their growing list of accolades pitching unconventional long form pieces engaged with film artistry that have helped to redefine cinematic storytelling for a new age and audience Minding Movies presents a selection from over three hundred essays on genre movies art films animation and the business of Hollywood that have graced Bordwell and Thompson's blog Informal pieces conversational in tone but grounded in three decades of authoritative research the essays gathered here range from in depth analyses of individual films such as Slumdog Millionaire and Inglourious Basterds to adjustments of Hollywood media claims and forays into cinematic humor For Bordwell and Thompson the most fruitful place to begin is how movies are made how they work and how they work on us Written for film lovers these essays on topics ranging from Borat to blockbusters and back again will delight current fans and gain new enthusiasts Serious but not solemn vibrantly informative without condescension and above all illuminating reading Minding Movies offers ideas sure to set film lovers thinking and keep them returning to the silver screen

Film Programming Peter Bosma, 2015-06-09 This study explores artistic choices in cinema exhibition focusing on film theaters film festivals and film archives and situating film curating issues within an international context Artistic and commercial film availability has increased overwhelmingly as a result of the digitization of the infrastructure of distribution and exhibition The film trade's conventional structures are transforming and in the digital age supply and demand can meet without the intervention of traditional gatekeepers everybody can be a film curator in a passive or active way This volume addresses three kinds of readers those who want to become film curators those who want to research the film curating phenomenon and those critical cinema visitors who seek to investigate the story behind the selection process of available films and the way to present them

Film Curatorship Paolo Cherchi Usai, David Francis, Alexander Horwath, Michael Loebenstein, 2008 What are the major issues and challenges film archives cinema questions and film museums are bound to face in the digital age and at a time when there is an expectation of access on demand What is curatorship and what does it imply in the context of film preservation and presentation Is there a concept of the film artifact that transcends the idea of film as content or art in the information age Film Curatorship is an experiment a collective text a montage of dialogues conversations and exchanges among four professionals representing three generations of film archivists and curators It calls for an open philosophical and ethical debate on fundamental questions the profession must come to terms with in the twenty first century This book is jointly published with Le Giornate del Cinema muto Pordenone Italy Experimental Film and Photochemical Practices Kim Knowles,2020-09-29 This book assesses the contemporary status of photochemical film practice against a backdrop of technological transition and obsolescence It argues for the continued relevance of material engagement for opening up alternative ways of seeing and sensing the world Questioning narratives of replacement and notions of fetishism and nostalgia the book sketches out the contours of a photochemical renaissance driven by collective passion creative resistance and artistic reinvention Celluloid processes continue to play a key role in the evolution of experimental film aesthetics and this book takes a personal journey into the work of several key contemporary film artists It provides fresh insight into the communities and infrastructures that sustain this vibrant field and mobilises a wide range of theoretical perspectives drawn from media archaeology new materialism ecocriticism and social ecology Silent Cinema Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-04-04 Paolo Cherchi Usai provides a comprehensive introduction to the study research and preservation of silent cinema from its heyday in the early 20th century to its present day flourishing He traces the history of the moving image in its formative years from Edison s and Lumi re s first experiments to the dawn of talkies provides a clear guide to the basics of silent film technology introduces the technical and creative roles involved in its production and presents silent cinema as a performance event rather than a passive viewing experience This new greatly expanded edition takes the reader on a new journey exploring silent cinema in the broader context of technology culture and society from the invention of celluloid film and its related machinery to film studios laboratories theatres and audiences Among the people involved in the creation of a new art form were filmmakers actors and writers but also engineers entrepreneurs and projectionists Their collective efforts and the struggle to preserve their creative work by archives and museums are interwoven in a compelling story covering three centuries of media history from the magic lantern to the reinvention of silent cinema in digital form The new edition also includes comprehensive resource information for the study research preservation and exhibition of silent cinema Doing Experimental Media Archaeology Andreas Fickers,Annie Oever,2022-12-31 This book offers a plea to take the materiality of media technologies and the sensorial and tacit dimensions of media use into account in the writing of the histories of media and technology In short it is a bold attempt to question media history from the perspective of an experimental media archaeology approach It offers a systematic reflection on the value and function of hands on experimentation in research and teaching Doing Experimental Media Archaeology Theory is the twin volume to Doing Experimental Media Archaeology Practice authored by Tim van der Heijden and Aleksander Kolkowski

Apichatpong Weerasethakul James Quandt, 2009 Thai filmmaker Apichatpong Joe Weerasethakul is widely praised as a central figure in contemporary cinema Trained in the United States as a visual artist Weerasethakul stunned the film world with five innovative and dreamlike features made since 2000 including such award winning films as Blissfully Yours Tropical Malady and Syndromes and a Century James Quandt one of the foremost film critics and curators working in North America today has edited the first English language book on Weerasethakul Along with his essays contributors include Benedict Anderson Tony Rayns Kong Rithdee and the British actress Tilda Swinton

From Grain to Pixel Giovanna Fossati, 2019-01-16 In From Grain to Pixel Giovanna Fossati analyzes the transition from analog to digital film and its profound effects on filmmaking and film archiving Reflecting on the theoretical conceptualization of the medium itself Fossati poses significant questions about the status of physical film and the practice of its archival preservation restoration and presentation From Grain to Pixel attempts to bridge the fields of film archiving and academic research by addressing the discourse on film's ontology and analyzing how different interpretations of what film is affect the role and practices of film archives By proposing a novel theorization of film archival practice Fossati aims to stimulate a renewed dialogue between film scholars and film archivists Almost a decade after its first publication this revised edition covers the latest developments in the field Besides a new general introduction a new conclusion and extensive updates to each chapter a novel theoretical framework and an additional case study have been included
