Chokher Bali Rabindranath Tagore:

Chokher Bali Rabindranath Tagore, 2012-11-16 The literature of the new age seeks not to narrate a sequence of events but to reveal the secrets of the heart Such is the narrative mode of Chokher Bali Rabindranath Tagore Preface to Chokher Bali Chokher Bali explores the forbidden emotions unleashed when a beautiful young widow enters the seemingly harmonious world of a newly married couple This path breaking novel by Rabindranath Tagore weaves a tangled web of relationships between the pampered and self centred Mahendra his innocent childlike bride Asha their staunch friend Bihari and the wily seductive Binodini whose arrival transforms the lives of all concerned Radha Chakravarty's translation brings the world of Tagore's fiction to life in lucid idiomatic prose

Grain Of Sand Rabindranath Tagore, 2003-09-24 A timeless tale of complex emotional relationships from an acknowledged master Soon to be a major motion picture directed by Rituparno Ghosh Chokher Bali is Nobel Prize winning author Rabindranath Tagore's classic exposition of an extramarital affair that takes place within the confines of a joint family It is the story of the rich flamboyant Mahendra and his simple demure beautiful wife Asha a young couple who are befriended by the pragmatic Bihari Their cosy domestic scenario undergoes great upheaval with the introduction of the vivacious Binodini a young attractive widow who comes to live with them Asha and Binodini become bosom pals Binodini is initially drawn to Bihari but then begins to respond to the advances of Mahendra who has become obsessively attracted to her After several twists and turns Binodini elopes with Mahendra leaving the entire family in turmoil Bihari pursues them to Allahabad and succeeds in bringing them back to Kolkata but the question remains can a marriage that has once been ruptured by breach of trust be mended again into a meaningful relationship On the one hand A Grain of Sand Chokher Bali is a sensational account of two illicit relationships Mahendra's infatuation with Binodini which blinds him to everything else and Binodini's secret passion for Bihari of which she is never able to speak On the other hand it is a complex tapestry woven by the emotional interplay between five finely etched characters the impulsive Mahendra his adoring mother Rajlakshmi the frail and sensitive Asha the strong silent Bihari and the self willed and irresistibly attractive Binodini A compelling portrayal of the complexity of relationships and of human character this landmark novel is just as powerful and thought provoking today as it was a hundred years ago when it was written

RABINDRANATH TAGORE Hiranand banerjee, This book is a biography on the life of Rabindranath Tagore

Rabindranath Tagore's Theatre Abhijit Sen, 2021-09-28 This book analyses Rabindranath Tagore's contribution to Bengali drama and theatre Throughout this book Abhijit Sen locates and studies Rabindranath's experiments with drama theatre in the context of the theatre available in nineteenth century Bengal and explores the innovative strategies he adopted to promote his brand of theatre This approach finds validation in the fact that Rabindranath combined in himself the roles of author actor producer who always felt that without performance his dramatic compositions fell short of the desired completeness Various facets of his plays as theatre and his own role as a theatre practitioner are the prime focus of this book

This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in Theatre and Performance Studies and most notably those focusing on Indian Theatre and Postcolonial Theatre Indische Romane: Eine ideologische Untersuchung, Band 2 Walter Ruben, 1967-12-31 Keine ausführliche Beschreibung für Indische Romane Eine ideologische Untersuchung Band 2 verfügbar

Another Love Asma Abbas, 2018-10-15 In a time when our loves feel conscripted and exhausted by what we often do not remember desiring Another Love A Politics of the Unrequited explores the form method imperatives and inflections of love in the global post colony and offers a way to re apprehend and re inscribe love in an anticolonial materialist and nonfascist politics and aesthetics The figure of the unrequited is invoked as a symptom of a brutally loveless yet effusively sentimentalized era and also as an ineluctable yet very concrete political location in the face of both the intensifying external realities of war occupation apartheid austerity and terror as well as the increasingly normalized internalizations of ordinary imperialism nationalism neoliberalism fascism and colonialism all of which seem bent on extinguishing the possibility of relation itself The book asks that we look at practices of love and other material labors that yield and sustain these realities within complex lifeworlds indeed those which sustain entire systems of our subjection extraction and disposability such as colonialism capitalism liberalism and fascism as lifeworlds especially when given dominant forms of recognition affection embrace and belonging are unacceptable or even repulsive Distancing itself from shortcuts afforded by love's abstract forms deployed in ethical and moral discourses that at once elevate it yet wholly reduce it to a timeless apolitical essence Another Love sees love as a material and political relation to time and space signaling willed and unwilled shifts in historical reality in societies juggling various wars and annihilations It maintains that love is something in and with which we confess our complicities not only with but also against hegemonic notions of belonging devotion martyrdom hospitality publicity collectivity and solidarity nurtured and harvested under capital and colony The longing and the love missed by the pernicious and reactionary politics both of liberal democracy and the incidental fascisms that it claims to set out to fix can give us clues into past present and future moments of rebellion resistance rejection and redemption that are crucial to a liberatory anticolonial and antifascist politics and to rethinking attachment desire and relation itself Women and Resistance in

Contemporary Bengali Cinema Srimati Mukherjee, 2016-01-13 Historically Indian cinema has positioned women at the intersection of tradition and a more evolving culture portraying contradictory attitudes which affect women's roles in public and private spheres Examining the work of three directors from West Bengal this book addresses the juxtaposition of tradition and culture regarding women in Bengali cinema It argues the antithesis of women's roles particularly in terms of ideas of resistance revolution change and autonomy by suggesting they convey resistance to hegemonic structures encouraging a re envisioning of women's positions within the familial social matrix Along with presenting a perception of culture as dynamic and evolving the book discusses how some directors show that with this rupturing of the traditionally prohibitive and a notion of unmaking and making in women a traditional inclination is exposed to align women with ideas of absence substitution and disposability The author goes on to show how selected auteurs in contemporary Bengali cinema break with certain traditional representations of women gesturing towards a culture that is more liberating for women Presenting the first full length study of women s changing roles over the last twenty years of Bengali cinema this book will be a useful contribution for students and scholars of South Asian Culture Film Studies and Gender Studies Indian Literature and Popular Cinema Heidi R.M. Pauwels,2007-12-17 This book considers the popular cinema of North India Bollywood and how it recasts literary classics It addresses the socio political implications of popular reinterpretations of elite culture exploring gender issues and the perceived sexism of popular films and how that plays out when literature is reworked into film Conjugations Sangita Gopal,2012-01-26 Bollywood movies have been long known for their colorful song and dance numbers and knack for combining drama comedy action adventure and music But when India entered the global marketplace in the early 1990s its film industry transformed radically Production and distribution of films became regulated advertising and marketing created a largely middle class audience and films began to fit into genres like science fiction and horror In this bold study of what she names New Bollywood Sangita Gopal contends that the key to understanding these changes is to analyze films evolving treatment of romantic relationships Gopal argues that the form of the conjugal duo in movies reflects other social forces in India s new consumerist and global society She takes a daring look at recent Hindi films and movie trends the decline of song and dance sequences the upgraded status of the horror genre and the rise of the multiplex and multi plot to demonstrate how these relationships exemplify different formulas of contemporary living A provocative account of how cultural artifacts can embody globalization s effects on intimate life Conjugations will shake up the study of Hindi film

Unveiling Desire Devaleena Das, Colette Morrow, 2018-01-16 In Unveiling Desire Devaleena Das and Colette Morrow show that the duality of the fallen saved woman is as prevalent in Eastern culture as it is in the West specifically in literature and films Using examples from the Middle to Far East including Iran India Pakistan Bangladesh Thailand Japan and China this anthology challenges the fascination with Eastern women as passive abject or sexually exotic but also resists the temptation to then focus on the veil geisha sati or Muslim women s oppression without exploring Eastern women s sexuality beyond these contexts The chapters cover instead mind body sexual politics patriarchal cultural constructs the anatomy of sex and power in relation to myth and culture denigration of female anatomy and gender performativity From Persepolis to Bollywood and from fairy tales to crime fiction the contributors to Unveiling Desire show how the struggle for women s liberation is truly global

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2009-06-05 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty s influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non Western countries This imaginary Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty argues is built into the social sciences The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and sovereignty Measured against such mythical standards capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics this book globalizes European thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins

Incarnations Sunil Khilnani, 2016-02-25 One of the world s most ancient cultures India can be understood and explained in as many ways as humans can possibly devise To make sense of this astonishing turmoil of ideas Sunil Khilnani has created a remarkably simple and attractive solution In this book which accompanies a major Radio 4 series which he is narrating he takes the lives of 50 Indians starting with the Buddha some very famous some more obscure from the earliest records to the present day and in a series of short chapters describes what makes them so surprising curious or important These are not simply history lessons but stories rooted in today s India as Khilnani goes on a quest across contemporary India to find the living traces of these extraordinary individuals

Interpreting Homes in South Asian Literature Malashri Lal, Sukrita Paul Kumar, The search for the location in which the self is at home has been one of the primary projects of modern literature all over the world Interpreting Homes South Asian Literature attempts to map the narratives of the home in South Asian literature from the advance of modernity on the subcontinent till the present day It aims to read more than the domestic into representations of the home to explore not only the geographical but also the psychological and material connotations of home Its goal is to disassemble the concept of home in all its incarnations as confinement as stability as security as myth and as desire The book problematises home and its experience in different contexts It investigates if and how home changes its significations when articulated from different locations in different languages and by different subjects paying particular attention to ideological determinants like gender and class The editors of the anthology have encouraged contributors to also address diaspora writing and to achieve the widest possible comparative perspective Though the focus has been kept on literature some papers deal with cultural narratives of home in oral and folk mediums The collection comprises of an Introduction and 18 original essays divided into six thematic sections
