Christianity Among Other Religions Apologetics In A Contemporary Context:

Christianity Among Other Religions Roch A. Kereszty, 2006 This book intends to show that Christianity is God's response expressed in human words and in human history to the divinely inspired yet sin distorted universal human search for God Through a sympathetic evaluation and comparison with Christianity of the major world religions from Primitive myths and rites to Hinduism Buddhism Taoism Confucianism Islam and Judaism this work defends the credibility of the Catholic Christian faith and shows the need for dialogue with these religions in the new evangelization of the world called for by Vatican II

Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine

Retrieving Apologetics Glenn B. Siniscalchi, 2016-01-07 Given the popes recent statements of their desires to implement the New Evangelization it is imperative that Catholic theologians and other intellectually engaged laypersons retrieve the vital discipline of apologetics For the New Evangelization places particular emphasis on reproposing the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith due to secularization One salient method of Catholic apologetics used to be characterized by three demonstrations each of which assumes the conclusions established in the previous step's Some might think that this classical method of apologetics has been abandoned in the postconciliar Church but Siniscalchi's book updates it Unlike the classical apologetics of the preconciliar era Siniscalchi engages contemporary scholarship in a variety of academic disciplines such as philosophy history biblical studies sociology and theology to develop the steps that are necessary for showing the reasonableness of faith

Introducing Christian Theologies II Victor I Ezigbo, 2016-08-25 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of Christian communities from around the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine Engaging the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Matthew Levering, 2016-07-19 A Distinguished Theologian on the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Distinguished theologian Matthew Levering offers a historical examination of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit defending an Augustinian model against various contemporary theological views A companion piece to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation this work critically engages contemporary and classical doctrines of the Holy Spirit in dialogue with Orthodox and Reformed interlocutors Levering makes a strong dogmatic case for conceiving of the Holy Spirit as love between Father and Son given to the people of God as a gift The Possibility of Convivence in Nigeria Felix Ikeagwuchi Agbara, 2011 Despite the present day democratic government's commitment to human rights socio cultural and religious clashes still pose a threat to Nigeria As a panacea a split according to ethnic and religious boundaries has been suggested on the other hand upholding the different strands might spell greater benefits for the country's development The basic assumption of both views is that ethnic and religious pluralism have led to conflicts but that they are fuelled by politics inequitable distribution of economic goods and the negative forces of globalization In this project examining these conflicts and the efforts made to resolve them particular attention will be paid to dialogue and reconciliation The key practice suggested is convivence a symbiosis of interactive and interpenetrative approaches based on intercultural and interreligious hermeneutical perspectives The Decline of Established Christianity in the Western World Paul Silas Peterson, 2017-09-22 While Church attendance in the West is often cited as being in decline it is argued that this applies primarily to the older established forms of Christianity Other expressions of the faith are in fact stable or even growing This volume provides multidisciplinary interpretations of and responses to one of the most complicated and controversial issues regarding the global transformation of Christianity today the decline of established Christianity in the Western world It also addresses the future of Christianity in the West after the decline Drawing upon historical research sociology religious studies philosophy and theology an international panel of contributors provide new theoretical frameworks for understanding this decline and offer creative suggestions for responding to it Established Christianity is conceptualized as historically culturally socially and politically embedded religion with or without official established status This is a dynamic volume that gives fresh perspective on one of the great social changes taking place in the West today As such it will be of great interest to scholars of religious sociology history and anthropology as well as theologians The Catechism in a Year Companion, Volume I Fr. Kereszty,2019 Investigating Vatican II is a collection of Fr Jared Wicks recent articles on Vatican II and presents the Second Vatican Council as an event to which theologians contributed in major ways and from which Catholic theology can gain enormous insights Taken as a whole the articles take the reader into the theological dynamics of Vatican II at key moments in the Council s historical unfolding Wicks promotes a contemporary re reception of Vatican II s theologically profound documents especially as they featured God s incarnate and saving Word laid down principles of Catholic ecumenical engagement and articulated the church s turn to the modern world with a new face of respect and dedication to service From the original motivations of

Pope John XXIII in convoking the Council Investigating Vatican II goes on to highlight the profound insights offered by theologians who served behind the scenes as Council experts In its chapters the book moves through the Council s working periods drawing on the published and non published records with attention to the Council s dramas crises and breakthroughs It brings to light the bases of Pope Francis s call for synodality in a listening church while highlighting Vatican II s mandate to all of prayerful biblical reading for fostering a vibrant joy in the Gospel American Book Publishing Record ,2006

Theology in Arabic Sidney H. Griffith,2024-12-11 The articles in this collection complement those in Professor Griffith s previous volume Arabic Christianity in the Monasteries of 9th Century Palestine studying the first efforts of Christians living in the early Islamic world to respond to the religious challenges of Islam In particular the author shows how Christian apologists who wrote in Arabic adopted in defense of Christian doctrines the modes of discourse kalam then employed by Muslim controversialists mutakallimun to advance the claims of Islam The writers whose works are studied here developed a truly Christian ilm al kalam that is to say a science of defending Christianity in an Arabic idiom borrowed largely from Muslims European Perspectives on the New Comparative Theology Francis X.
