Cinnamon Gardens Shyam Selvadurai:

Cinnamon Gardens Shyam Selvadurai, 2011-01-11 Selvadurai has captured horrifyingly well the airlessness of a society in which only a few are truly able to breathe and deeply Mary Loudon The Times In Shyam Selvadurai's masterful second novel set in repressive and complex 1920s Ceylon the Cinnamon Gardens is a residential enclave of wealthy Ceylonese Among them is Annalukshmi an independent and high spirited young teacher intent on thwarting her parents plans to arrange her marriage In a parallel narrative her uncle Balendran Navaratnam respectably married but secretly homosexual has his life disrupted by the arrival in Ceylon of Richard a lover from long ago Richly rewarding this is in many ways an old fashioned novel brimming with old fashioned virtues The characters and setting are established in a measured finely judged manner allowing us to feel at home with them Annalukshmi's Jane Austen-ish domestic life anxious mother bossy aunt catty sisters endless talk of prospective husbands is brought to life with glancing humour Not least of the novel's virtues is the way he seems to conjure up a whole social panorama With its vivid evocation of time and place its wise characterisation its involving emotional dramas this is a novel that deserves and will surely gain a wide readership Adam Lively Sunday Times Subtle and deeply humane a fine novel that is both delicately written and very very wise Selvadurai has established himself firmly as an important chronicler of the complexities of social and cultural difference Books in Canada This is a distinctive voice and the author is a talent to be reckoned with Telegraph India

Cultural Encounters and Homoeroticism in Sri Lanka Robert Aldrich, 2014-10-17 Ceylon or Sri Lanka was long known to travellers for its luxuriant landscapes colourful temples and friendly inhabitants the island once named Serendip This book explores the sojourns of gay visitors from the late 1800s to the modern day providing a history of homosexuality travel and cultural encounter on the island The book offers profiles of major figures in Sri Lankan culture and of homosexual visitors both famous and infamous to the island It discusses the experiences of sojourners including the Victorian social reformer Edward Carpenter and the German naturalist Ernst Haeckel such British and American writers as Paul Bowles and Arthur C Clarke and the Australian painter Donald Friend It also pays particular attention to Lionel Wendt one of the most important modernist photographers outside Europe For these figures an erotic appreciation of young men whom they encountered mixed with interest in Sinhalese art Buddhist and Hindu spirituality and the flora and fauna of the island Their experiences influenced modern writing art and dance Cultural influences moved in both directions however and Sri Lankans also found inspiration from abroad The book argues that homosexuals played a major role in the transmission of cultural influences from Sri Lanka to the rest of the world and from the wider world to this Indian Ocean island Providing an original analysis of gay cultures in Sri Lanka from Victorian encounters to the present day this book is the first study of Sri Lanka as a site of gay travel An excellent study of trans national cultural exchange sexuality and the relationships between them it will be of interest to academics in the field of Asian Studies Colonial History and Gay and Queer Studies

South Asian Novelists in English Jaina C. Sanga, 2003-03-30

With the publication of Salman Rushdie's Booker Prize winning novel Midnight's Children in 1981 followed by the unprecedented popularity of his subsequent works the cinematic adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient many other best sellers written by South Asian novelists writing in English have gained a tremendous following This reference is a guide to their lives and writings The volume focuses on novelists born in South Asia who have written and continue to write about issues concerning that region Some of the novelists have published widely while others are only beginning their literary careers The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries on more than 50 South Asian novelists Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the novelist's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Since many of the contributors are personally acquainted with the novelists they are able to offer significant insights The volume closes with a selected bibliography of studies of the South Asian novel in English along with a list of anthologies and periodicals

Postcolonial Postmortems

Christine Matzke, Susanne Muehleisen, 2006 Recent crime fiction increasingly transcends national boundaries with investigators operating across countries and continents Frequently the detective is a migrant or comes from a transcultural background To solve the crime the investigator is called upon to decipher the meanings hidden in clues and testimonies that require transcultural forms of understanding For the reader the investigation discloses new interpretive methods and processes of social investigation often challenging facile interpretations of the postcolonial world order Under the rubric postcolonial postmortems this collection of essays seeks to explore the tropes issues and themes that characterise this emergent form of crime fiction But what does the postcolonial bring to the genre apart from the well known and valid discourses of resistance subversion and ethnicity And why postmortems A dissection and medical examination of a body to determine the cause of death the postmortem of the postcolonial not only alludes to the investigation of the victim's remains but also to the body of the individual text and its contexts This collection interrogates literary concepts of postcoloniality and crime from transcultural perspectives in the attempt to offer new critical impulses to the study of crime fiction and postcolonial literatures International scholars offer insights into the postcolonial postmortems of a wide range of texts by authors from Africa South Asia the Asian and African Diaspora and Australia including Robert G Barrett Unity Dow Wessel Ebersohn Romesh Gunasekera Kazuo Ishiguro Sujata Massey Alexander McCall Smith and Michael Ondaatje

A Love of Reading Robert Adams, 2011-01-14 Every year Robert Adams prepares a series of five reviews of contemporary novels to be delivered alone on a theatre stage to sold out audiences in Toronto and Montreal In A Love of Reading Adams has now gathered 18 of his most brilliant reviews from Jack Maggs by Peter Carey and The Poisonwood Bible by Barbara Kingsolver to A Fine Balance by Rohinton Mistry and Barney's Version by Mordecai Richler In them he skillfully interweaves a nimble and entertaining discussion of plot theme and characterization with fascinating historical biographical and literary context He is repeatedly drawn to the spectacle of less than perfect humans making their way in a hostile world and as a result a review by Robert Adams is almost always a hugely satisfying mix of rich pathos and abundant humour Famously Adams reads a book a day from which he selects only those novels that are truly extraordinary that have made him see some part of the world or some aspect of the human condition in a new light because for Adams the best books always take the reader on a journey with a destination very distant from the point of departure It should be not only a journey of discovery an exploration of the author s vision but also of risk By matching one s own vision to that of the author says Adams the reader enters an exciting negotiation to produce a new vision of his own This joint enterprise between reader and writer the shared risk and the wonder of discovery is the foundation of A Love of Reading For the last six years Robert Adams has presented an annual series of book reviews to sold out audiences Eighty per cent of Adams 3 000 subscribers in Toronto and Montreal renew for the following season This book is a selection of modern classics from a discriminating and entertaining guide Perfect for reading groups Quill Quire noting the jump in sales of any book reviewed by Adams has called the phenomenon The Adams Effect

Unhinging Hinglish Nanette Hale,Tabish Khair,2001 Women Teaching in South Asia Jackie Kirk,2008-11-11 This collection adds fresh perspectives to the current policy and programming initiatives concerning woman teachers in South Asia It discusses the issues related to the lives and experiences of woman teachers in Afghanistan Pakistan Sri Lanka India Nepal and Bangladesh providing a common framework for the analysis of the policies and programmes with and for them in relation to their lived experiences as women in diverse families communities and societies of the region It promotes critical discussion of the potential and agency of woman teachers to create change in schools and in society dwelling on the structural limitations that exist for women working within patriarchal institutions in male dominated societies Women Teaching in South Asia argues for a broader gender equality and empowerment perspective when working with woman teachers and for developing policy and programmes The chapters demonstrate the need for explicit attention to gender in the power dynamics between women and men in the roles they play and in the tasks they perform in schools This compilation is a valuable contribution with recommendations for future policy programme and research project development to bridge the gender divide and make sustainable progress towards Millennium Development Goals MDGs and Education for All EFA It will be a rich resource for ministries of education NGOs and other agencies supporting educational development as well as for researchers and academicians working in the fields of Education and Gender Studies Home-work Cynthia

Conchita Sugars,2004-06-22 Canadian literature and specifically the teaching of Canadian literature has emerged from a colonial duty to a nationalist enterprise and into the current territory of postcolonialism From practical discussions related to specific texts to more theoretical discussions about pedagogical practice regarding issues of nationalism and identity Home Work constitutes a major investigation and reassessment of the influence of postcolonial theory on Canadian literary pedagogy from some of the top scholars in the field Colonialism and Homosexuality Robert Aldrich,2008-01-28

Colonialism and Homosexuality is a thorough investigation of the connections of homosexuality and imperialism from the late 1800s the era of new imperialism until the era of decolonization Robert Aldrich reconstructs the context of a number of liaisons including those of famous men such as Cecil Rhodes E M Forster or Andr Gide and the historical situations which produced both the Europeans and their non Western lovers Colonial lands which in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century included most of Africa South and Southeast Asia and the islands of the Pacific and Indian Oceans and the Caribbean provided a haven for many Europeans whose sexual inclinations did not fit neatly into the constraints of European society Each of the case studies is a micro history of a particular colonial situation a sexual encounter and its wider implications for cultural and political life Students both of colonial history and of gender and queer studies will find this an informative read

The Diaspora Writes Home Jasbir Jain,2017-09-13 This book by eminent author Jasbir Jain explores the many ways the diaspora remembers and reflects upon the lost homeland and their relationship with their own ancestry history of the homeland culture and the current political conflicts Amongst the questions this book asks is how does the diaspora relate to their home and what is the homeland s relationship to the diaspora as representatives of the contemporary homeland in another country The last is an interesting point of discussion since the present of the homeland and of the diaspora cannot be equated The transformations that new locations have brought about as migrants have travelled through time and interacted with the politics of their settled lands Africa Fiji the Caribbean Islands the UK the US Canada as well as the countries created out of British India such as Pakistan and Bangladesh have altered their affiliations and perspectives This book gathers multiple dispersions of emigrant writers and artistes from South Asia across time and space to the various homelands they relate to now The word write is used in its multiplicity to refer to creative expression as an inscription as connectivity and remembrance Writing is also a representation and carries its own baggage of poetics and aesthetics categories which need to be problematised vis vis the writer and his her emotional location Transnational Asian American Literature Shirley

Lim,2006 Examines the diasporic and transnational aspects of Asian American literature and engages works of prose and poetry as aesthetic articulations of the fluid transnational identities formed by Asian American writers Out ,1999-07 Out is a fashion style celebrity and opinion magazine for the modern gay man Caribbean and South Asian Writers in Canada Mary Kandiuk,2007-01-26 This is the first bibliography of both new and established Caribbean and South Asian writers living in Canada The writers included in this volume are responsible for some of the most interesting writing coming out of Canada today While the work of these writers is attracting worldwide attention and acclaim literary criticism relating to their work is often scarce and difficult to locate By citing critical source material on the works of these 27 significant poets novelists and dramatists Caribbean and South Asian Writers in Canada fills a gap in existing bibliographical tools The figures included in this bibliography are celebrated established authors such as Austin C Clarke Bharati Mukherjee and Michael Ondaatje as well as exciting newcomers like Dionne Brand Marlene Nourbese Philip and Rohinton Mistry Each section begins with a brief biography of the author followed by a bibliography of his or her works Following the primary bibliography is a listing of secondary criticism in English Secondary sources include books parts of books periodical articles book reviews and dissertations The bibliography also includes extensive listings of secondary criticism for materials not indexed elsewhere and brief annotations are provided to indicate the subject matter of the work Caribbean and South Asian Writers in Canada will meet the needs of students and scholars around the world exploring an exciting new chapter in Canadian Literature

Writing Sri Lanka Minoli Salgado,2007-01-24 Focusing on ways in which cultural nationalism has influenced both the production and critical reception of texts Salgado presents a detailed analysis of eight leading Sri Lankan writers Michael Ondaatje Romesh Gunasekera Shyam Selvadurai A Sivanandan Jean Arasanayagam Carl Muller James Goonewardene and Punyakante Wijenaike to rigorously challenge the theoretical cultural and political assumptions that pit insider against outsider resident against migrant and the authentic against the alien By interrogating the discourses of territoriality and boundary marking that have come into prominence since the start of the civil war Salgado works to define a more nuanced and sensitive critical framework that actively reclaims marginalized voices and draws upon recent studies in migration and the diaspora to reconfigure the Sri Lankan critical terrain Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino,2015 In Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino analyzes a new type of literature emerging from artists increased movement and cultural flows spawned by globalization This transcultural literature is produced by authors who write across cultural and national boundaries Dagnino s book contains a creative rendition of interviews conducted with five internationally renowned writers Inez Baranay Brian Castro Alberto Manguel Tim Parks and Ilija Trojanow and a critical exegesis reflecting on thematic critical and stylistic aspects By studying the selected authors corpus of work life experiences and cultural orientations Dagnino explores the implicit often subconscious process of cultural and imaginative metamorphosis that leads transcultural writers and their fictionalized characters beyond ethnic national racial or religious loci of identity and identity formation The work is a significant contribution to scholarship for it increases our theoretical awareness of today's literary developments providing us with critical tools that enable us to approach literary texts with an innovative perspective Maurizio Ascari Università di Bologna
