Macdonald,2017-01-13 Understanding how theory informs social work practice is an area that students can often find challenging This book will help students understand how theory impacts and informs social work practice across a range of contexts and with different service user groups It starts off by briefly setting the context introducing students to the importance of social work theory and its development over the years before moving on to look at different types of theory across 17 tightly structured chapters These cover a range of psychological theories sociological theories ethics and moral philosophies political theories and ideologies and organisational theories The Making of Goddess Durga in Bengal: Art, Heritage and the Public Samir Kumar Das,Bishnupriya Basak,2021-05-21 This book examines the making of the Goddess Durga both as an art and as part of the intangible heritage of Bengal As the original site of production of unbaked clay idols of the Hindu Goddess Durga and other Gods and Goddesses Kumartuli remains at the centre of such art and heritage The art and heritage of Kumartuli have been facing challenges in a rapidly globalizing world that demands constant redefinition of art with the invasion of market forces and migration of idol makers As such the book includes chapters on the evolution of idols iconographic transformations popular culture and how the public is constituted by the production and consumption of the works of art and heritage and finally the continuous shaping and reshaping of urban imaginaries and contestations over public space It also investigates the caste group of Kumbhakars Kumars or the idol makers reflecting on the complex relation between inherited skill and artistry Further it explores how the social construction of art as art introduces a tangled web of power asymmetries between art and craft between an artist and an artisan and between appreciation and consumption along with their implications for the articulation of market in particular and social relations in general Since little has been written on this heritage hub beyond popular pamphlets documents on town planning and travelogues the book written by authors from various fields opens up cross disciplinary conversations situating itself at the interface between art history sociology of aesthetics politics and government social history cultural studies social anthropology and archaeology The book is aimed at a wide readership including students scholars town planners heritage preservationists lawmakers and readers interested in heritage in general and Kumartuli in particular Literature in the Dawn of Sociological Theory Sarah Louise MacMillen, 2021-11-17 Literature in the Dawn of Sociological Theory Stories That Are Telling focuses on a selection of novelists from the early 1800s to the early 1900s and their connections to the insights of Classical Sociological Theory and the sociological imagination This monograph also considers the aesthetic sociological and literary insights of Theodor Adorno Gyrgy Lukacs Fredric Jameson Raymond Williams Wolf Lepenies Franco Moretti Lucien Goldmann and John Orr The main chapters discuss the fiction of Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Joseph Conrad Charlotte Perkins Gilman Virginia Woolf and Fyodor Dostoevsky The concluding chapter reflects on the dawn of modernity especially the birth of capitalism and the plague crisis via Boccaccio's Florence significant to The Decameron Throughout the text Sarah Louise MacMillen considers these stories that are telling in light of social issues today She presents a case for highlighting the authors of the past wherein these fictional accounts anticipate some of our contemporary social problems and social movements These dynamics include the environmental crisis the effects of globalization Black Lives Matter MeToo cancel culture debates about gender nonconformity and secularization Finally MacMillen reflects on the need for solidarity in shifting patterns of social existence and rebuilding post COVID

Cultural Appropriation in Fashion and Entertainment Yuniya Kawamura, Jung-Whan Marc de Jong, 2022-06-16 Is it ever acceptable to borrow culturally inspired ideas Who has ownership over intangible culture What role does power inequality play These questions are often at the center of heated public debates around cultural appropriation with new controversies breaking seemingly every day Cultural Appropriation in Fashion and Entertainment offers a sociological perspective on the appropriation of race ethnicity class sexuality and religion embedded in clothing textiles jewelry accessories hairstyles and tattoos as well as in entertainment such as K pop Bhangra and hip hop By providing a range of global perspectives on the adoption adaptation and application of both tangible and intangible cultural objects Kawamura and de Jong help move the conversation beyond simply criticizing designers and creators to encourage nuanced discussion and raise awareness of diverse cultures in the creative industries Our Social World Jeanne H. Ballantine, Keith A. Roberts, 2011-10-26 In this brief text two leaders of the Teaching Sociology movement encourage students development of their sociological imaginations through role taking Assuming the role of a child living in poverty in India or of a member of an African tribe students learn to re envision their global society An innovative integrated framework provides core sociological concepts while features such as Contributing to Our Social World enable students to do public sociology Our Social World Condensed Version presents the perspective of students living in the larger global world Introduction to Neutrosophic Sociology (Neutrosociology) Florentin Smarandache, Neutrosophic Sociology or Neutrosociology is the study of sociology using neutrosophic scientific methods The huge social data that we face in sociology is full of indeterminacy it is vague incomplete contradictory hybrid biased ignorant redundant superfluous meaningless ambiguous unclear etc That's why the neutrosophic sciences which deal with indeterminacy through the process of neutrosophication are involved such as neutrosophy a new branch of philosophy neutrosophic set neutrosophic logic neutrosophic probability and neutrosophic statistics neutrosophic analysis neutrosophic measure and so on

The Cambridge Handbook of Social Problems: Volume 1 A. Javier Treviño, 2018-03-22 The introduction of the Affordable Care Act in the United States, the increasing use of prescription drugs and the alleged abuse of racial profiling by police are just some of the factors contributing to twenty-first century social problems. The Cambridge Handbook of Social Problems offers a wide-ranging roster of the social problems currently pressing for attention and amelioration. Unlike other works in this area, it also gives great consideration to theoretical and methodological discussions. This Handbook will benefit both undergraduate and graduate students eager to understand the sociology of social problems. It is suitable for classes in social problems, current events and social theory. Featuring the most current research, the Handbook provides an especially useful resource for sociologists and graduate students conducting research.
