International Sport Management Eric W. MacIntosh, Gonzalo Bravo, Ming Li, 2019 International Sport Management Second Edition serves as an invaluable guide for students as they build careers that require an understanding of the relationships influences and responsibilities of sport management in a global context

Inclusive Tourism Development Regina Scheyvens, Robin Biddulph, 2020-12-17 This comprehensive volume seeks out ways in which those who are typically marginalized by or excluded from tourism can be brought into the industry in ways that directly benefit them It addresses the central questions asked by an inclusive tourism approach Who is included On what terms With what significance Tourism is often understood and experienced as an exclusive activity accessible only to the relatively wealthy This volume seeks to counter that tendency by exploring how marginalized groups can gain more control over tourism The book starts by defining the concept of inclusive tourism and discussing seven different elements which might indicate inclusivity in tourism Research from a wide range of geographical contexts from Cambodia to Australia Sweden Turkey and Spain have been drawn upon to illustrate the need for more inclusive tourism The examples encompass the actions of a multinational tour operator hotel owners and social enterprises while also examining how to ensure tourism is accessible for those with disabilities Inclusive tourism is offered here as both an analytical concept and an aspirational ideal The authors hope that this book inspires a restless quest to find ways to include new actors and new places in tourism on terms that are equitable and sustainable The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies

Advancing International Human Rights Law Responsibilities of Development NGOs Noam Schimmel, 2020-10-31 This book explores the potential responsibilities to respect protect and fulfill international human rights law IHRL of a particular class of non state actors non governmental organizations NGOs It calls for NGOs pursuing development to respect and fulfill the human right of genocide survivors to reparative justice in Rwanda It argues that NGOs have social and moral responsibilities to respect and fulfill IHRL and for greater accountability for them to do so The book focuses on those NGOs advancing development in a post genocide transitional justice context acting simultaneously in partnership with state governments as proxies and agents for these governments and providing essential public goods and social services as part of their development remit It defines development as a process of expanding realization of social economic and cultural rights addressing food security economic empowerment poverty reduction healthcare housing education and other fundamental human needs while integrating these alongside the expansion of freedoms and protections afforded by civil and political rights It uses post genocide Rwanda as a case study to illustrate how respect and fulfillment of the IHRL pertaining to reparative justice are hindered by failing to hold NGOs responsible for IHRL Consequently this results in discrimination against marginalization and the disadvantaging of survivors of the Rwandan genocide against the Tutsi and violations of their human rights

Tourism and Sustainable Development Goals Jarkko Saarinen, 2020-06-29 This comprehensive volume comprises some of the best scholarship on sustainable tourism in recent years demonstrating the rich body of past research that provides a fertile and critical ground for studies on the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs by tourism geographers and other social scientists in the future Since the turn of the 1990s many international development and policy making organisations have perceived the tourism industry with its local and regional connections as a high potential tool for putting sustainable development into practice The capacity of tourism to work for sustainable development was highlighted in relation to the United Nations SDGs which were adopted in 2015 The SDGs define the agenda for global development to 2030 by addressing pertinent challenges such as poverty inequality climate change environmental degradation and peace and justice Tourism geographers and allied disciplines have held strong and long term interest in sustainability issues and their chapters in this collection contribute significantly to this emerging and highly policy relevant research field This book was originally published as an online special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies Ethics for Global Mental Health Elena Cherepanov, 2018-08-06 Ethics for Global Mental Health examines the limitations of current normative approaches to global mental health GMH work and argues for a values based framework that prioritizes accountability and contextual relevance of humanitarian and profession specific values It cautions against using aspirational ideals as operational guidance Chapters are organized around challenges arising in humanitarian research disaster relief post conflict recovery fieldwork and refugee resettlement and are designed to equip readers with strategies for resolving professional dilemmas and negotiating conflicting priorities Also included is a sample training curriculum as well as case studies and exercises that help professionals address countertransference and burnout and recognize ethically questionable practices such as trauma tourism rescuer fantasy or savior complex

International Social Work Policy and Practice Carolyn J. Tice, Dennis D. Long, 2010-10-07 Authoritative coverage of social work policy and practice from a global perspective In order for social and economic justice to flourish globally a greater understanding of practice and policy efforts from around the world is essential for today's professional in the human services International Social Work Policy and Practice Practical Insights and Perspectives provides practitioners and students with contemporary examples and thought provoking activities to promote in depth insight and analysis of global social welfare issues such as poverty and the environment Thorough and practical this book examines social work policy and practice within the context of global interdependence and culturally appropriate modes of everyday practice Its country by country coverage includes Peru Mongolia Portugal Malawi Costa Rica and South Africa following a consistent structure that in addition to offering real life examples delves into the theoretical underpinnings ethical dilemmas policy concerns and strategies for promoting social and economic justice Each example of international practice contributed by internationally recognized professionals who have lived and worked in the nation they are writing about allows readers to immerse themselves in that country's cultural social historical political and economic context Reflective exercises and Web based interactive activities give readers the chance to connect and apply what they've learned Serving as an impetus for learning more about the unique struggles and strengths of those in countries around the world International Social Work Policy and Practice offers intriguing firsthand observations and perspectives on the relevance of social work's leadership role in grappling with the human elements and challenges associated with globalization Gendered Tropes in War Photography Marta Zarzycka, 2016-09-13 Photographic stills of women appearing in both press coverage and relief campaigns have long been central to the documentation of war and civil conflict Images of non Western women in particular regularly function as symbols of the misery and hopelessness of the oppressed Featured on the front pages of newspapers and in NGO reports they inform public understandings of war and peace victims and perpetrators but within a discourse that often obscures social and political subjectivities Uniquely this book deconstructs in a systematic gender sensitive way the repetitive circulation of certain images of war conflict and state violence in order to scrutinize the role of photographic tropes in the globalized visual sphere Zarzycka builds on feminist theories of representations of war to explore how the concepts of femininity and war secure each other's intelligibility in photographic practices This book examines the complex connections between photographic tropes and the individuals and communities they represent in order to rethink the medium of photography as a discursive and political practice This book interrogates both the structure and transmission of contemporary encounters with war violence and conflict It will appeal to advanced students and scholars of gender studies visual studies media studies photography theory cultural anthropology cultural studies and trauma and memory studies Handbook on Tourism Governance Jarkko Saarinen, C M.

Hall, 2025-02-12 This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of contemporary issues on governance in various tourism research policy and development contexts Expert contributors examine the relationship between governance sustainability resilience and justice in tourism including critical discussions on good governance for tourism in the future Closing the Capabilities Gap Ortrud Leßmann, Hans-Uwe Otto, Holger Ziegler, 2011-03-08 The volume relates the Capabilities Approach to research and practice in education welfare economics and social policy Thus it challenges traditional objectives and approaches in these fields The authors suggest a capabilities perspective that calls into question the metric of success of these disciplines and in the fields of politics It moves the attention away from economic growth and human capital towards autonomy and agency freedom of young individuals Especially with respect to the young this implies a substantial shift of perspectives Young persons have been particularly highlighted in the political debate on the one hand side they are one of the groups with the highest risk to face situations of poverty on the other hand side young persons are the main focus group of educational strategies in the form of investments in human capital which dominate the discourse In this context the capability perspective implies a provoking shift of paradigms because it takes place against the background of capitalist societies redefining their notion of the public and diminishing the collective responsibility for the vulnerable The volume discusses whether and in how far the capabilities perspective makes a difference and provides additional value in terms of promoting democracy and justice on a social level as well as well being on the level of individual particularly young individuals Nongovernmental Organization Culture and Ethics in Kenya Douglas Kimemia, 2024-01-08 The Non Governmental sector has played a noble role in providing needed support following market failure and government failure all over the world In developing countries and Africa in particular this sector has become an important arm of economic development and civic engagement However there is growing suspicion accompanied by increased evidence that these organizations have been tolerating corrupt practices such as lack of accountability and transparency nepotism and favoritism in their governing systems and finances Douglas Kimemia s Nongovernmental Organization Culture and Ethics in Kenya focuses on the relationship between the intersection of corruption and organizational culture among NGOs in Kenya Kimemia stresses that NGOs should model strong culture to increase confidence among the various organizational stakeholders to showcase high integrity transparency and sound governance that does not tolerate any corrupt practices This book offers solutions to strengthen the existing culture within NGOs and examines how organizational culture impacts engagement in corrupt practices The Family and Its Future Katherine Elliott, 2009-09-16 The Novartis Foundation Series is a popular collection of the proceedings from Novartis Foundation Symposia in which groups of leading scientists from a range of topics across biology chemistry and medicine assembled to present papers and discuss results The Novartis Foundation originally known as the Ciba Foundation is well known to scientists and clinicians around the world The Youngest Citizens Amy Risley, 2019-06-11 The Youngest Citizens traces the historical evolution of children s rights in Latin America before turning its focus to the dramatic shift in discourse and policy experienced by the continent in the last 20 years This book explores the new global regime on childhood child advocates sustained efforts to influence domestic policy the ongoing challenges they face and the implications for democracy and citizenship in Latin America Risley addresses the disconnect between rights granted and the realities that young people face through in depth case studies of child advocacy and legislation to prove that rights in theory do not suffice the status of children must be improved in practice Key issues are discussed such as child labor in Bolivia and Brazil child soldiers in Colombia child sexual exploitation in Costa Rica and Mexico and unaccompanied child migrants detained at the United States southern border The Youngest Citizens takes the cautiously optimistic view that children themselves are increasingly being recognized as rights bearing subjects and included in the decisions affecting them This book is an essential text for both undergraduate and graduate students interested in Latin American studies with a focus on themes surrounding childhood and the family human rights and migration Agency and Participation in Childhood and Youth Caroline Sarojini Hart, Mario Biggeri, Bernhard Babic, 2014-02-27 Agency and Participation in Childhood and Youth presents new critical engagement in conceptualising the roles of youth agency and participation in education development and the pursuit of social justice Theoretically the book is framed within the paradigm of the capability approach initially developed by Nobel Laureate Amartya Sen and further differentiated by others including philosopher Martha Nussbaum The book unravels the complex relationships between the nature of youth agency and participation in education but also in wider political economic and social arenas and the potential of young people to expand their freedoms to lead lives they have reason to value It is thus argued that ethical sustainable development is contingent on the nature of youth agency and participation in schooling and further afield Bringing together leading international experts researching children s capabilities Agency and Participation in Childhood and Youth offers a unique exploration of links between exciting new areas of development in theory research and practical applications of Sen and Nussbaum s ideas The book addresses a significant gap in the literature drawing on empirical data from the UK the USA Jordan Palestine the Democratic Republic of the Congo Switzerland New Zealand and beyond with perspectives presented from both within and outside schools and other formal educational settings Agency and Participation in Childhood and Youth is of particular interest to academics teaching professionals undergraduate and postgraduate students of education studies social policy youth and development studies

South Africa News Update ,1997 Consists of reproductions of articles from South African newspapers Interventions against child abuse and violence against women Carol Hagemann-White,Liz Kelly,Thomas Meysen,2019-10-28 This book offers insights and perspectives from a study of Cultural Encounters in Intervention Against Violence CEINAV in four EU countries Seeking a deeper understanding of the underpinnings of intervention practices in Germany Portugal Slovenia and the United Kingdom the team explored variations in institutional structures and traditions of law policing and social welfare Theories of structural inequality and ethics are discussed and translated into practice Rethinking the Meaning of Family for Adolescents and Youth in Zimbabwe's Child Welfare Institutions Getrude Dadirai Gwenzi,2023-02-13 This book examines the lives of children and young adults living in residential care systems in Zimbabwe and their unique conceptualization of family While the importance of family for the development and wellbeing of children can t be overemphasized the questions of what and who counts as family to orphans and vulnerable children OVCs are under researched Gwenzi brings a social constructionist approach to study OVCs in institutional care as well as living with their families in Zimbabwe finding that they do not have a single definition of family and that they use diverse characteristics to describe what family means to them With the data suggesting a need for belonging continuity of relationships protection and trust this study makes recommendations for policy and practice with youth in alternative care in sub Saharan Africa

Suicide in Palestine Nadia Taysir Dabbagh,2005 This book is a pioneering anthropological study of suicide in the contemporary Arab world It discusses the effects of life under the Israeli occupation on the mental health of young Palestinians using selected case studies of men and women who attempted suicide in the West Bank above all in the city of Ramallah but also in Jenin This is not a book about martyrs or those who gain so much media attention by dying for a holy cause rather it concerns those who wish to die for entirely private reasons Contrary to wider expectations fatal suicide levels in Palestinian society remain low compared with Western norms notwithstanding the many stress factors that have been shown to contribute to suicidal behaviour in the West including unemployment and social deprivation Above all suicide is found to be contrary to the concept of Palestinian identity of a people under siege for whom resistance is paramount rather than succumbing to depression or despair Building Reputational Capital Kevin T. Jackson, 2004 In the aftermath of scandals such as those at Enron and WorldCom there is a growing suspicion of the corporate world For this reason it is more important than ever for firms to maintain a good reputation Jackson offers a practical guide to taking the high road the only path that leads to lasting success ICT Management in Non-Profit Organizations Ariza-Montes, José Antonio, 2014-04-30 The instability of today's economic climate calls for non profit organizations to approach social problems in new and interesting ways and Information and Communication Technologies may serve as an answer to this call ICT Management in Non Profit Organizations aims to explore the effective and comprehensive deployment of appropriate ICT strategies within the nonprofit sector This innovative reference work will discuss how ICT enables the non profit sector to achieve organizational efficiency effectiveness and ultimately self sufficiency and will provide elected and appointed policymakers managers and planners in governments public agencies and nonprofit organizations with a comprehensive strategy for creating an ICT management agenda in the non profit sector Responsible Organizations in the Global Context Annie Bartoli, Jose-Luis Guerrero, Philippe Hermel, 2019-03-04 This book aims to spur critical thought on the various dimensions and impacts of responsibility for organizations including companies institutions and governments while considering international differences and similarities as well as global challenges It analyzes to what extent responsibility is becoming a crucial issue for all kinds of organizations examining both the intensifying pressures of international competition and the growing crisis of confidence towards some management concepts and practices As more and more socio economic and political systems are suspected of serving selfish interests instead of the public good more accountable and integrated processes are appropriate in order to deal with the present and future stakes of our society Further with the development of digital technology and the use of data mining new questions regarding responsibility require examination This edited collection is a culmination of the international scientific conference Responsible Organizations in the Global Context co organized by the CIED of Georgetown University United States and the Larequoi Research Center of the University of Versailles St Quentin France in June 2017 in Washington DC It will contribute to research and actions in the areas of social responsibility business ethics organizational excellence sustainability and cross cultural management
