Integrating Research and Education National Research Council, Division on Earth and Life Studies, Board on Life Sciences, Planning Group for the Workshop on Integrating Education in Biocomplexity Research, Bridget K. B. Avila, 2003-06-02 The workshop summary provides guidance for researchers applying to the National Science Foundation NSF for funding New NSF guidelines require applications to address the broader impact of the proposed research Presentations at the workshop provided ideas on how to do this by engaging in undergraduate education K 12 education or public outreach via museums or journalists The workshop summary discusses issues to consider in choosing an appropriate collaborator for the education or outreach component of the project and how to build in methods for assessing the success of the project It also provides lists of resources helpful in writing education proposals and discusses the similarities between research in education and scientific research

Doing Museology Differently Duncan Grewcock, 2013-09-05 One might believe that museum studies is a stable field of academic inquiry based on a set of familiar institutional forms and functions But as institutions museums have never been stable or singular and neither has the discipline of museum studies Museum studies as a field of academic inquiry has received little critical attention One result of this neglect has arguably been a lack of invention in museum studies another is the distancing of academic museum studies from museum practice Doing Museology Differently charts a different course A critical creative reflection on academic practice the book takes the form of a narrative account of museological fieldwork A research story unfolds challenging academic conventions at the level of its own presentation the book combines critical museum visiting with an autobiographical voice The identification of a previously underexplored interdisciplinary space leads the author to experiment with museum studies using contemporary developments in the theory and practice of human geography The new approaches to museological research and representation that emerge from this unique inquiry challenge assumed institutional and intellectual boundaries and act as a call to further creative experimentation

Research Methods in Anthropology H.
