Christ In Christian Tradition:

Christ in Christian Tradition Aloys Grillmeier, Theresia Hainthaler, 1995-01-01 Examines the development of Christology and the concept of Christ and His presence through the late eighth century Christ in Christian tradition Alois Grillmeier, 1965 Christ Without Borders Parappally, Jacob, 2024-09-25 An Introduction to the History of Christianity George Herring, 2006-08-01 Examines the interaction between Christianity and the secular world covering four major periods in Christian history The Imperial Church 300 500 the Medieval Church 1050 1250 the Reformation Church 1450 1650 and the Modern Church 1800 2000 The Christology of Karl Barth and Matta al-Miskin Hani Hanna, 2019-07-02 In The Christology of Karl Barth and Matta al Miskin Hani Hanna argues that two of the most renowned theologians of the twentieth century Karl Barth and Matta al Miskin Matthew the Poor redefine the reality of God and humanity christologically in similar ways Both theologians achieve this redefinition using historical rubrics that are closer to Scripture than the traditional metaphysical categories borrowed from Greek philosophy Rooted in their respective Reformed and Coptic Orthodox traditions their works can be placed in a dialogue that takes into account modern concerns about history revelation and human agency By providing an in depth analysis of both men s christologies Hanna also finds that Barth and Matta s christological view of reality has implications for interfaith and intercultural dialogues today Christ in Christian Tradition Alois Grillmeier, 1975 Is there a Judeo-Christian Tradition? Emmanuel Nathan, Anya Topolski, 2016-03-21 The term Judeo Christian in reference to a tradition heritage ethic civilization faith etc has been used in a wide variety of contexts with widely diverging meanings Contrary to popular belief the term was not coined in the United States in the middle of the 20th century but in 1831 in Germany by Ferdinand Christian Baur By acknowledging and returning to this European perspective and context the volume engages the historical theological philosophical and political dimensions of the term s development Scholars of European intellectual history will find this volume timely and relevant Christ in Christian Tradition: From the Council of Chalcedon (451) to Gregory the Great (590-604) Alois Grillmeier, 1975 The Jesus Puzzle Johannes Neumann, 2018-03-02 Jesus of Nazareth is a fascinating figure His miracles and his sermon from the Kingdom of God are legendary His death on the cross in Jerusalem touches people all over the world But what are facts What is fiction Refreshingly critical the historian and theologian Neumann author of several books of Jesus deals with the texts of the bible and shows how facts and fiction can be separated Behind the beautiful legends appears the historical Jesus whose true story fascinated people at that time and astonishes them today Read the Blog <https://bibleblog.en.com> Christ in Christian Tradition, Volume Two Alois Grillmeier, 1987-01-01 A monumental work in scope and content Aloys Grillmeier s Christ in the Christian Tradition offers students and scholars a comprehensive exposition of Western writing on the history of doctrine Volume Two Part One covers the development of Christology from the Council of Chalcedon to the beginning of the rule of Emperor Justinian I Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume One Victor I. Ezigbo, 2013-08-21 Should Christianity s theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of the Christian communities from around the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2020-12-15 This work represents the current and most relevant content on the studies of how Christianity has fared in the ancient home of its founder and birth Much has been written about Christianity and how it has survived since its migration out of its homeland but this comprehensive reference work reassesses the geographic and demographic impact of the dramatic changes in this perennially combustible world region The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East also spans the historical socio political and contemporary settings of the region and importantly describes the interactions that Christianity has had with other major minor religions in the region Christ in Christian Tradition: From the Council of

Impeccability and Temptation Johannes Grössl, Klaus von Stosch, 2021-04-13 In Christian theology the teaching that Christ possessed both a human and divine will is central to the doctrine of two natures but it also represents a logical paradox raising questions about how a person can be both impeccable and subject to temptation This volume explores these questions through an analytic theology approach bringing together 15 original papers that explore the implications of a strong libertarian concept of free will for Christology With perspectives from systematic theologians philosophers and biblical scholars several chapters also offer a comparative theology approach examining the concept of impeccability in the Muslim tradition Therefore this volume will be of interest to scholars and graduate students working in analytic theology biblical scholarship systematic theology and Christian Islamic dialogue

The Impeccability of Christ Edward

Kannah, 2022-09-30 The following study seeks to investigate the impeccability of Christ from a historical theological position Two camps emerge on either side of the debate Those who hold to the posse non peccare view which is to say ability not to sin otherwise known as the peccability view and those who hold to the non posse peccare view which is to say inability to sin otherwise known as the impeccability view While both camps affirm the sinless perfection of Christ they oppose each other in whether as fully human He could have sinned if He wanted to It boils down to a case of could have but did not or did not because He could not have It is the view of this thesis that the non posse peccare view squares with both historical and biblical theology
