Curriculum Anthony Afful-Broni, Jophus Anamuah-Mensah, Kolawole Raheem, George J. Sefa Dei, 2020-12-29 Connecting cultures to educational settings is an essential component of critical pedagogy This book addresses many of the key issues and challenges in decolonizing the African school curriculum It highlights important philosophical arguments on the challenges and possibilities of achieving these goals in a meaningful manner Topics covered in the book include operationalizing the key terms of inclusion and curriculum strategies for Africanizing the school curriculum and the implications of local knowledge for schooling reform This book also raises a variety of key questions how do we frame an inclusive anti colonial African future and what is the nature of the work required to collectively arrive at that future what education are learners of today going to receive and how will they apply it to their schooling and work lives how do we re fashion our work as African educators and learners to create more relevant understandings of what it means to be human how do we challenge colonizing and imperializing relations of the academy What are the possibilities and limits of counter visions of education how do we make school curricula inclusive through teaching research and graduate training in questions of Indigeneity and multi centric ways of knowing The book identifies specific areas of an inclusive decolonized curriculum agenda through educational programming and reform It is essential reading to any student or teacher concerned about understanding the many facets of an African school curriculum Perfect for courses such as Principles of Anti Racism Education Anti Colonial Thought Pedagogical Implications Indigenous Knowledge and Decolonization Pedagogical Implications Modernization Development and Education in African Contexts African Systems of Thought Introduction to African Studies Restoring the Vocation of a Christian College Brad Pardue, Andrew T. Bolger, 2022-05-19 Restoring the Vocation of a Christian College examines the vocation of a Christian institution of higher learning to faithfully educate students and how individual Christian teachers and scholars can participate in this process no matter their discipline It surveys and engages developments over the last few decades in Christian worldview studies Christian pedagogy character formation and vocational reflection Through individual essays by college administrators cocurricular staff and faculty from a wide range of disciplines it provides both thoughtful reflection and concrete application of these often abstract concepts to specific institutional settings and the actual classroom experience Spirituality and Religion in Social Work Practice T. Laine Scales,2002 Why Can't Church Be More Like an AA Meeting? Stephen R. Haynes,2021-10-26 Do Christians need recovery Or is recovery something needed by the church itself Addiction whether to a substance or to a behavior is a problem within faith communities just like it is everywhere else But because churches are rarely experienced as safe places for dealing with addiction co addiction or the legacy of family dysfunction Christians tend to seek recovery from these conditions in Twelve Step fellowships Once they become accustomed to the ethos of vulnerability acceptance and healing that these fellowships provide however they are often left feeling that the church has failed them with many asking why can t church be more like an AA meeting Inspired by his own quest to find in church the sort of mutual support and healing he discovered in Twelve Step fellowships Stephen Haynes explores the history of Alcoholics Anonymous and its relationship to American Christianity He shows that while AA eventually separated from the Christian parachurch movement out of which it emerged it retained aspects of Christian experience that the church itself has largely lost comfort with brokenness and vulnerability an emphasis on honesty and transparency and suspicion toward claims to piety and respectability Haynes encourages Christians to reclaim these distinctive elements of the Twelve Step movement in the process of recovering church He argues that this process must begin with he calls Step 0 which as he knows from personal experience can be the hardest step the admission that despite appearances we are not fine Christianity and Social Work Scales Laine,Kelly Michael,2020-05-29 Christianity and Social Work is written for social workers whose motivations to enter the profession are informed by their Christian faith and who desire to develop faithfully Christian approaches to helping Spirituality in Mental Health Practice Miriam Jaffe,Widian Nicola,Jerry Floersch,Jeffrey Longhofer,2020-06-04 This key text presents an accessible and diverse exploration of spirituality in mental health practice broadening the definition of spirituality to comprise a variety of transcendent experiences Chapters include a brief history of the tensions of spirituality in mental health practice and consider a range of emerging topics from spirituality among the elderly and energy work Reiki to spirituality in addiction recovery incarceration and hospice work The book offers a close examination of the limits of the medical model of care making a case for a more spiritually sensitive practice Rich case examples are woven throughout and the book is paired with podcasts that can be applied across chapters illuminating the narrative stories and building active listening and teaching skills Suitable for students of social work and counseling at master s level as well as practicing clinicians Spirituality in Mental Health Practice is an essential text for widening our understanding of how spiritual frameworks can enrich mental health practice

Psychology & Christianity Integration Daryl H. Stevenson,Brian E. Eck,Peter C. Brian Tucker,Coleman A.

Baker,2014-01-02 Combining the insights of many leading New Testament scholars writing on the use of social identity theory this new reference work provides a comprehensive handbook to the construction of social identity in the New Testament Part one examines key methodological issues and the ways in which scholars have viewed and studied social identity including different theoretical approaches and core areas or topics which may be used in the study of social identity such as food social memory and ancient media culture Part two presents worked examples and in depth textual studies covering core passages from each of the New Testament books as they relate to the construction of social identity Adopting a case study approach in line with sociological methods the volume builds a picture of how identity was structured in the earliest Christ movement Contributors include Philip Esler Warren Carter Paul Middleton Rafael Rodriquez and Robert Brawley

Managing Religion: The Management of Christian Religious and Faith-Based Organizations Malcolm Torry,2014-09-09 This two volume work explores the management of religious and faith based organizations Each chapter offers a discussion of the earliest Christian organizations based on New Testament evidence a study of managing faith based organizations and an exploration of secular management theory in relation to the management of faith based organizations

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Families in Society ,1998 Religion and Contemporary Politics Timothy J. Demy,Jeffrey M. Shaw Ph.D.,2019-09-19 With respect to the countries of the world this work addresses two basic questions How does religion affect politics in this country and How does politics affect religion in this country Although there are many books on the topics of religion and politics reference works that consider the two together are few with those that do exist primarily addressing theory rather than trends The present work does the latter contextualizing them within regional and national boundaries In so doing it recognizes the power of political and religious ideas and movements on individuals communities and nations making the work a valuable resource for several disciplines among them political science international relations religion and sociology The work focuses on the interplay of religion and politics in countries around the world with an emphasis on the post 2000s It is organized by global geographic regions including Africa Central and South America and the Middle East and presents countries alphabetically within those sections Each region has a brief overview of the political religious dynamics of the area so readers can compare and contrast the dynamics between and among countries in a region The work also includes an introduction sidebars and a bibliography
