Civic Education Textbook For Senior Secondary School:

Essential Civic Education for Senior Secondary Schools (SS1, SS2 & SS3) Gbenga M. Babalola, Igbinobu Chuks, 2015

Ideal Civic Education for Senior Secondary Schools Olajide Adewale, 2022-09-06 Ideal Civic Education for Senior Secondary Schools meets the needs of the young generation and our society today. The re-introduction of Civic Education and making it a compulsory subject for students in Secondary Schools is apposite to the challenges Nigerian society has been facing in recent times. One of the objectives of this subject is to keep students aware of those challenges while at the same time enlightening them on the needful societal values, their status, rights, duties and obligations as citizens and the affairs of government. The aim is to achieve social harmony, peace and national development. The Nigerian Educational Research and Development Council (NERDC) has therefore designed an appropriate Senior Secondary Schools curriculum on Civic Education for achieving the objectives set out by the National Economic and Empowerment Development Strategies (NEEDS) to address the challenges. This Book is prepared in the full content of the national curriculum and in a simple, comprehensive and straight to the point manner to meet those national objectives. It comprises 25 Chapters and at the end of each chapter are revision questions which are mostly past WASSCE questions with visible answers in the chapter. A Chapter is dedicated to instilling the essential knowledge content of the novel COVID 19 Pandemic. The book is indispensable material for students writing exams on Civic Education. The book is full of sensible illustrations for the right perception of Civic Education as an applied subject and to enable students to connect and apply its knowledge to their daily activities and observations. It would be a helping tool for teachers. To complement these efforts and achieve the strategic national objectives, therefore, all stakeholders, the teachers and school authorities need to operate by example, setting the standard of good citizenship. May the God of creation direct our noble course and help our youth to know the truth.

PerspektivenBildung Nikolaus Janovsky, Elisabeth Ostermann, Ursula Rapp, Georg Ritzer, Petra Steinmair-Pösel, 2021. Die Reihe PerspektivenBildung der KPH Edith Stein setzt sich multiperspektivisch mit aktuellen Fragestellungen im Bildungsbereich auseinander. Der erste Band trägt programmatisch den Titel der Reihe: Das Wortspiel mit den Begriffen Perspektive und Bildung weist auf fundamentale Anliegen der Reihe hin. Sie soll ein Forum darstellen für unterschiedliche Blickwinkel und interdisziplinäre Perspektiven auf ausgewählte Themen aus dem Bereich der Bildung. Sie bietet Raum für die kritisch reflektierende Bildung eigener Perspektiven und das gerade auch in Auseinandersetzung mit anderen, vielleicht auch fremdartigen Perspektiven und Standpunkten. Außerdem geht es um die Reflexion des spezifischen Bildungsverständnisses und auftrags einer kirchlichen pädagogischen Hochschule und damit um eine Selbstpositionierung im vielstimmigen Konzert pädagogischer Literatur und Sichtweisen. Der Begriff der Perspektive bringt dabei immer beides ins Spiel: Den Gegenwartsbezug, d.h. die Fragen: Wo stehe ich? Von welcher Position aus denke und handle ich? Aber auch den Zukunftsbezug, d.h. die Fragen: Wohin geht es? Wohin soll es gehen.

,1941 Resources in Education ,2001-04 Education and Democracy in China Zhou Ying,2023-12-11 In this book Ying Zhou argues that educational reform filled a critical role in bridging the precarious gap between democratic ideals and political realities in late Qing and Republican China where institutional change in education and the cultivation of a qualified citizenry were two sides of the same coin in the development of democratic education Through a multi level analysis of the re arrangements of national education and teachings of citizenship Zhou unravels the complex political and educational nexus in China between 1901 1937 where the hope of education was to bring both political modernity and social progress Civic Education Richard G. Niemi,Jane Junn,2005-05-11 Sound democratic decisions rely on a citizenry with at least a partial mastery of the rules and workings of democratic government American high schools where students learn the basics of citizenship thus ought to play a critical role in the success of democracy Yet studies examining the impact of high school government and civics courses on political knowledge over the past quarter century have generally shown that these courses have little or no effect In this important book Richard G Niemi and Jane Junn take a fresh look at what America s high school seniors know about government and politics and how they learn it The authors argue convincingly that secondary school civics courses do indeed enhance students civic knowledge This book is based on the most extensive assessment to date of civic knowledge among American youth the 1988 National Assessment of Education Progress NAEP Civics Assessment The authors develop and test a theoretical model to explain the cognitive process by which students learn about politics and they conclude by suggesting specific changes in the style and emphasis of civics teaching Transformative Civic Education in Democratic Societies Tetyana Hoggan-Kloubert,Paul E Mabrey III,Chad Hoggan,2023-08-01 Democracy is neither inevitable nor guaranteed to last To survive democracy needs people adequately prepared to enact it Such preparation for effective citizenship in a complex and plural world requires an adult civic education one that goes beyond simple knowledge acquisition It requires a transformative education to help learners become agents and co shapers of their worlds This book offers examples of the roles that civic education has played and can play in different communities In this collection scholars from around the world report and reflect on civic adult education examining approaches paradigms and concepts that help us to act in culturally ethnically linguistically and religiously diverse societies The Rise and Fall of Civic Education Michael Learn,2024-09-16 Social studies is a field in crisis The crisis stems from failure to establish the very foundation of social studies purpose in public education civic education Social studies advocates have never put forth a coherent method for teaching civic education because policymakers and the public have been unable to agree upon a general definition of civic education This issue has disrupted the field since the early days As educators sought to include civic education within public schools as a dedicated field social studies evolved into a blending of history social sciences and civic education Social studies evolution never resolved the differences between the three with each discipline striving to control the narrative Instead of creating a unified field the disciplines devalued social studies and thus any discipline associated with it The Rise and Fall of

Civic Education The Battle for Social Studies in a Shifting Historical Landscape investigates the changing definitions and purposes ascribed to social studies in the United States through time This result is viewed through the rising tensions from culture wars as America s divisive politics fight to control the narrative of the disciplines within social studies

Reimagining Civic Education Bradley Levinson, Doyle Stevick, 2006-12-25 This volume surveys the new global landscape for democratic civic education Rooted in qualitative research the contributors explore the many ways that notions of democracy and citizenship have been implemented in recent education policy curriculum and classroom practice around the world From Indonesia to the Spokane Reservation and El Salvador to Estonia these chapters reveal a striking diversity of approaches to political socialization in varying cultural and institutional contexts By bringing to bear the methodological conceptual and theoretical perspectives of qualitative research this book adds important new voices to one of educationOs most critical debates how to form democratic citizens in a changing world Contemporary Issues in Human Rights Education gratuit, 2011 We the People , 1992 We the People Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution, 1992 Describes and illustrates commemorations across the country of the bicentennial of the United States Constitution (Re)Constructing Memory: School Textbooks and the Imagination of the Nation James H. Williams, 2014-08-08 This book examines the shifting portrayal of the nation in school textbooks in 14 countries during periods of rapid political social and economic change Drawing on a range of analytic strategies the authors examine history and civics textbooks and the teaching of such texts along with other prominent curricular materials children s readers a required text penned by the head of state a holocaust curriculum etc The authors analyze the uses of history and pedagogy in building reinforcing and or redefining the nation and state especially in the light of challenges to its legitimacy The primary focus is on countries in developing or transitional contexts Issues include the teaching of democratic civics in a multiethnic state with little history of democratic governance shifts in teaching about the Khmer Rouge in post conflict Cambodia children s readers used to define national space in former republics of the Soviet Union the development of Holocaust education in a context where citizens were both victims and perpetrators of violence the creation of a national past in Turkmenistan and so forth The case studies are supplemented by commentary an introduction and conclusion Back to the Future Maria Assunção Flores, Ana Amélia Carvalho, Fernando Ilídio Ferreira, Maria Teresa Vilaça, 2013-06-13 Schools and teachers are facing various challenges in a rapidly changing world In such circumstances discussing and sharing concerns of mutual interest regarding policy practice and research is crucial to creating more sophisticated understandings of the various challenges as a first step in the improvement of education While the future should not be imprisoned in the past the past does provide valuable lessons that will undergo new iterations in constructing the future The future will be multi faceted and complex and the different chapters included in this book are intended to provide important contributions from which to build the future of education The different chapters provide readers with international perspectives frameworks and empirical evidence of legacies continuities and changes in educational policy practice and research in teaching teacher education and learning We hope that they inspire the readers to build the future and to change their own professional realities Cheryl J Craig Ph D Professor University of Houston Houston TX USA Secretary ISATT This book metaphorically captures the looking backward to the past pressing forward to the future that typically takes place on celebratory occasions It causes us to pause and remember even as we race toward a time unknown to us In a sense the authors featured in this book serve as tour guides pointing out legacies continuities and changes in teaching and teacher education I strongly urge readers not only to peruse the chapters that follow but to distill them to their essences and to glean what is of value to be learned from them In conclusion the ISATT Executive especially thanks the co editors of this volume who have compiled a superb collection of chapters on a timely and relevant topic

Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education James A.

Banks,2012-05-17 The diversity education literature both nationally and internationally is broad and diffuse Consequently there needs to be a systematic and logical way to organize and present the state of research for students and professionals American citizens need to understand the dynamics of their increasingly diverse communities and institutions and the global world in which we live work and lead With continually evolving information on diversity policies practices and programs it is important to have one place where students scholars teachers and policymakers can examine and explore research policy and practice issues and find answers to important questions about how diversity in U S education enriched with theories research and practices in other nations are explained and communicated and how they affect institutional change at both the K 12 and postsecondary levels With about 700 signed entries with cross references and recommended readings the Encyclopedia of Diversity in Education 4 volumes in both print and electronic formats will present research and statistics case studies and best practices policies and programs at pre and postsecondary levels Diversity is a worldwide phenomenon and while most of the entries in the Encyclopedia will focus on the United States diversity issues and developments in nations around the world including the United States are intricately connected Consequently to illuminate the many aspects of diversity this volume will contain entries from different nations in the world in order to illuminate the myriad aspects of diversity From A to Z this Encyclopedia will cover the full spectrum of diversity issues including race class gender religion language exceptionality and the global dimensions of diversity as they relate to education This four volume reference work will be the definitive reference for diversity issues in education in the United States and the world

Civic Education in the Asia-Pacific Region John L. Cogan,Murray Print,2013-12-02 This book examines the approach to civic education in six societies located on the Pacific Rim Australia Japan Hong Kong Taiwan Thailand and the US In these scrupulously designed studies the contributors investigate the recent re emergence of civic education in this region Developments such as globalization nationalism and sovereignty have profound effects on how schools make good citizens These essays reveal how definitions of citizenship are contested and revised under such influences and interrogate differences in civic education from nation to nation As societies attempt to strike a balance between obedience and critical thinking schools become the primary site of these transformations Analyzing both educational policy and its implementation these contributors offer a groundbreaking comparative study that grounds civic education historically and politically School Life ,1947 A
