Coaching and Mentoring Eric Parsloe, Monika Jamieson Wray, 2000 Coaching and mentoring have developed significantly in recent years Helping and supporting people to learn more effectively are not new activities of course but what is new is the extent to which their power is being harnessed to meet the challenge of our ever increasing need to take personal responsibility for managing to learn new things in new ways The authors of this vital new book on the topic believe that we are in the middle of a revolution of thinking about learning Clearly demonstrating how recent research suggests that traditional methods need to be adjusted or in some cases abandoned in favour of the effective use of coaching and mentoring this book provides a practical toolkit for such change Covering both the theory and practice of coaching and mentoring ranging from the world of work to education to community action the book demonstrates how important it is to relate theoretical models to specific situations in order to gain real practical benefits In a highly readable and accessible style the authors offer new insights into and examples of such issues as matching staff and fresh ways of giving feedback and asking the right questions While they provide both best practice approaches and proven solutions they also explain that where coaching and mentoring are concerned simplicity is often the ideal solution To facilitate this goal they outline Seven Golden Rules of Simplicity This practical introduction to an increasingly widely used practice will prove invaluable to anyone wanting to help people to increase and improve their ability to maximize their potential learn new skills improve performance and become the person they want to be

The Theory and Practice of Creative Coaching Arthur Turner, 2023-07-04 The Theory and Practice of Creative Coaching has been long in development and is not meant as an end view of creativity in this field It is however a stimulating collection of ideas with detailed views from both practice and education that seeks to provide stimulus to trainee coaches as well as those whose practice is well established With topics as wide ranging as walking to line drawing this book seeks to change the practice of practitioners new and old and helps to articulate the ways in which David Clutterbuck has called for a move from the use of models towards mastery by embracing new ways of working with the clients of coaching With a wide ranging scope examples ideas and a strong link to academic understanding this book will provide a stimulus to the coaches supervisors and educationalists to open their eyes to alternative ways of practicing their craft
