Features Of Autobiography And Biography:

Translation of Autobiography Susan XU Yun, 2017-11-15 This book presents an interdisciplinary study that straddles four academic fields namely autobiography stylistics narratology and translation studies It shows that foregrounding is manifested in the language of autobiography alerting readers to an authorial tone with certain ideological affiliations In refuting the presumed conflation between the author narrator and character in autobiography the study emphasizes readers role in constructing an implied author The issues of implied translator assumed translation and rewriting are explored through a comparative analysis of the English and Chinese autobiographies by Singapore s founding father Lee Kuan Yew The analysis identifies different foregrounding practices and attributes these differences to an implied translator Further evidence derived from narrative communicative situations in the two autobiographies underscores divergent personae of the implied authors The study aims to establish a deeper understanding of how translation and rewriting have a far reaching impact on the self and world making functions of autobiography This book will be of special interest to scholars and students of linguistics literature translation and political science      History, Biography, and the Genre of Luke-Acts Andrew W. Pitts, 2019-07-15

Unlike contemporary literary linguistic configurations of genre current methodologies for the study of the Gospel genre are designed only to target genre similarities not genre differences This basic oversight results in the convoluted discussion we witness in Lukan genre study today Each recent treatment of the genre of Luke Acts represents a distinct effort to draw parallels between Luke Acts and a specific or multiple literary tradition s These studies all underestimate the role of literary divergence in genre analysis leveraging much if not all of their case on literary proximity This monograph will show how attention to literary divergence from a number of angles may bring resolution to the increasingly complex discussions of the genre s of Luke Acts      Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Situating Josephus' Life within Ancient Autobiography

Davina Grojnowski, 2023-06-15 Davina Grojnowski examines Life the autobiographical text written by ancient Jewish historian Flavius Josephus from a literary studies perspective and in relation to genre theory In order to generate a framework of literary practices Josephus Life and other texts within Josephus literary spheres all associated with autobiography are the focus of a detailed literary analysis which compares the texts in terms of established features such as structure topoi and subject This methodological examination enables a better understanding of the literary boundaries of autobiography in antiquity and illustrates Josephus thought process during the composition of Life Grojnowski also offers a comparative study of autobiographical practices in Greek and Roman literature demonstrating the value of passive education supplementing what had been taught actively and its impact on authors and audiences As a result she provides insight into the development of literary practices in reaction to various forms of education and subsequently reflects on the religious self views of authors and audiences Simultaneously Grojnowski reacts to current discourses on ancient literary genres and demonstrates that ancient autobiography existed as a teachable literary genre in classical literature
