Assessing Internet Development in Ethiopia UNESCO, UNESCO series of internet universality national assessments, 2025-06-04 Pharmaceutical Prices in the 21st Century Zaheer-Ud-Din Babar, 2014-12-05 This book provides an overview of the global pharmaceutical pricing policies Medicines use is increasing globally with the increase in resistant microbes emergence of new treatments and because of awareness among consumers This has resulted in increased drug expenditures globally As the pharmaceutical market is expanding a variety of pharmaceutical pricing strategies and policies have been employed by drug companies state organizations and pharmaceutical pricing authorities Ethiopian Yearbook of International Law 2017 Zeray Yihdego, Melaku Gebaye Desta, Martha Belete Hailu, Fikremarkos Merso, 2018-08-02 The second volume of EtYIL brings together a number of articles and other contributions that collectively take EtYIL's original mission of helping rebalance the narrative of international law another step forward Like the first volume this book presents scholarly contributions on cutting edge issues of international law that are of particular interest to Ethiopia and its sub region as well as Africa and developing countries more generally The major issues tackled include the interplay between national and international in the promotion and regulation of foreign direct investment in Ethiopia the regulatory framework for the exploitation and development of petroleum resources and relevant arbitral jurisprudence in the field the role of international law in ensuring the equitable sharing of transboundary resources such as the waters of the River Nile or in the delimitation of the continental shelf in the region the efforts to establish the Continental Free Trade Area in Africa and the lessons that can be learnt from prior experiments Africa's policy towards the International Criminal Court and the feasibility of alternative means of serving justice in the case of grave crimes and the UN's peace keeping operations in their North South context The issues addressed in the various contributions are mostly at the heart of live political diplomatic and judicial activities today and as such promise to shape the future of international law in the region and beyond This volume not only takes a significant step further towards EtYIL's mission but also enriches it with fresh insights from perspectives that are not common in international law scholarship to this day Global atlas of medical devices 2022 World Health Organization, 2022-11-24 Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2013-04-11 Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa First of all with about 75 million people it is the third most populous country in Africa Second it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and bordering Eritrea Sudan Kenya and Somalia with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa's leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia

Ethiopia Health Extension Program Huihui Wang,Roman Tesfaye,Gandham N.V. Ramana,Chala Tesfaye

Chekagn,2016-04-25 As a low income country Ethiopia has made impressive progress in improving health outcomes This report examines how Ethiopia s Health Extension Program HEP has contributed to the country s move toward Universal Health Coverage UHC and to shed light on how other countries may learn from Ethiopia s experiences of HEP when designing their own path to UHC HEP is one of the government s UHC strategies introduced in a context of limited resources and low coverage of essential health services The key aspects of the program include the capacity building and mobilization of more than 30 000 Health Extension Workers HEWs targeting more than 12 million model families and the mobilization of health development army to support the community based health system Using the HEP UHC conceptual model and data from Demographic and Health Surveys the study examines how the HEP has contributed to the country s move toward UHC During the period that the HEP has been implemented the country has experienced significant improvements in many dimensions in terms of socioeconomic psychological behavioral and biological dimensions of the beneficiaries and in terms of the coverage of health care services The study finds an accelerated rate of improvements among the rural less educated and the poor population which is leading to an overall reduction in equity gaps and improvements in the equity indicators including the concentration indices that suggest a more equitable distribution of resources and health outcomes The HEP in Ethiopia has demonstrated that an institutionalized community approach is effective in helping a country make progress toward UHC The elements of success in the HEP include the emphasis on community mobilization which identifies community priorities engages and empowers community members and supports their ability to solve local problems The other aspect of HEP is the emphasis on institutionalization of the activities which addresses the sustainability of community programs through high level of political commitment and effective coordination of national policies and leveraging of support from partners These findings may offer useful lessons for other low income countries facing similar challenges in developing and implementing a sustainable UHC strategy

The Khat Conundrum in Ethiopia Admassie, Yeraswork,2018-11-05 In recent years Ethiopia has experienced a rapid expansion of Khat production marketing and consumption that has put her in a double bind Her economy is becoming increasingly dependent on the production and export of Khat the same way a significant section of her population is getting progressively enticed into its unbridled consumption Khat abuse addiction has led to serious and manifold socioeconomic problems including those relating to health In spite of the fact that several millions of her citizens are preoccupied with Khat in the capacities of growers traders and chewers the country has no clear policy to guide its production distribution or use The study the findings of which are reported in this volume focused on the unravelling the intertwined socioeconomic impacts of Khat consumption and addiction and culminates with the identification of feasible national level strategies and policy responses to the Khat conundrum Basiswissen Medizinische Software

Compendium report on multisectoral actions for the prevention and control of noncommunicable diseases and mental health conditions World Health Organization,2024-05-03 Noncommunicable diseases NCDs and mental health conditions have a profound impact on societies communities and individuals around the world Their risk factors and determinants extend beyond the traditional health sector Addressing this complex challenge necessitates interventions that reach beyond the boundaries of public health and requires a coherent coordinated approach across all relevant governmental sectors Understanding documenting and sharing how governments implement multisectoral actions are essential to overcome these challenges and identify the capacity needs for coherent and sustainable responses to NCDs and mental health In 2019 WHO Member States requested the Director General to provide a consolidated report to the World Health Assembly analysing approaches to multisectoral action for NCD prevention and control including addressing social economic and environmental determinants of health This compendium report is the Secretariat s response to that request and features case studies from countries across WHO s six regions

Making Medicines in Africa Maureen Mackintosh,Geoffrey Banda,Watu Wamae,Paula Tibandebage,2016-02-03 This book is open access under a CC BY license The importance of the pharmaceutical industry in Sub Saharan Africa its claim to policy priority is rooted in the vast unmet health needs of the sub continent Making Medicines in Africa is a collective endeavour by a group of contributors with a strong African and more broadly Southern presence to find ways to link technological development investment and industrial growth in pharmaceuticals to improve access to essential good quality medicines as part of moving towards universal access to competent health care in Africa The authors aim to shift the emphasis in international debate and initiatives towards sustained Africa based and African led initiatives to tackle this huge challenge Without the technological industrial intellectual organisational and research related capabilities associated with competent pharmaceutical production and without policies that pull the industrial sectors towards serving local health needs the African sub continent cannot generate the resources to tackle its populations needs and demands Research for this book has been selected as one of the 20 best examples of the impact of UK research on development See <http://www.ukcds.org.uk> the global impact of uk research for further details

Evaluation of FAO's country programme in Ethiopia 2014-2019 Food and Agriculture Organization for the United Nations, 2020-10-06 Ethiopia is a low income country and agriculture is the mainstay of the economy accounting for 34 percent of GDP and 70 percent of total employment share Ethiopia remains one of the world's poorest countries despite the significant progress achieved in reducing poverty and hunger The Government of Ethiopia through its Growth and Transformation Plan GTP II has consistently prioritized the transformation of agriculture from low input subsistence oriented production systems to a fast growing intensive and commercially oriented sector to support the country's aspirations to become a middle income country by 2025 FAO's Country Programme Framework 2016-2020 was formulated based on the GTP II Over the evaluation period 2014-2019 FAO exceeded the resource mobilization targets Overall FAO's programme displays several imbalances and disconnects specifically between development activities and emergency response The evaluation calls for FAO to adopt a more cohesive programmatic approach and continue to consolidate its fragmented programme In the context of the Government's plans for agricultural transformation the evaluation also recommends that FAO support an economically sound value chain and market based approach to agricultural development while upholding normative values of inclusiveness and ecological sustainability
