Science John Michels, 2006 Salt Wars Michael F. Jacobson, 2021-09-14 How food industry lobbyists and a small group of scientists have successfully fought government efforts to reduce dangerous levels of sodium in our food A high sodium diet is deadly studies have linked it to high blood pressure strokes and heart attacks It s been estimated that excess sodium in the American diet causes as many as 100 000 deaths deaths and many billions of dollars in avoidable health care costs each year And yet salt is everywhere in our diets in packaged foods fast foods and especially meals at table service restaurants Why hasn t salt received the sort of public attention and regulatory action that sugar and fat have In Salt Wars Michael Jacobson explains how the American food industry and a small group of scientists have successfully fought government efforts to reduce dangerous levels of sodium in our food Despite an abundance of research going back more than half a century showing that high sodium diets lead to hypertension and other ills a few scientists argue the opposite that American consume a healthy amount of salt and that eating less would increase the risk of cardiovascular disease This man bites dog take on sodium confused consumers and was enthusiastically taken up by food industry lobbyists Jacobson a salt wars combatant for more than forty years explains what science actually says about salt intake and rebuts sodium skeptics He discusses what other countries are doing to cut dietary salt and describes some recent victories in the United States He advises readers how to reduce salt warning them against salt bombs Campbell s Chicken Noodle Soup for example packs an entire day s worth of sodium in one can and calls on them to suit up for the next battle in the salt wars

Simulation, Optimization, and Machine Learning for Finance, second edition Dessislava A. Pachamanova, Frank J. Fabozzi, Francesco A. Fabozzi, 2025-09-09 A comprehensive guide to simulation optimization and machine learning for finance covering theoretical foundations practical applications and data driven decision making Simulation Optimization and Machine Learning for Finance offers a comprehensive introduction to the quantitative tools essential for asset management and corporate finance This extensively revised and expanded edition builds upon the foundation of the textbook Simulation and Optimization in Finance integrating the latest advancements in quantitative tools Designed for undergraduates graduate students and professionals seeking to enhance their analytical expertise in finance the book bridges theory with practical application making complex financial concepts more accessible Beginning with a review of foundational finance principles the text progresses to advanced topics in simulation optimization and machine learning demonstrating their relevance in financial decision making Readers gain hands on experience developing financial risk models using these techniques fostering conceptual understanding and practical implementation Provides a structured introduction to probability inferential statistics and data science Explores cutting edge techniques in simulation modeling optimization and machine learning Demonstrates real world asset allocation strategies advanced portfolio risk measures and fixed income portfolio management using quantitative tools Covers factor models and stochastic processes in asset pricing Integrates capital budgeting and real options analysis emphasizing the role of uncertainty and quantitative modeling in long term financial decision making Is suitable for practitioners students and self learners An Introduction to Relational Database Theory Hugh Darwen, 2009 Weak States, Vulnerable Governments, and Regional Cooperation Atena Ștefania Feraru, 2021-10-31 War famine poverty organized crime environmental catastrophes refugees epidemics and pandemics modern slavery all these affect people in the non Western world to an increasingly disproportionate extent It is also where wealthy governments wield economic leverage and military force to renegotiate existing norms of international relations Under these circumstances it is difficult to overestimate the importance and urgency of comprehending the mechanisms and motivations driving these phenomena This book is the outcome of a decade long effort to advance both theoretical and empirical understanding of what motivates non Western governments decisions to cooperate not cooperate regionally It starts by acknowledging the Western centrism of prevailing international relations theories abandoning deeply entrenched assumptions regarding the nature and roles of states and redefining state weakness The inquiry continues by elaborating this new concept and applying it to Southeast Asian polities while positing that it creates governments vulnerable to internal and external threats in line with Joel S Migdal s well known findings on the topic A set of regional cooperation strategies is then inferred based on the survival needs of insecure governing elites and its empirical validity is tested against the experience of regional organizations in Africa Asia and the Americas The second part of the book provides an in depth examination of how Southeast Asian governments shared security needs and interests shaped the emergence of the identified regional cooperation pattern and its evolution over 50 years of cooperation within the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Overall this book is a call to international relations scholars to do our part in understanding non Western experiences and making a substantive contribution to addressing humanity s most intractable security threats

Measuring and Visualizing Learning in the Information-Rich Classroom Peter Reimann,Susan Bull,Michael Kickmeier-Rust,Ravi Vatrappu,Barbara Wasson,2015-11-19 Integrated information systems are increasingly used in schools and the advent of the technology rich classroom requires a new degree of ongoing classroom assessment Able to track web searches resources used task completion time and a variety of other classroom behaviors technology rich classrooms offer a wealth of potential information about teaching and learning This information can be used to track student progress in languages STEM and in 21st Century skills for instance However despite these changes there has been little change in the kind of data made available to teachers administrators students and parents Measuring and Visualizing Learning in the Information Rich Classroom collects research on the implementation of classroom assessment techniques in technology enhanced learning environments Building on research conducted by a multinational and multidisciplinary team of learning technology experts and specialists from around the globe this book addresses these discrepancies With contributions from major researchers in education technology testing and assessment and education psychology this book contributes to a holistic approach for building the information infrastructure of the 21st Century school

Animal Ethos Lesley A. Sharp,2018-11-06 What kinds of moral challenges arise from encounters between species in laboratory science Animal Ethos draws on ethnographic engagement with academic labs in which experimental research involving nonhuman species provokes difficult questions involving life and death scientific progress and other competing quandaries Whereas much has been written on core bioethical values that inform regulated behavior in labs Lesley A Sharp reveals the importance of attending to lab personnel s quotidian and unscripted responses to animals Animal Ethos exposes the rich yet poorly understood moral dimensions of daily lab life where serendipitous creative and unorthodox responses are evidence of concerted efforts by researchers animal technicians veterinarians and animal activists to transform animal laboratories into moral scientific worlds

Supervising and Writing a Good Undergraduate Dissertation Roisin Donnelly,John Dallat,Marian Fitzmaurice,2013-08-02 The considerable increase in numbers of students required to complete undergraduate dissertations as part of their curricula demonstrates a clear need for supporting academic staff from a wide variety of disciplines in this area There has been limited research published in the realm of undergraduate supervision Therefore supervision of academic dissertations in an undergraduate setting still remains to be addressed in a comprehensive manner The overarching theme of this reference work is the convergence of shared understandings strategies and reflections of undergraduate supervisors from around the world from many different subject disciplines There is also a need today for a mapping of the current landscape of undergraduate supervision This text is presented through a series of case studies from a wide variety of subject disciplines in the sciences and arts and is enlightened by research perspectives it comprises of a focus on development needs for supervisors of undergraduate students using updated information modeling exercises and interaction in the form of a series of individual activities along with a selection geared at programme team development in preparing supervisors for their role choice key readings and exploration of online resources This eBook is intended as a guide for academic staff across various disciplines who are involved with dissertation supervision It is valuable to those in the early stages of their career who may be supervising for the first time equally it provides support guidance and affirmation to those who have supervised over a number of years
