Winter In The Blood:

American Indian Literature Alan R. Velie, 1991 A collection of Native American literature features myths tales songs memoirs oratory poetry and fiction from the present as well as the past      Winter in the Blood James Welch, 1974

Speak Like Singing Kenneth Lincoln, 2007 Speak Like Singing honors talk song visions for all relatives and seeks to plumb if not to reconcile Native and American poetics tribal chorus and solitary vision      Native American Renaissance Kenneth Lincoln, 1985-12-04 Lincoln presents the writing of today's most gifted Native American authors against an ethnographic background which should enable a growing number of readers to share his enthusiasm Lincoln has lived with American Indians knows them and is respected by them all this enhances his book      Mediation in Contemporary Native American Fiction James Ruppert, 1995 Mediation is the term James Ruppert uses to describe his important new theory of reading Native American fiction Focusing on novels of six major contemporary American writers N Scott Momaday James Welch Leslie Silko Gerald Vizenor D Arcy McNickle and Louise Erdrich Ruppert analyzes the ways in which these writers draw upon their bicultural heritage guiding Native and non Native readers alike to a different and expanded understanding of each other's worlds While Native American writers may criticize white society revealing its past and present injustices their emphasis Ruppert argues is on healing survival and continuance Their fiction aims to produce cross cultural understanding rather than divisiveness To that end they articulate the perspectives and values of competing world views In particular they create characters who manifest what Ruppert calls multiple identities determined by both Native and non Native perceptions of the self These writers use a variety of narrative techniques deriving from different cultural traditions They might incorporate Native oral storytelling techniques adapting them to written form or they might reconstruct Native mythologies investing them with new meaning and relevance by applying them to contemporary situations As novel writers they also include features more characteristic of western European writing such as the omniscient narrator or the detective story plot      Other Destinies Louis Owens, 1994 This first book length critical analysis of the full range of novels written between 1854 and today by American Indian authors takes as its theme the search for self discovery and cultural recovery In his introduction Louis Owens places the novels in context by considering their relationships to traditional American Indian oral literature as well as their differences from mainstream Euroamerican literature In the following chapters he looks at the novels of John Rollin Ridge Mourning Dove John Joseph Mathews D Arcy McNickle N Scott Momaday James Welch Leslie Marmon Silko Louise Erdrich Michael Dorris and Gerald Vizenor These authors are mixedbloods who in their writing try to come to terms with the marginalization both of mixed bloods and fullbloods and of their cultures in American society Their novels are complex and sophisticated narratives of cultural survival and survival guides for fullbloods and mixedbloods in modern America Rejecting the stereotypes and clichés long attached to the word Indian they appropriate and adapt the colonizers language English to describe the Indian experience These novels embody the American Indian point of view the non Indian is required to assume the role of other In his analysis Owens draws on a broad range of literary theory myth and folklore structuralism modernism poststructuralism and particularly postmodernism At the same time he argues that although recent American Indian fiction incorporates a number of significant elements often identified with postmodern writing it contradicts the primary impulse of postmodernism That is instead of celebrating fragmentation ephemerality and chaos these authors insist upon a cultural center that is intact and recoverable upon immutable values and ecological truths Other Destinies provides a new critical approach to novels by American Indians It also offers a comprehensive introduction to the novels helping teachers bring this important fiction to the classroom Sherman Alexie Jeff Berglund, Jan

Roush, 2011-10-31 A collection of critical essays on the writing and films of American Indian author Sherman Alexie

Winged Words Laura Coltelli, 1990-01-01 Offers reflections by such Native American authors as N Scott Momaday Joy Harjo Linda Hogan and Leslie Marmon Silko The Earthwise Herbal, Volume II Matthew Wood, 2009-04-28 In this companion volume to The Earthwise Herbal A Complete Guide to Old World Medicinal Plants Matthew Wood an expert herbalist who has used medicinal herbs with tens of thousands of patients over a twenty five year career provides detailed descriptions of New World North American herbs and their uses Organized as a materia medica names and descriptions of herbs plants are listed alphabetically the book explains the use of the whole plant not just active ingredients in the treatment of the whole person and describes symptoms and conditions that the plants have been successful in treating from digestive ailments headaches and high blood pressure to asthma skin rashes and allergies to name a few Wood who has systematically studied ancient and traditional herbal literature takes a historical view and presents information in a thoughtful engaging nontechnical style In addition he provides remarkable case studies as well as insight into the logic of each plant its current and past usage pharmacological constituents and other elements that together produce a comprehensive portrait of each herb The American Journal of the Medical Sciences, 1850 The Native American Renaissance Alan R. Velie, A.

Robert Lee, 2013-11-11 The outpouring of Native American literature that followed the publication of N Scott Momaday's Pulitzer Prize winning House Made of Dawn in 1968 continues unabated Fiction and poetry autobiography and discursive writing from such writers as James Welch Gerald Vizenor and Leslie Marmon Silko constitute what critic Kenneth Lincoln in 1983 termed the Native American Renaissance This collection of essays takes the measure of that efflorescence The contributors scrutinize writers from Momaday to Sherman Alexie analyzing works by Native women First Nations Canadian writers postmodernists and such theorists as Robert Warrior Jace Weaver and Craig Womack Weaver's own examination of the development of Native literary criticism since 1968 focuses on Native American literary nationalism Alan R Velie turns to the achievement of Momaday to examine the ways Native novelists have influenced one another Post renaissance and postmodern writers are discussed in company with newer writers such as Gordon Henry Jr and D L Birchfield Critical essays discuss the poetry of Simon Ortiz Kimberly Blaeser Diane Glancy Luci Tapahonso and Ray A Young Bear as well as the life writings of Janet Campbell Hale Carter Revard and Jim Barnes An essay on Native drama examines the work of Hanay Geiogamah the Native American Theater Ensemble and Spider Woman Theatre In the volume s concluding essay Kenneth Lincoln reflects on the history of the Native American Renaissance up to and beyond his seminal work and discusses Native literature s legacy and future The essays collected here underscore the vitality of Native American literature and the need for debate on theory and ideology Lectures on the Morbid Anatomy, Nature, and Treatment, of Acute and Chronic Diseases, Delivered in the Theatre of Anatomy, Webb Street by the Late John Armstrong John Armstrong, 1837 The Encyclopedia of Contemporary American Fiction, 2 Volumes Patrick O'Donnell, Stephen J. K. Patell, Deborah Lindsay Williams, 2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public s attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States

The Winter's Tale William Shakespeare,1898      Captured in the Middle Sidner Larson,2011-10-01 Sidner Larson s Captured in the Middle embodies the very nature of Indian storytelling which is circular drawing upon the personal experiences of the narrator at every turn Larson teaches about contemporary American Indian literature by describing his own experiences as a child on the Fort Belknap Reservation in Montana and as a professor at the University of Oregon Larson argues that contemporary Native American literary criticism is stalled On one hand are the scholars who portray Indians stereotypically assuming that the experiences of all tribal groups have largely been the same On the other hand are those scholars who focus on the authenticity of the writer In contrast Larson considers the scholarship of Vine Deloria Jr who has a genuine understanding of the balance required in dealing with these issues Two writers who have successfully redescribed many of the contemporary romantic stereotypes are James Welch and Louise Erdrich both northern Plains Indians whose works are markedly different their writing highlighting the disparate ways tribal groups have responded to colonization Larson describes Indians today as postapocalyptic peoples who have already lived through the worst imaginable suffering By confronting the issues of fear suppression and lost identity through literature Indians may finally move forward to imagine and create for themselves a better future serving as models for the similarly fractured cultures found throughout the world today

London Journal of Medicine ,1850      Sleep Medicine Tang-Chuan Wang,2024-01-31 Sleep is undoubtedly one of the most intricate and abstruse issues in humans Disturbances of sleep are widespread and can have a great impact on involved individuals as well as an economic influence on society The COVID 19 pandemic forced predominant changes in recent years such as the development of wearable devices and the Internet of Things IoT in telehealth These are helpful for disease evaluation and treatment however they may not be adequate for dealing with the complexity of sleep medicine I believe that specialists in sleep medicine will accelerate increased public awareness of sleep disorders and facilitate the consolidation of sleep health into medical care in a responsible fashion including innovations in sleep medicine This book presents updated developments as well as future perspectives in sleep medicine It is a useful resource for persons involved in sleep medicine whether they are clinicians researchers or patients     The Sacred Hoop Paula Gunn Allen,2015-03-03 Almost thirty years after its initial publication Paula Gunn Allen s celebrated study of women s roles in Native American culture history and traditions continues to influence writers and scholars in Native American studies women s studies queer studies religion and spirituality and beyond This groundbreaking collection of seventeen essays investigates and celebrates Native American traditions with special focus on the position of the American Indian woman within those customs Divided into three sections the book discusses literature and authors history and historians sovereignty and revolution and social welfare and public policy especially as those subjects interact with the topic of Native American women Poet academic biographer critic activist and novelist Paula Gunn Allen was a leader and trailblazer in the field of women s and Native American spirituality Her work is both universal and deeply personal examining heritage anger racism homophobia Eurocentrism and the enduring spirit of the American Indian     Lectures on the Morbid Anatomy John Armstrong,1837
