Xavier Zubiri An Introduction:

Converts to the Real Edward Baring, 2019-05-01 Phenomenology has the strongest claim to the mantle of continental philosophy Edward Baring shows that credit for its prodigious growth goes to a surprising group of early enthusiasts Catholic intellectuals Tracing debates in Europe from existentialism to speculative realism he shows why European philosophy bears the mark of Catholicism

The Liberating Philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría Randall Carrera Umaña, Luis Arturo Martínez Vásquez, Luis Rubén Díaz Cepeda, 2024-01-16 The Liberating Philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría a Historical Reality Humanism and Praxis is the first systematic work on the philosophy of Ignacio Ellacuría to be published in English so far The Spaniard Salvadorian philosopher murdered in Salvador in 1989 by the military maintains that philosophy is a permanent task grounded in metaphysics as first philosophy as developed within a historical reality and a preferential option for the poor As explored by this collection edited by Luis Arturo Martínez Vásquez Randall Carrera Umaña and Luis Rubén Díaz Cepeda Ellacuría's theory is a critical and practical proposal immersed in the colonial history of Central America but its explanatory and normative power extends to oppressed people all around the world The contributors to this volume coming from Spain Mexico Argentina Salvador and Costa Rica analyze Ellacuría's philosophy of liberation in conjunction with radical realism and strength describing it as a philosophy created by people concerned with the problems and history of our land such as our colonial past systemic poverty and dependency and responding to these concerns can offer alternatives for a true liberation of all the dominated peoples of the world

Ontology of Consciousness Helmut Wautischer, 2008-04-11 Scholars from many different disciplines examine consciousness through the lens of intellectual approaches and cultures ranging from cosmology research and cell biophysics laboratories to pre Columbian Mesoamerica and Tibetan Tantric Buddhism in a volume that extends consciousness studies beyond the limits of current neuroscience research The hard problem of today's consciousness studies is subjective experience understanding why some brain processing is accompanied by an experienced inner life Recent scientific advances offer insights for understanding the physiological and chemical phenomenology of consciousness But by leaving aside the internal experiential nature of consciousness in favor of mapping neural activity such science leaves many questions unanswered In Ontology of Consciousness scholars from a range of disciplines from neurophysiology to parapsychology from mathematics to anthropology and indigenous non Western modes of thought go beyond these limits of current neuroscience research to explore insights offered by other intellectual approaches to consciousness These scholars focus their attention on such philosophical approaches to consciousness as Tibetan Tantric Buddhism North American Indian insights pre Columbian Mesoamerican civilization and the Byzantine Empire Some draw on artifacts and ethnographic data to make their point Others translate cultural concepts of consciousness into modern scientific language using models and mathematical mappings Many consider individual experiences of sentience and existence as seen in African communalism Hindi psychology

Dynamic Structure of Reality Nelson R. Orringer, 2010-10-01 Dynamic Structure of Reality makes available in English some of the most mature thought of the modern Spanish philosopher Xavier Zubiri He first presented this material as a set of 1968 public lectures in Madrid They were collected edited and published in 1989 as Estructura din mica de la realidad In 1962 Zubiri had published Sobre la esencia On essence a work of metaphysics that was praised by critics with one qualification its treatment of reality was too static The 1968 course was devised as a response to those critics Dynamic Structure of Reality retraces the road Hegel traveled concerning the creation of a self and how that self is realized by an interplay between spirit and nature Like his great predecessor Jos Ortega y Gasset and like his great Jewish contemporary Emmanuel Levinas Zubiri takes religion in all seriousness and locates its questions within the questions of modern philosophy In harmony with science he advances a new idea of becoming Reality not being becomes As reality s traits are revealed in different degrees reality resembles God the universal self giver Zubiri systematically touches on many disciplines to show the varieties of self giving throughout the universe of structural dynamism

Fear of Jung Theo A. Cope, 2018-04-17 The current neuroscientific research in the field of emotion studies highlights a paradigm of scientific research that must be categorized as functional science As functional science the neuroscientific theory of the neuron doctrine combined with a Jungian theory of the complex doctrine hold significant potential for a natural human science and a psychological study of affectivity Though researchers utilize psychological constructs similar to those proposed by Carl Jung there appears to be a fear of Jung that is a professional fear of invoking Jung s name or his psychological research One familiar with Jung s works notice similar terminology ideas and even conclusions The marginalization and neglect of Jung s psychological insights from a serious empirical scientific approach to psychology is due to many factors Jung did not reduce psychological experience to the body or brain a reductive science does not consider seriously the reality of the psyche This work is an initial contribution to a psychological and neurological study of personal emotional experience The Ground Beneath the Cross Kevin F. Burke, 2000-02-04 This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the thought of Ignacio Ellacur a the Jesuit philosopher theologian martyred for his work on behalf of Latin America s oppressed peoples While serving as president of the Jesuit run University of Central America in the midst of El Salvador s brutal civil war Ellacur a was also a prolific writer His advocacy on behalf of the country s persecuted majority provoked the enmity of the Salvadoran political establishment On November 16 1989 members of the Salvadoran military entered the university s campus and murdered Ellacur a along with five other Jesuit priests and two women Kevin F Burke SJ shows why Ellacur a is significant not only as a martyr but also as a theologian Ellacur a effectively integrated philosophy history anthropology and sociopolitical analysis into his theological reflections on salvation spirituality and the church to create an original contribution to liberation theology Ellacur a s writings directly address one of the most vexing issues in theology today can theologians account for the demands arising from both the particularity of their various social historical situations and also the universal claims of Christian revelation Burke explains how Ellacur a bases theology in a philosophy of historical reality the ground beneath the cross and interprets the suffering of the crucified peoples in the light of Jesus crucifixion Ellacur a thus inserts the theological realities of salvation and transcendence squarely within the course of human events and he connects these to the Christian mandate to take the crucified peoples down from their crosses Placing Ellacur a s thought in the context of historical trends within the Roman Catholic Church particularly Vatican II and the rise of liberation theology in Latin America Burke argues that Ellacur a makes a distinctive contribution to contemporary Catholic theology Education, "Artificial" Intelligence, and Cognition Kaustuv Roy, 2025-01-13 This book initiates fresh pedagogic thinking on the nature of intelligence and human potentiality in the midst of a rising panic over so called artificial intelligence At the rate of current advancement entire social and cultural landscapes including education and work are going to change in unprecedented ways in the near future In light of these developments the author sets out to critically assess the role of education in creating the capacity to distinguish between machinic intelligence and organic intelligence thus helping us move from passive acceptance to active becoming Love that Produces Hope Kevin F. Burke, Robert Anthony Lassalle-Klein, 2006 Father Ignacio Ellacuria SJ president of the University of Central America leading Latin American philosopher and liberation theologian was assassinated with five Jesuit companions and two women on November 16 1989 Love That Produces Hope bring together leading authorities on key aspects of Ellacuria s thought His biography and writings embody late twentieth century transformations and tensions that reshaped the life of the Catholic Church among the crucified peoples of Central America The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy Burt C. Wiercinski,2015 This book confronts the challenges that hermeneutics brings to ethics and education by thematizing the critical influence which ethics and contemporary educational theory and practice have on the self understanding of philosophical hermeneutics In the hermeneutic spirit of commitment to cultivating lifelong habits of critical thinking moral reflection and articulate expression the book presents many voices that illuminate a rich cultural diversity with the profound hope of nurturing the full flourishing of human beings The hermeneutics of education calls for diverse ways of thinking about education which deeply cares for the common good of individuals communities and nations This diversity promotes a genuine interest in different approaches to the event Ereignis of education Series International Studies in Hermeneutics and Phenomenology Vol 8 Subject Hermeneutics Ethics Education Liberating Spiritualities Christopher D.

Tirres,2024-12-03 A new perspective on spirituality and social change as seen through the work of six visionary thinkers In Liberating Spiritualities Christopher D Tirres offers an in depth exploration of spirituality as a catalyst for social transformation showcasing the profound insights of six distinguished twentieth century liberation thinkers from across the Americas This thought provoking work examines the contributions of Marxist philosopher Jos Carlos Mari tegui renowned educator and philosopher Paulo Freire innovative constructive theologian Virgilio Elizondo influential cultural and feminist theorist Gloria Anzald a activist mujerista theologian and social ethicist Ada Mar a Isasi D az and groundbreaking ecofeminist theologian Ivone Gebara Tirres examines the distinct yet interconnected philosophies of these figures showcasing their unified critique of colonial Christendom and their deep commitment to the marginalized He adeptly articulates how their diverse religious and philosophical backgrounds come together in a shared vision of spirituality as a fundamental aspect of human life and intelligence He further illuminates how these thinkers advocate for spirituality as a non reductive life affirming practice transcending traditional boundaries and offering an integrated approach to faith culture and social justice Their collective insights form a persuasive case for re envisioning spirituality as a crucial element in the quest for a more just and compassionate world Liberating Spiritualities is not only a tribute to these six influential figures but also a critical reflection on the relevance of their ideas in today s global context Tirres s transdisciplinary study bridges liberationist and pragmatic insights offering readers a fresh highly original interpretation of socially engaged spirituality making this book an essential resource for those seeking to understand the transformative power of spirituality in the pursuit of social justice and human dignity

The Metaphysics of Love Frederick D. Wilhelmsen, 2017-07-05 The Metaphysics of Love develops the existential metaphysics of St Thomas Aquinas applying it to explore the ontological structure of the human person Published first in 1962 this book demonstrates the fertility of Thomistic metaphysics and the enduring influence of Thomism on Western philosophy It uncovers the ecstatic structure of human existence in dialogue with philosophers ranging from Plato Aristotle and Aquinas to Kant Hegel Heidegger Tillich Zubiri and Ortega y Gasset as well as theologians and historians Romano Guardini Hilaire Belloc and Eric Voegelin Philosophical and theological examinations of love have in various ways raised the following question how can love of self eros be harmonized with love of others agape These types of love represent two drives Wilhelmsen argues that in the end must be seen as aspects of existence itself Moral and psychological problems of love turn out to be manifestations of metaphysical issues While different cultures have emphasized one of these drives or the other a healthy culture will not completely forget either Cultures differ in the way they emphasize one or the other or flee from one or the other These dimensions of human existence provide the framework for a person's love of self neighbour and God This volume is part of Transaction's Library of Conservative Thought series

Liberation through Reconciliation O. Ernesto Valiente, 2015-12-01 In the past one hundred years alone more than 200 million people have been killed as a consequence of systematic repression political revolutions or ethnic or religious war The legacy of such violence lingers long after the immediate conflict Drawing on the author's experiences of his native El Salvador Liberation through Reconciliation builds on Jon Sobrino's thought to construct a Christian spirituality and theology of reconciliation that overcomes conflict by attending to the demands of truth justice and forgiveness

Suárez on Aristotelian Causality, 2015-03-31 Suárez on Aristotelian Causality offers the first comprehensive account of Francisco Suárez's position with respect to the four Aristotelian causes in his Metaphysical Disputations Suárez deals with these causes in the greater part of Metaphysical Disputations 12-27 approximately a third of his famous work on metaphysics Nevertheless no previous attempt at analysis of causality as a part of his overall metaphysical position has been offered The material formal efficient and final cause as understood by Suárez each receives a chapter in this volume just as his general account of causality is considered This should be relevant to anyone interested in the role and pertinence of Aristotelian causality for Suárez's metaphysics Contributors in order of appearance are Jakob Leth Fink Erik kerlund Kara Richardson Stephan Schmid and Sydney Penner

Crime Prevention and Justice in 2030 Helmut Kury, Sławomir Redo, 2021-01-29 This book analyzes human rights and crime prevention challenges from the perspective of the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the 2030 United Nations Sustainable Development Agenda in particular its goal 16 on promoting peaceful inclusive and just societies the creation and development of which depend on the interplay between various secular and non secular factors The book reflects on the implementation of these two legal instruments from a back to the future standpoint that is drawing on the wisdom of contributors to the 2030 Agenda

from the past and present in order to offer a constructive inter disciplinary and intergenerational approach The book s intended readership includes academics and educationists criminal justice practitioners and experts diplomats spiritual leaders and non governmental actors its goal is to encourage them to pursue a socially and human rights oriented drive for larger freedom which is currently jeopardized by adverse political currents Phenomenology Leonard Lawlor,2014-09-03 After Husserl the study of phenomenology took off in different directions The ambiguity inherent in phenomenology between conscious experience and structural conditions lent itself to a range of interpretations Many existentialists developed phenomenology as conscious experience to analyse ethics and religion Other phenomenologists developed notions of structural conditions to explore questions of science mathematics and conceptualization Phenomenology Responses and Developments covers all the major innovators in phenomenology notably Sartre Merleau Ponty and the later Heidegger and the major schools and issues The volume also shows how phenomenological thinking encounters a limit a limit most apparent in the aesthetical and hermeneutical development of phenomenology The volume closes with an examination of the furthering of the division between analytic and continental philosophy The History of Continental Philosophy Alan D. Schrift,2013-04-12 From Kant to Kierkegaard from Hegel to Heidegger continental philosophers have indelibly shaped the trajectory of Western thought since the eighteenth century Although much has been written about these monumental thinkers students and scholars lack a definitive guide to the entire scope of the continental tradition The most comprehensive reference work to date this eight volume History of Continental Philosophy will both encapsulate the subject and reorient our understanding of it Beginning with an overview of Kant s philosophy and its initial reception the History traces the evolution of continental philosophy through major figures as well as movements such as existentialism phenomenology hermeneutics and poststructuralism The final volume outlines the current state of the field bringing the work of both historical and modern thinkers to bear on such contemporary topics as feminism globalization and the environment Throughout the volumes examine important philosophical figures and developments in their historical political and cultural contexts The first reference of its kind A History of Continental Philosophy has been written and edited by internationally recognized experts with a commitment to explaining complex thinkers texts and movements in rigorous yet jargon free essays suitable for both undergraduates and seasoned specialists These volumes also elucidate ongoing debates about the nature of continental and analytic philosophy surveying the distinctive sometimes overlapping characteristics and approaches of each tradition Featuring helpful overviews of major topics and plotting road maps to their underlying contexts A History of Continental Philosophy is destined to be the resource of first and last resort for students and scholars alike María Zambrano's Ontology of Exile Karolina Enquist Källgren,2019-03-26 This book analyzes the exile ontology of Spanish philosopher Mar a Zambrano 1904 1991 Karolina Enquist K llgren connects Zambrano s lived exile and political engagement with the Spanish Civil War to her poetic reason and argues that Zambrano developed a theory of expressive subjectivity that combined embodiment with the expressive creativity of the human mind The analysis of recurring literary figures and concepts such as new materialism the confession image the ruin the heart and awakening show how a comprehensive argument runs as a thread through her works Further this book situates Zambrano s thought in a larger European philosophical context by showing how Zambrano s poetic reason was directly related to her unconventional exile readings of Martin Heidegger Aristotle Immanuel Kant and Xavier Zubiri among others
