Goerzen, 2005-08-02 Based on data from Japan the book examines the combined effect of product geographic and network diversity on multinational enterprise performance A new measure for geographic scope is developed one that considers the related elements of international asset dispersion and country environment diversity The book also introduces a new concept of network diversity and examines how it is strategically linked to performance Perhaps most importantly the book is able to empirically and theoretically demonstrate that a larger more diverse network of alliances is not necessarily a good idea These are important findings with far reaching implications for practice and theory Canadian Books in Print.
