Steam Treating Soils Dick Karsky, 1996 The Golden Dream Ronald Stagg, 2010-04-05 In the early twentieth century a movement flourished in the Midwestern states bordering the Great Lakes to champion the St Lawrence route as the answer to easily transporting goods in and out of the centre of the continent Internal rivalries in the United States and Canada held back the project for fifty years until Canada suddenly decided to build a seaway alone pressuring the American Congress to co operate The building of the Seaway and its completion in 1959 involved engineering on an unprecedented scale and significant human dislocation During construction communities along the Great Lakes planned for increased prosperity but changes in transportation aging infrastructure and environmental problems have mean that the Golden Dream has not been fully realized even today This popular history chronicles the rise of one of the great engineering projects in Canadian history and its controversial impact on the people living along the St Lawrence River Bringing Art to Life Andrew

Bowker,2015-12-07 In this two book bundle Alan Bowker sheds new light on two subjects with a surprising connection the great Canadian writer Stephen Leacock and the rise of Canada on the world stage which Leacock profiled with keen wit and observational skill With Bowker as your guide explore what it was really like to live through the great upheaval that pushed Canada to come into its own on the world stage A Time Such as There Never Was Before Ottawa Book Award 2015

Shortlisted The years after World War I were among the most tumultuous in Canadian history a period of unrelenting change drama and conflict They were in the words of Stephen Leacock a time such as there never was before The war had been a great crusade and its end was supposed to bring a world made new But the conflict had cost sixty thousand Canadian lives with many more wounded and had stirred up divisions in the young diverse country With Canada struggling to define itself labour farmers business the church social reformers and minorities all held extravagant hopes irrational fears and contradictory demands Whose hopes would be realized and whose dreams would end in disillusionment Which changes would prove permanent and which would be transitory A Time Such As There Never Was Before describes how this exciting period laid the foundation of the Canada we know today On the Front Line of Life In the last decade of his life Stephen Leacock turned to writing informal essays that blended humour with a conversational style and ripened wisdom to address issues he cared about most education literature economics Canada and its place in the world and to confront the joys and sorrows of his own life With an introduction that sets them in the context of his life thoughts and times these essays reveal a passionate intelligent personal Leacock against a backdrop of Depression and war finding hope and conveying the timeless message that only the human spirit can bring social justice peace and progress Smart Globalization Andrew Smith, Dimitry Anastakis, 2014-02-24 Today's globalization debates pit neoliberals who favour even deeper integration into the global economy against neo mercantilists who call for a relatively selective approach to globalization and the return to more interventionist industrial policies Both sides claim to have the facts on their side Inspired by the work of economists Ha Joon Chang and Dani Rodrik editors Andrew Smith and Dimitry Anastakis bring together essays from both historians and economists in this collection to test claims that wealth comes from either protectionism or free trade With empirical research that spans more than a century of Canadian history Smart Globalization demonstrates that Canada's success stemmed neither from complete openness to globalization or policies of isolation and self sufficiency Thirst! James M. Clemens, 2022-03-21 Prohibition was the law of the land in both Ontario and the United States during the 1920s and 1930s Yet because of the one key difference between Ontario's Temperance Act and America's Eighteenth Amendment smugglers could make small fortunes transporting Ontario booze through the Great Lakes to harbours in America Thirst A Story of Prohibition in Ontario relates the account of how one such smuggling ship the doomed City of Dresden ended capsized on a sand bar off the north shore of Lake Erie just west of Port Rowan Ontario in late November 1922 The author details how the local inhabitants handled the liquid cargo and how the prohibition authorities dealt with the local farmers The use of reminiscences historical excerpts from newspapers and a one hundred page court record of the trials of the farmers bring real life characters to the page giving readers a fascinating glimpse into the lives of farmers bootleggers and government enforcers at the heart of his story Thirst also uses the story of the wreck of the Dresden as a springboard to explore some of the main themes related to prohibition the solidarity of a community when threatened by outside forces reactions to unpopular laws and those who enforce those laws how greed can force people to take unnecessary risks the rivalry between city and village and the beginning of disillusionment with prohibition itself Readers having an interest in early twentieth century Ontario history especially prohibition and those familiar with Long Point and Lake Erie will find Thirst A Story of Prohibition in Ontario an enjoyable and informative study Rose Henderson Peter Campbell, 2010-11-02 The political movements and social causes of the turbulent 1920s and 30s are brought to life in this study of the work and times of feminist socialist and peace activist Rose Henderson 1871-1937 Her commitment to social justice led to frequent monitoring and repression by the authorities but her contributions to activist thought continue to pose challenges for interpretations of the history of Canada leftism labour and women In the first biography of Henderson Peter Campbell provides a broader vision and deeper analysis of the period drawing together the history of labour and of women's movements in French and English Canada as well as the rise of the Cooperative Commonwealth Federation and its relationship with the Communist Party Through analysis of Henderson's ground breaking ideology Campbell shows that in the interwar years she and her comrades developed a distinctive feminism that differs from that of the first and second waves of feminist thought A fresh

Changing Places Kerry M. Abel, 2006-05-05 Changing Places examines the process by which a relatively coherent community emerged in the sub region of Northern Ontario bounded by Timmins Iroquois Falls and Matheson Using archival oral and newspaper sources Kerry Abel offers the only comprehensive history of the area She rejects traditional sociological and anthropological models about community and identity in favour of a more nuanced interpretation that takes historical process into account Nations are Built of Babies Cynthia R. Comacchio, 1993-12-09 Nations Are Built of Babies documents a national campaign by Ontario physicians to reduce infant and maternal mortality in the early twentieth century Armed with a secure faith in science and aided by the increasingly important position of experts in Canadian society the medical profession tackled the national tragedy of infant and maternal mortality by advocating scientific motherhood Canadian mothers were believed to be handicapped by an ignorance that could be remedied only through expert tutoring and supervision of child rearing duties Working within a Marxist feminist framework Cynthia Comacchio demonstrates that the campaign was part of a conscious plan to modernize Canadian families to meet the ideological imperatives of industrial capitalism Doctors reasoned that if infants could be saved and their physical mental and moral health regulated the benefits in socio economic terms would more than offset any individual or state investment United Empire ,1940 In Search
