Unfree Labour? Aziz Choudry, Adrian A. Smith, 2016-08-15 Over the past decade Canada has experienced considerable growth in labour migration Moreover temporary labour migration has replaced permanent immigration as the primary means by which people enter Canada Utilizing the rhetoric of maintaining competitiveness Canadian employers and the state have ushered in an era of neoliberal migration alongside an agenda of austerity flowing from capitalist crisis Labour markets have been restructured to render labour more flexible and precarious and in Canada as in other high income capitalist labour markets employers are relying on migrant and immigrant workers as unfree labour This book explores labour migration to Canada and how public policies of temporary and guest worker programs function in the global context of work and capitalist restructuring Contributors are directly engaged with the issues emerging from the influx of temporary foreign workers and Canada's creeping economic apartheid the ongoing racialization of economic inequality for many workers of colour The collection also examines how migrant and immigrant workers have organized for justice and dignity in Canada As opposed to a good deal of current writing that often ignores the working conditions and struggles of racialized migrant and immigrant workers the authors contend that migrant workers labour organizations and migrant worker allies have engaged in a wide range of organizing initiatives with significant political and economic impacts These have included both court challenges to secure legal rights to unionization and grassroots alternatives to traditional forms of unionization through workers centres Contributors include Aziz Choudry Adrian A Smith Sedef Arat Ko Abigail B Bakan Joey Calugay Jennifer Jihye Chun Jill Hanley Jah Hon Koo Mostafa Henaway Deena Ladd Marco Luciano Lo c Malhaire Adriana Paz Ramirez Geraldina Polanco Chris Ramsaroop Eric Shragge Sonia Singh Christopher C Sorio and Mark Thomas

The Synchronization of National Policies Pertti Alasuutari, 2015-09-25 The Synchronization of National Policies shows how it is possible that there is remarkable uniformity in the policies that the nation states adopt although there is no world government Mainstream research attributes such global governance to the influence of leading countries to functional requirements created by capitalism and technological development or to international organizations This book argues that to understand how national policies are synchronized we need to realize that the global population forms a single global tribe of moderns divided into some 200 clans called nations

While previous research on the world culture of moderns has focused on the diffusion of ideas this book concentrates on the active role of local actors who introduce global models and domesticate them to nation states In national policymaking actors justify new policies by international comparisons by the successes and failures of models adopted in other countries and by building and appealing to the authority of international organizations Consequently national policies are synchronized with each other Yet because of the way such domestication of global trends takes place citizens retain and reproduce the understanding that they follow a sovereign national trajectory This book will be of interest to students and scholars of sociology world culture theory globalization international relations and political science

Routledge Handbook of Sport for Development and Peace Holly Collison, Simon C. Darnell, Richard Giulianotti, P. David Howe, 2018-10-09 Sport and physical activity are now regularly used to promote social and economic development peacebuilding and conflict resolution on an international scale The emergence of the Sport for Development and Peace SDP sector comprised of governments NGOs sport organizations and others reveals a high level of institutionalization of this activity while SDP now constitutes an important element of the scholarly analysis of sport This volume analyses and critically discusses the central elements of and research issues within the field of SDP and also provides a series of case studies substantive and geographic of key research It is the most holistic and far reaching text published on this topic to date Featuring multidisciplinary perspectives from world leading researchers and practitioners from around the world the book covers a wide range of topics including SDP structures policies and funding streams how SDP relates to human rights social exclusion and corporate social responsibility SDP and gender SDP and disability SDP and health SDP and homelessness and SDP and the environment The Handbook of Sport for Development and Peace is a vital resource for researchers students and educators in the fields of sports studies physical education sport for development and peace sport based youth development sport and politics sociology of sport and sport policy

Food Futures in Education and Society Gurbinder Singh Lalli, Angela Turner, Marion Rutland, 2023-07-11 This book brings together a unique collection of chapters to facilitate a broad discussion on food education that will stimulate readers to think about key policies recent research curriculum positions and how to engage with key stakeholders about the future of food Food education has gained much attention because the challenges that influence food availability and eating in schools also extend beyond the school gate Accordingly this book establishes evidence based arguments that recognise the many facets of food education and reveal how learning through a future s lens and joined up thinking is critical for shaping intergenerational fairness concerning food futures in education and society This book is distinctive through its multidisciplinary collection of chapters on food education with a particular focus on the Global North with case studies from England Australia the Republic of Ireland the United States of America Canada and Germany With a focus on three key themes and a rigorous food futures framework the book is structured into three sections i food education pedagogy and curriculum ii knowledge and skill diversity associated with food and health learning and iii food education inclusivity culture and agency Overall this volume extends and challenges current research and theory in the area of food education and food pedagogy and offers insight and tangible benefits for the future development of food education policies and curricula This book will be of great interest to students scholars policymakers and education leaders working on food education and pedagogy food policy health and diet and the sociology of food

The Routledge International Handbook of Organizational Autoethnography Andrew Herrmann, 2020-07-16 For nearly 40 years researchers have been using narratives and stories to understand larger cultural issues through the lenses of their personal experiences There is an increasing recognition that autoethnographic approaches to work and organizations add to our knowledge of both personal identity and organizational scholarship By using personal narrative and autoethnographic approaches this research focuses on the working lives of individual people within the organizations for which they work This international handbook includes chapters that provide multiple overarching perspectives to organizational autoethnography including views from fields such as critical postcolonial and queer studies It also tackles specific organizational processes including organizational exits grief fandom and workplace bullying as well as highlighting the ethical implications of writing organizational research from a personal narrative approach Contributors also provide autoethnographies about the military health care and academia in addition to approaches from various subdisciplines such as marketing economics and documentary film work Contributions from the US the UK Europe and the Global South span disciplines such as organizational studies and ethnography communication studies business studies and theatre and performance to provide a comprehensive map of this wide reaching area of qualitative research This handbook will therefore be of interest to both graduate and postgraduate students as well as practicing researchers Winner of the 2021 National Communication Association Ethnography Division Best Book Award Winner of the 2021 Distinguished Book on Business Communication Award Association for Business Communication Insights from Practices in Community-Based Research Shannon T. Bischoff, Carmen Jany, 2018-03-19 Free Access in January 2019 There has been an increasing interest in the emerging subfield within linguistics and anthropology often referred to as community based research Himmelmann 1998 Rice 2010 Crippen and Robinson 2013 among others This volume brings together perspectives from academics community members and those that find themselves in both academia and the community The volume begins with a working definition of the notions of community based research as a practice and illustrates how such notions shifted without abandoning the outlined tenets within the working definition as the chapters developed to include notions of community based research as a tool and ideology as well as an orientation Each of the 17 chapters represents a case study with the first five including discussions of broader issues and theoretical perspectives while exploring community based research as an emerging subfield within linguistics The case studies comprise work from the Americas Australia India Europe and Africa The goal of the volume is to build on the emerging literature and practices in the field to arrive at a better understanding of how community based research is theorized and practiced in a variety of

environments communities and cultures      A Hospitable World? David Jordhus-Lier, Anders Underthun, 2014-10-30 The hospitality and tourism sector is a large and rapidly expanding industry worldwide and can rightfully be described as a vehicle of globalisation Hotels are among the cornerstones of the industry often drawing workers from the most vulnerable segments of multicultural labour markets accommodating and entertaining tourists and business travelers from around the world This book explores the organisation of work worker identities and worker strategies in hotel workplaces as they are located in heterogeneous labour markets being changed by processes of globalisation It uses an explicitly geographical approach to understand how different groups of workers experience and respond to challenges in the hospitality industry and is based on recent theoretical debates and empirical research on hotel workplaces in cities as different as Oslo Goa London Las Vegas and Toronto A multi scalar analysis is taken where concrete worker bodies and their physical emotional and embodied labour are seen in relation to among other aspects the regulation of national and regional labour markets city governments with global city ambitions and global corporate actors and labour migration patterns The book sheds light on the hotel workplace as a hierarchical and fragmented social space as well as addressing questions on worker mobility the fragmentation of work scales of organisation and how workers can help shape the regulation of their industry This timely volume brings together contributions from international academics and is valuable reading for all those interested in hospitality tourism human geography and globalisation      Marriage and the Family Julie Xuemei Hu, Shondrah Tarrezz Nash, 2019-04-23 Marriage and the Family Mirror of a Diverse Global Society is a comprehensive text about marriage and the family in sociology family science and diversity studies The book is divided into four parts studying marriage patterns and understanding family diversity developing and maintaining intimate relationships tackling family issues and managing household crises and appreciating contemporary living arrangements in a diverse American society and across the global community Marriage and the Family is unique in its focus on diversity as well as its global perspective Diversity Overview boxes feature vignettes of family diversity in America Global Overview boxes invite students to experience family life in different areas of the world Indeed families become a mirror that helps students see a diversifying American society and a globalizing world
