The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume IV Jehu J. Hanciles, 2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled

You the Leader Phil Pringle, 2010-11-12 Do you envision future possibilities that others don't Are you a can do person Do creative solutions to the challenges of life stir in your heart and soul Does the way you live your life naturally influence others Or do you feel as if these leadership characteristics have been stymied and thwarted in your life Worse have you buried them deep inside because you have bought the lie that you are just a follower not a leader The truth is that this world is in desperate need of good godly leaders in other words the human race needs you and your abilities Leadership is the great mysterious wonderful gift God is supplying to the army of men and women He is raising up and equipping to guide our world to a brighter future in Him Drawing from Scripture personal experience and the writings of both contemporary and historical leaders Pastor Phil Pringle offers practical insights into effective leadership that can be applied in every arena of life not just inside church walls As you examine the attributes of dynamic leaders and the kingdom principles that govern their lives you will discover how to realize your personal leadership potential Explore your God given leadership possibilities and find out how to implement the vision He has instilled in you And enjoy the process of becoming the leader God has called you to be
