COVID-19 and Gender-Based Violence in Zimbabwe Isaiah Munyiswa, Pauline Mateveke, Ezra Chitando, 2024-12-02

This book investigates the experiences of women in Zimbabwe facing COVID 19 and gender based violence arguing that the insights from this extremely tough period could be used as a springboard for positive legal cultural and policy changes In 2020 COVID 19 caught the world by surprise and often the socio cultural factors impacting the treatment and care of those infected by the virus were not fully considered In Zimbabwe the socially constructed role of women as caregivers left them particularly vulnerable Not only this but COVID 19 lockdowns coincided with particularly high levels of sexual exploitation and gender based violence with women again comprising the majority of victims Authors in this book analyse the pandemic experiences of women in Zimbabwe both in the workplace or in the home with the hope of fostering positive cultural change and sensitising policy makers to the need for legislation that protects women in moments of disasters The important lessons and discussion points raised by this book will be important to policymakers both within Zimbabwe and beyond and to researchers working on gender public health philosophy sociology and politics in Africa

Violence, Peace and Everyday Modes of Justice and Healing in Post-Colonial Africa Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, Thomas Duri, Peter Fideli, 2019-02-06 Violence in its various proportions genres and manifestations has had an enduring historical legacy the world over However works speaking to approaches aimed at mitigating violence characteristic of Africa are very limited As some scholars have noted Africans have experienced cycles of violence since the pre colonial epoch such that overt violence has become banalised on the African continent This has had the effect of generating complex results legacies and perennial emotional wounds that call for healing reconciliation justice and positive peace Yet in the absence of systematic and critical approaches to the study of violence on the continent discourses on violence would hardly challenge the global matrices of violence that threaten peace and development in Africa This volume is a contribution in the direction of such urgently needed systematic and critical approaches It interrogates from different angles and with inspiration from a multidisciplinary perspective the contentious production and resilience of violence in Africa It calls for a paradigm shift an alternative approach that forges and merges African customary dispute resolution and Western systems of dispute resolution towards a framework of positive peace holistic restoration sustainable development and equity The book is a welcome contribution to students and practitioners in security studies African studies development studies global studies policy studies and political science      Marriage in Contemporary Zimbabwe Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2024-12-19 Marriage has always occupied a profound cultural and social significance in Zimbabwean society but the forms and meanings attached to marriage have changed in recent decades Marriage in Contemporary Zimbabwe provides a social analysis of the institution highlighting how it is changing and evolving in the face of societal factors such as globalisation technology increased migration religious plurality and shifting cultural systems This book traces the evolution of Zimbabwean marriages from traditional pre colonial customs into the diverse modern practices seen today Drawing on rich qualitative insights from across urban rural and diaspora communities it explores the shift in traditional ascribed gender roles and the complex negotiations between persisting tradition and emerging modern influences These influences include women s empowerment partner choice and divorce It explores changes in childrearing and the dissolution of the extended family networks that once governed marriages and provided mutual support The book also explores broader societal transformations such as urban migration and westernisation and the impact of socioeconomic challenges such as HIV AIDS COVID 19 poverty and economic hardship Students and scholars of Zimbabwean history culture gender and the family will find this book essential for understanding the continuities and evolutions of the marriage institution in Zimbabwe      Religion, Law and Security in Africa M Christian Green, T Jeremy Gunn, Mark Hill, 2018-05-16 Security is a key topic of our time But how do we understand it Do law and religion take different views of it In this fifth volume in the Law and Religion in Africa series radicalisation terrorism blasphemy hate speech religious freedom and just war theories rub shoulders with issues of witchcraft female genital mutilation circumcision child marriage displaced communities and additional issues besides This unique collection of topics is both challenging and inspiring providing illumination in troubled times and forming a sound foundation for future scholarship      Handbook of Research on Sustainable Development and Governance Strategies for Economic Growth in Africa Teshager Alemu, Kassa, Abebe Alebachew, Mulunesh, 2018-02-09 Despite increasing reports across the globe on renewable development and maintenance little is known regarding what strategies are required for improved economic growth and prosperity in Africa Improving an understanding of the methods for promoting growth through reusable resource development and administration is a vital topic of research to consider in assisting the continent s development The Handbook of Research on Sustainable Development and Governance Strategies for Economic Growth in Africa provides emerging research on the strategies required to promote growth in Africa as well as the implications and issues of the expansion of prosperity While highlighting sustainable education pastoral development pathways and the public sector role readers will learn about the history of sustainable development and governmental approaches to improving Africa s economy This publication is a vital resource for policy makers research institutions academics researchers and advanced level students seeking current research on the theories and applications of development in societal and legal institutions

Informal and Formal Social Protection Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa Melese Getu, Stephen Devereux, 2013 Addressing several themes in the social protection literature this book makes an original and important contribution to the rapidly growing body of literature on social protection in sub Saharan Africa Some of the themes are relatively neglected or under researched while some others are not usually conceptualised as social protection These themes are organized around the major issues informal social protection urban social protection social protection and physical security social protection in unstable contexts climate change pastoralism and gender Back cover

The Cultural and Artistic Legacy of Oliver Mtukudzi Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Bridget Chinouriri, Pauline Mateveke, Ezra Chitando, 2022-09-10 This book delves into a critical and comprehensive analysis of Mtukudzi s legacy as an outstanding musician who anchored his music on cultural identity specifically through the artistic manipulation of language As a cultural worker his remit extended beyond performance This raised his stature to the levels of such African music icons as Fela Kuti of Nigeria Salif Keita of Mali and Miriam Makeba Hugh Masekela of South Africa all towering giants in African musical performance This volume examines how Mtukudzi artistically manipulated language to convey a timeless message of cultural identity fighting for the respect of rights for women children and all It unpacks how Mtukudzi subtly uses language to put across political views that speak truth to power harnessing Zimbabwean language to articulate and promote the nation s cultural heritage and to advocate for societal development and the promotion of rights of vulnerable groups The chapters in this volume are a mix of interdisciplinary Zimbabwean scholars of linguistics performance studies religion history communication and media studies unravelling Mtukudzi as a fighter for human rights and justice who subtly critiqued political systems and practices It concludes that Mtukudzi strove to be a cultural worker who used the power of language through music to contribute towards the rehabilitation of a battered African identity

Religion, Gender and Masculinities in Africa. Essays in Honour of Ezra Chitando Manyonganise, Molly, Gunda, Masiwa R., Naicker, Linda, Genders, Sexualities, and Complexities in Africa Gabi Mkhize, Stanley Osezua Ehiane, Lupenga Mphande, 2025-02-20 This book s significance is in its African centred border crossing overt and covert forces working against genders and sexualities reinforcing endemic gender and sexual based complexities Pragmatically sexualities and genders in Africa remain contested and an area of power and control contestations in both the private and public spheres Gender based violence and femicide GBVF in particular continue to escalate particularly during the COVID 19 pandemic Such GBVF at most affects young women migrants LGBTIQIA people sex workers informal street traders and widows amongst others This is happening at a time when the feminist and women s movements in Africa are experiencing fragmentations and factions that pull and push organising to the margins of prejudice internally thereby exacerbating an act of subordinated inclusion In this context the term subordinated inclusion connotes another form of complexity where the subaltern has been brought inside a room as an act of inclusion yet systemically subordinated through structure and obedience thereby compromising agency This complexity occurs in private and public domains where a continuum of contestations between structure and agency is sustained Consequently power struggles emerge and proliferate unabated into gendered and sexualised complexities including relations of state coloniality apartheid prejudice marginalization capitalism and democracy This book thus strives to surface these contestations and complexities and how they continue to thrive in an era that seeks another way possible a way out a jump off a manner of dealing and an exit from the status quo

Beyond the Enclave Godfrey Kanyenze, Timothy Kondo, 2011-07-26 Beyond the Enclave sets out to unravel the contradiction of a country Zimbabwe where a rich diverse resource base co exists with endemic poverty One reason lies in the colonial economy which was predicated on an ideology of white supremacy creating an enclave formal economy employing one fifth of the labour force Yet over three decades after independence the non formal segment has become even more entrenched This book assesses Zimbabwes economy through three main phases 1980 90 when a strong social policy framework proved difficult to sustain due to erratic growth and 1991 96 when structural adjustment demanded a market driven approach to development The third phase is characterized by crisis management leading to policy inconsistencies and reversals Not surprisingly such incoherence saw the economy descend into hyperinflation and paralysis in 2007 2008 leading to the signing of the Global Political Agreement in September 2008 In the absence of formal dollarization economic recovery after the adoption of the multi currency regime has remained fragile leaving an estimated 70 per cent of the population outside the banking system This has further entrenched uneven enclave growth as the economy remains locked in a low income poverty trap There is a need to facilitate transition towards formality to promote decent jobs Furthermore a strategic developmental role for the state in the economy is now widely recognized as vital for development Beyond the Enclave argues for a new approach to development in Zimbabwe based on pro poor and inclusive strategies which will contribute to the well being of all of its citizens and wise stewardship of its resources It offers suggestions on policy formulation implementation monitoring and evaluation in all sectors designed to promote inclusive growth and humane development

The Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa: a commentary Celestine Nyamu Musembi, Trésor Muhindo Makunya, 2023-08-28 The first in a series of PULP commentaries on African human rights law under the series title PULP Commentaries on African human rights law Since its adoption on 11 July 2003 the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa the Maputo Protocol has become a landmark on the African human rights landscape It has steadily gained prominence as a trail blazing instrument responsive to the diverse realities of women on the African continent This comprehensive Commentary on the Maputo Protocol the first of its kind provides systematic analysis of each article of the Protocol delving into the drafting history and elaborating on relevant key concepts and normative standards This Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in the Maputo Protocol such as researchers teachers students practitioners policymakers and activists

Domestic Violence Act Chapter 5 16: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Domestic Violence Act Chapter 5 16 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Pape, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
