scholars and policymakers in writing assessment composition and English education Who's the New Kid in Chemistry?
 John D. Butler, 2013-12-12 Who's the New Kid in Chemistry offers an unprecedented look at student engagement and teacher best practices through the eyes of an educational researcher enrolled as a public high school student. Over the course of seventy-nine consecutive days, John D. Butler participates in and observes Rhode Island 2013 Teacher of the Year Jessica M. Waters's high school chemistry class, documenting his experiences as they unfold. Who's the New Kid in Chemistry is a compelling example of what can be accomplished when an educational researcher and teacher collaborate in the classroom. This work includes a discussion on flexible homework assignments, data-driven instruction, and thirty teacher best practices. This book is an invaluable resource for teachers across all content areas, masters and doctoral research method classes, and future Teachers of the Year. AI Based Solutions for Inclusive Quality Education K.M. Soni, Nitasha Hasteer, Aditi Bhardwaj, Rahul Sindhwani, J. Paulo Davim, 2025-09-30 AI Based Solutions for Inclusive Quality Education helps readers discover practical AI tools for diverse learning styles and abilities, fostering inclusivity in education and maximizing the individual potential of students and educators. It provides cutting-edge solutions designed to remove barriers due to accessibility and create an equitable classroom. Through practical applications and case studies, the book explores the power of AI in creating personalized learning pathways and methods of engagement in the classroom while emphasizing that the human touch, with empathy and critical thinking, remains central to the learning process. It addresses concerns about the ethical development and deployment of AI in education. Features: Discusses a topic that is at the forefront of concerns in the education sector with the disruptive impact of advances in AI. Provides explanations for specific AI platforms and tools along with their features and applications in education. Includes case studies and discusses inclusivity and the lessons learned from each AI application. Explains how to ethically handle bias, privacy, and transparency in AI-based solutions in education. Serves as a comprehensive guide for educators, policymakers, and technology developers interested in the power of AI in educational environments. This book serves as a timely reference in the current era of AI tools and education. It is written for those who work in the education sector as well as researchers, academicians, undergraduate and graduate students, those involved with undergraduate teaching in critical thinking and problem-solving for information systems, information technology, computer science, and engineering, and all teaching institutions where AI tools have been or will be introduced. K-12 Classroom Research in Language Teaching and Learning Kate Mastruserio Reynolds, Khanh-Duc Kuttig, 2024-07-31 This edited volume presents narratives on a range of methods for research on second language teaching and learning appropriate to the elementary, middle, and high schools. K-12 Teacher-researchers in different worldwide contexts narrate their processes to explain and demonstrate practitioner research in context. Contributors describe their research from exploring the rationale for the project to designing the study, analyzing the data, and disseminating it. As such, the book illustrates how K-12 practitioners design, gather, analyze, interpret, and strategically employ data to make data-driven, evidence-based analysis.
