Identity Papers Helene Meyers, 2011-12-01 Argues that debates about Jewish identity and assimilation are signs of creative potential rather than crisis Identity Papers argues that contemporary Jewish American literature revises our understanding of Jewishness and Jewish difference Moving beyond the reductive labeling of texts and authors as too Jewish or not Jewish enough and focusing instead on narratives that portray Jewish regeneration through feminist Orthodoxy queerness off whiteness and intermarriage Helene Meyers resists a lachrymose view of contemporary Jewish American life She argues that such gendered sexed and raced debates about Jewish identity become opportunities rather than crises signs of creative potential rather than symptoms of assimilation and deracination Thus feminist debates within Orthodoxy are allied to Jewish continuity by Rebecca Goldstein Allegra Goodman and Tova Mirvis the geography of Jewish identity is racialized by Alfred Uhry Tony Kushner and Philip Roth and the works of Jyl Lynn Felman Judith Katz Lev Raphael and Michael Lowenthal queer the Jewish family as they reveal homophobia to be an abomination Even as Identity Papers expands Jewish literary horizons and offers much needed alternatives to the culture wars between liberal and traditional Jews it argues that Jewish difference productively troubles dominant narratives of feminist queer and whiteness studies Meyers demonstrates that the evolving Jewish American literary renaissance is anything but provincial rather it is engaged with categories of difference central to contemporary academic discourses and our national life Ultimately Meyers offers not only nuanced readings of many texts but also a cogent argument about the generative possibilities for American Jewish futurity through an undoing of what constitutes normative understandings of Jewish bodies families and relationships Journal of Jewish Identities Identity Papers is an important thoughtful text that will appeal to those with an interest in postmodern inquiries into multiculturalism identity theory and selfhood MELUS This is a sophisticated nuanced critical study of contemporary Jewish American literature Taking an anthropological approach to Jewish and Judaic cultural expression Meyers provides probing subtle analyses Highly recommended CHOICE
