E Bulletin July 2008 Home Ministry Of Civil Defence:

The Guns of August 2008 Svante E. Cornell, S. Frederick Starr, 2015-01-28 In the summer of 2008 a conflict that appeared to have begun in the breakaway Georgian territory of South Ossetia rapidly escalated to become the most significant crisis in European security in a decade The implications of the Russian Georgian war will be understood differently depending on one's narrative of what transpired and perspective on the broader context This book is designed to present the facts about the events of August 2008 along with comprehensive coverage of the background to those events It brings together a wealth of expertise on the South Caucasus and Russian foreign policy with contributions by Russian Georgian European and American experts on the region Joint Force Quarterly ,2009 Government Communications Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords. Select Committee on Communications,2009 This is the first report of the 2008 09 session from the Select Committee on Communications on the subject of Government Communications HLP 7 ISBN 9780104014189 One of the most important tasks of government is to provide clear truthful and factual information to citizens Accurate and impartial communication of information about government policies activities and services is critical to the democratic process Government communication falls into two areas with the media and with the public The growth in the 24 hour media has meant that the cost of Government communications have grown considerably The last external review of Government communications took place in the 2003 04 session by Sir Robert Phillis the Chief Executive of the Guardian Media Group <http://archive.cabinetoffice.gov.uk/gcreview/News/FinalReport.pdf> Since that review a number of changes to the structure and focus of Government Communications has taken place This report sets out a number of recommendations including when there is sensitive information the Government should commit to return to Parliament at the earliest opportunity to give an account of developments that the Prime Minister should draw all Ministers attention to the guidance in the Ministerial Code that the most important announcements of Government policy should be made in the first instance to Parliament further that new information should always be provided on a fair and equal basis to all interested journalists that the morning briefing to journalists should appear live on the Number 10 website that the Leader of the House of Commons should reinstate a weekly briefing on parliamentary business that all major press conferences should be live on the internet it is important that Ministers make clear that special advisers must follow the guidance available and stay within set limits that where possible high flying civil servants should spend a period of service in the departmental press office that the Chief Executive of the Central Office of Information should take the lead in improving standards with training and guidance to regional press officers tailoring regional press releases having greater contact with the regional media and making more senior officials and Ministers available for interview on the local impact of policies the Committee states that Government information should always be available and accessible to as many people as possible and that the Cabinet Office should collate annual statistics on the costs of Government Communications across departments Handbook of Asian Security Studies Sumit

Ganguly, Andrew Scobell, Joseph Liow, 2009 Reforming the Common European Asylum System — Legislative developments and judicial activism of the European Courts Samantha Velluti, 2013-09-30 In June 2013 after lengthy and complex negotiations the EU adopted the recast asylum package which represents a significant step forward in the future development of CEAS In this timely study Velluti provides fresh insights into recent legislative and judicial developments in asylum and through the lens of sovereignty she looks at some of the contemporary challenges faced by the EU protection regime with a particular focus on asylum seekers rights The volume assesses whether the EU provides an adequate framework for protecting those seeking international protection from the opposing perspectives of effectiveness and fairness It shows that despite the newly adopted second generation legislative acts which include changes aimed at ensuring a stronger level of protection for asylum seekers the reform process at European level does not adequately ensure an equal standard of protection across all Member States Through a comparative analysis of selected ECtHR and ECJ asylum cases the book also examines the constitutional relationship between the two European Courts and how it impacts on the human rights of asylum seekers and on the future of EU asylum law Ultimately the book shows that real progress in the development of the human rights dimension of CEAS will be achieved largely through the European and domestic courts

Defenseless Under the Night Matthew Dallek, 2016-06-02 In his 1933 inaugural address Franklin D Roosevelt declared that the only thing we have to fear is fear itself Yet even before Pearl Harbor Americans feared foreign invasions air attacks biological weapons and conversely the prospect of a dictatorship being established in the United States To protect Americans from foreign and domestic threats Roosevelt warned Americans that the world has grown so small and eventually established the precursor to the Department of Homeland Security an Office of Civilian Defense OCD At its head Roosevelt appointed New York Mayor Fiorello La Guardia First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt became assistant director Yet within a year amid competing visions and clashing ideologies of wartime liberalism a frustrated FDR pressured both to resign In Defenseless Under the Night Matthew Dallek reveals the dramatic history behind America's first federal office of homeland security tracing the debate about the origins of national vulnerability to the rise of fascist threats during the Roosevelt years While La Guardia focused on preparing the country against foreign attack and militarizing the civilian population Eleanor Roosevelt insisted that the OCD should primarily focus on establishing a wartime New Deal what she and her allies called social defense Unable to reconcile their visions both were forced to leave the OCD in 1942 Their replacement James Landis would go on to recruit over ten million volunteers to participate in civilian defense ultimately creating the largest volunteer program in World War II America Through the history of the OCD Dallek examines constitutional questions about civil liberties the role and power of government propaganda the depth of militarization of civilian life the quest for a wartime New Deal and competing liberal visions for American national defense questions that are still relevant today The result is a gripping account of the origins of national security which will interest anyone with a passion for modern American political history and the history of homeland defense The 758th Tank Battalion in World War II Joe Wilson, Jr.,2018-07-24 In 1941 the U S Army activated the 758th Tank Battalion the first all black armored unit By December 1944 they were fighting the Axis in Northern Italy from the Ligurian Sea through the Po Valley and into the Apennine Mountains where they helped breach the Gothic Line the Germans last major defensive line of the Italian Campaign After the war the 758th was deactivated but was reformed as the 64th Tank Battalion keeping their distinguished insignia a tusked elephant head over the motto We Pierce They entered the Korean War still segregated but returned fully integrated though discrimination continued internally Through the years they fought with almost every American tank the Stuart the Sherman the Pershing the Patton and today s Abrams Victorious over two fascist and racist regimes many black servicemen returned home to what they hoped would be a more tolerant nation Most were bitterly disappointed segregation was still the law of the land For many disappointment became a determination to fight discrimination with the same resolve that had defeated the Axis

Soldiers on the Home Front William C. Banks,Stephen Dycus,2016-01-04 When crisis requires U S troops to deploy on American soil the nation depends on a rich body of law to establish lines of authority guard civil liberties and protect democratic institutions William Banks and Stephen Dycus analyze the military s domestic role as it is shaped by law and ask what we must learn and do before the next crisis Multilevel Regulation of Military and Security Contractors Christine Bakker,Mirko Sossai,2012-02-10 The outsourcing of military and security services is the object of intense legal debate States employ private military and security companies PMSCs to perform functions previously exercised by regular armed forces and increasingly international organisations NGOs and business corporations do the same to provide security particularly in crisis situations Much of the public attention on PMSCs has been in response to incidents in which PMSC employees have been accused of violating international humanitarian law Therefore initiatives have been launched to introduce uniform international standards amidst what is currently very uneven national regulation This book analyses and discusses the interplay between international European and domestic regulatory measures in the field of PMSCs It presents a comprehensive assessment of the existing domestic legislation in EU Member States and relevant Third States and identifies implications for future international regulation The book also addresses the crucial questions whether and how the EU can potentially play a more active future role in the regulation of PMSCs to ensure compliance with human rights and international humanitarian law

Terrorism and the Olympics Anthony Richards,Pete Fussey,Andrew Silke,2010-11-23 The book aims to outline the progress problems and challenges of delivering a safe and secure Olympics in the context of the contemporary serious and enduring terrorist threat The enormous media profile and symbolic significance of the Olympic Games the history of terrorists aiming to use such high profile events to advance their cause and Al Qaeda s aim to cause mass casualties all have major implications for the security of London 2012 Drawing on contributions from leading academics and practitioners in the field the book will assess the current terrorist threat particularly focusing on terrorist targeting and how the Olympics might feature in this before addressing particular response themes such as transport security the role of surveillance resilient designing of Olympic sites the role of private security and the challenge of inter agency coordination The book will conclude by providing an assessment of the legacy of Olympic security to date and will discuss the anticipated issues and dilemmas of the future This book will be of interest to students of terrorism studies security studies counter terrorism and sports studies Domestic Military Powers, Law and Human Rights Michael Head,2019-12-05 This book examines the national and international law human rights and civil liberties issues involved in governments calling out the armed forces to deal with civil unrest or terrorism The introduction of domestic military powers has become an international trend Troops already have been seen on the streets in major Western democracies These developments raise major political constitutional and related problems Examining the changes underway in eight comparable countries the United States Canada Britain France Italy Germany Japan and Australia this book provides a review and analysis of this trend including its implications for legal and political rights The book will be of interest to the general public as well as students academics and policy makers in the areas of human rights and civil liberties constitutional law criminal justice and security studies

Pandemics and Bioterrorism Andrey Trufanov,Alessandra Rossodivita,Matteo Guidotti,2010 A collection of papers presented at the NATO ASI conference Transdisciplinary Information Sharing for Decision Making against Biological Threats It highlights strategic enablers such as cross disciplinary information sharing international outreach and partner activities public diplomacy and strategic communication Transatlantic Relations in the 21st Century Erwan Lagadec,2012 This book offers an overview of the interface between European integration transatlantic relations and the rise of the rest in the early 21st century The collapse of the Soviet bloc opened up an era in which the drivers and perceived benefits of the US alliance among European countries have become more variegated and shifting The proposition that the US remains at once an indispensable and intolerable nation in Europe is a key concept in the alliance as the US remains inextricably tied to the continent through economic military and cultural links This work examines this complex subject area from many angles including an analysis of the historical and cultural contexts of America s relations with Europe as well as a discussion of the politics of transatlantic affairs which utilises evidence gleaned from a series of case studies In the concluding chapters the author assesses the likelihood that the West can entrench its global dominance in the realms of soft and hard power and by effecting a controlled reform that will see multilateral structures open up to emerging powers This book will be of great interest to students of European Politics EU integration transatlantic relations US foreign policy diplomacy International Security and IR in general Handbook of Governance and Security James Sperling,2014-08-29 The Handbook is divided into four sections which examine in turn the emergence evolution and forms of security governance as well as the theoretical orientations that have so far dominated the literature networks multilateralism regimes and sy United States Code United States,2018 Counterterrorism Benoît Gomis,2015-07-17 Counterterrorism Reassessing the Policy Response promotes a more nuanced understanding of the effectiveness of current counterterrorism practices and the need for reform. It challenges government media and academic accounts that exaggerate terrorist threats particularly in comparison to other threats such as organized crime. Author Beno Gomis r Treasury Bulletin, 1961 Journal of the Senate of the United States of America United States. Congress. Senate, Refugee Protection and the Role of Law Susan Kneebone, Dallal Stevens, Loretta Baldassar, 2014-06-27 Sixty years on from the signing of the Refugee Convention forced migration and refugee movements continue to raise global concerns for hosting states and regions for countries of origin for humanitarian organisations on the ground and of course for the refugee. This edited volume is framed around two themes which go to the core of contemporary refugeehood: protection and identity. It analyses how the issue of refugee identity is shaped by and responds to the legal regime of refugee protection in contemporary times. The book investigates the premise that there is a narrowing of protection space in many countries and many highly visible incidents of refoulement. It argues that Protection which is a core focus of the Refugee Convention appears to be under threat as there are many gaps and inconsistencies in practice. Contributors to the volume who include Erika Feller, Elspeth Guild, H. I. Lambert and Roger Zetter look at the relevant issues from the perspective of a number of different disciplines including law, politics, sociology and anthropology. The chapters examine the link between identity and protection as a basis for understanding how the Refugee Convention has been and is being applied in policy and practice. The situation in a number of jurisdictions and regions in Europe, North America, South East Asia, Africa and the Middle East is explored in order to ask the question: does jurisprudence under the Refugee Convention need better coordination and how successful is oversight of the Convention. The PLA at Home and Abroad Roy Kamphausen, David Lai, Andrew Scobell, 2010. Papers from the conference sponsored by the George H. W. Bush School of Government and Public Service at Texas A M University, the National Bureau of Asian Research and the U. S. Army War College held September 2009 on the People's Liberation Army.
